11 Korinthiers - Paulus se lyding vir die evangelie 11 vers 16, weer se ek dat niemand moet dink dat ek dwaas is nie, of anders, neem my maar aan as ń dwaas, sodat ek ook n bietjie kan roem. Wat ek spreek, sè ek nie van wèè die Here nie. Maar as in dwaasheid in hierdie vertroue dat ek mag roem. Terwyl baie na die vlees roem, sal ek ook roem, want julle verdra graag die dwase omdat julle so verstanding is! Julle verdra dit mos as iemand julle opeet, as iemand julle beet neem, as iemand hom aanstel as iemnad wat julle in die gesig slaan, tot my skande moet ek erken dat ons daarvoor te swak was; maar as iemand dit aan durf - ek spreek in dwaasheid ek durf ook is hulle Hebreers? Ek ook is hulle Israeliete? Ek ook is hulle die Nakomelinge van Abraham? Ek ook is hulle dienaars van Christus? Ek praat in uitsinnigheid - ek nog meer in arbeid oor vloediger, in slae bo die maat ingevangens kaape baie meer in doodsgevare dikwels vyfmaal het ek van die Jode ontvang veertig houe op een na drie maal is ek met stoke geslaan, een maal is ek gestening, drie maal het ek skipbreuk gely, ń nag en ń dag het ek op die diepwater deur gebring dikwels op reis in gevare van riviere in gevare van rowers, in gevare van my volk, in gevare van die heidene, in gevare in die stad, in gevare van die woestyn, in gevare op die see, in gevare onder valse broeders in arbeid en moeite, in slapelose nagte dikwels, in honger en dors, dikwels sonder ete, in koue en naakheid, behalwe dit alles my daaglikse bekommernis, die sorg vir al

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

PAWS Heroes of the Month

We are very happy to announce that the BATS are our heroes this month. They worked incredibly hard for four long months – learning their lines, rehearsing 3 times a week, creating a fabulous set and then performing to packed houses for five nights. They showed true commitment to this special production of The Mousetrap and provided the Plett community with enormous enjoyment. Through their dedication they made it possible to donate the very substantial sum of R53 000 to PAWS. We pay tribute to David Hall-Green and his team of BATS. They are our worthy heroes of the month!

Plettenberg Bay property market update
The Plettenberg Bay property market is closely following the trajectory of the national housing market decline over the last two years, after a good 5-year growth phase between 2013-2017/8, says Kevin Engelsman, Seeff Licensee for the area.
Bear in mind, he says, that the Plettenberg Bay housing market comprises not just of a residential sector but also a sizable second home market which is usually the first to fee home market which is usually the first to feel the effects of an economic downturn. The coast has been very appealing to inland buyers and Plettenberg Bay certainly has plenty of coast and sunshine. According to reports, the town has seen a fair amount of influx over the last few years as semigrating families looked to settle in a more wholesome environment.

While operating under slightly more muted condition, the property market nonetheless remains active, but largely below the R5 million price band with sales above this, million price band with sales above this, being confined predominantly to the exclusive estates and the Sea Side Longships area, says Mr Engelsman. An analysis of Lightstone data shows that the total transaction volumes for Plettenberg Bay escalated from 383 in 2013 at about 40% annually to around 748 transactions in 2017. The 2016-2017 years were characterised by high volumes, in part due to new developments. The market decline set in from late 2017 and by 2018, the market had settled back to 494 transactions. For the current year, a total of 290 set in from late 2017 and by 2018, the market had settled back to 494 transactions. For the current year, a total of 290 transactions have been recorded for the January-August period and when extrapolated to 12 months and compared to the highs of 2016-2017, translates to the market being down by about 30%. The average transaction price measured over the 12-month period between September 2018 and August 2019, stands at around R1,952 million. Full title sales account for 32% and an average selling price of R2,638 million. Estate property account for 19% at an average price of R2,904 million and sectional title property for 9% at an average price of R1,123 million. Vacant land accounts for 29% of all transactions. The R1,5m-R3m price band has been the most robust, accounting for 50% of all transactions while only 28% of all transactions fall above R3m. As with the high-end areas, Plettenberg Bay has experienced a slow-down in sales above R5 million with only 12 transactions recorded for 2019 (to end of August), almost all below R10 million, save for a single high-value sale of R24m in Beachy Head Drive.

Plettenberg Bay enjoyed excellent interest in high value property during the 2013-2018 growth phase when several transactions were concluded above R20 million, especially in Beachy Head Drive and the rest of Sea Side Longships as well as in Whale Rock Ridge and Robberg Beach End estates. In Beachy Head some 9 sales have been concluded above R20m ranging from R24m (2019) to R33m (2015) and R36 (2017). Robberg Beach End sales have ranged to R35m (2018), R35,8m (2015) and R36m (2017) while a single high-end property sold in Whale Rock Beach Estate for R32m (2016). The broader property market data continues to tell the story of muted price growth of around 3.5% by mid-year and inflation, while improved, still mid-year and inflation, while improved, still at around 4%. The average time that it takes to sell a property is still at around 14 weeks, somewhat below the market average of around 12 weeks. Depending on the price point, it could take considerably longer to sell. The take-out from all of this, is that the market remains active, but with fewer buyers, asking prices, especially at the higher price points remain under pressure. Heading out of winter, we now look forward to the warmer months and tourist season, to the warmer months and tourist season, traditionally a busier period for the property market. If you are serious about selling, then we would suggest that you chat to one of our agents about your price and prospects in this market.

Plettenberg Bay is today regarded as the premier coastal town outside of the Atlantic Seaboard for upper end and investment buyers, but this is something that locals and holiday buyers and retirees have known for some time, says Mr Engelsman. The town offers excellent amenities, from restaurants and hotels to convenience and shopping centres, upmarket boutiques and decor shops, excellent schools, polo and the local Plett Wine and Bubbly Route, all set on the shores of some of the country's best Beaches. The upside of this somewhat down market is that there is a superb selection of stock available with many prime selection of stock available with many prime properties now on offer. Conditions remain good for buyers as the banks are keen to lend and the interest rate is slightly down. Seeff has over 400 properties to choose from to suit every buyer need and budget, ranging from compact apartments to farms and luxury estate, riverfront and beach

MOOI FINE, deur Lanie van Reenen. Nét mooi Fine is die opvolg van Lanie van Reenen se suksesvolle boek C'est La Vie, die storie oor haar sprokiesmooi chateau in Frankryk, en hoe haar drome vinnig aan skerwe spat. "David en ek het in 2008 vir Lanie by haar chateau in Aubusson gaan be-soek. Sy was op die punt om haar statige deure vir die publiek oop te maak. Ons het, soos sy, op die pragtige, klassieke Chateau Sallandrouze verlief geraak. Sy het die verwaarloosde gebou met haar gebruiklike styl omskep in 'n elegante Franse boetiekhotel. Ons was vol vertroue dat sy groot sukses sou behaal. Ons sou toe nooit kon raai dat haar droom oor twee jaar verpletter sou word nie. Sy moes alleen deur hierdie hartverskeurende tyd worstel, maar het uiteindelik haar pad na heling gevind, deur vele avonture aan te pak". David en Marsja Hall-Green. David sal met Lanie

DIFFERENTLY-ABLED AWARENESS CAMPAIGN - DISABLE PARKING FINES AND STICKERS

Please note that if you are either temporarily or permanently disabled and do not have a sticker on your vehicle you WILL get a fine.

Our trăffic Officers are very much aware of the frustration of those who genuinely need a Disable Parking Bay but find that some selfish individual who is perfectly normal will take a chance and be parked in the bay that the Differently-Abled so desperately need.

THE PROCEDURE IS :Collect the necessary form at the Traffic Office located at 1 Park Lane, opposite the fire station Take the form to your doctor for completion and signature, this is important as he needs to give a current overview of your condition. Take the form to the Cashier at the Municipal offices on the 2nd floor (old Standard Bank premises) Mellvilles Centre and pay R109. Go back to Park Lane with your completed form and receipt to collect your sticker. If you cannot go through all the above steps, let someone assist you but your application will not be considered if you do not have a genuine assessment through your doctor. Hope this will assist you, you MUST have that sticker on your windscreen, it takes too much time and energy trying to get out of the fine afterwards. The Traffic officers will adhere to the Traffic Regulations and we, the public must respect their responsibilities, they are, after all also there to protect the Differently-Abled from selfish, uncaring people. If you need any further advice, you are welcome to call The Differently-Abled Awareness Campaign Rita van Rensburg/Hardaker

Gelowiges - hou moed!

Almal struikel en val, maar die noodsaaklikheid is die opstaan en terugkeer! Miskien is dit beter dat ń blom val voordat die vrug ten volle ontwikkel het - as wat die volmaakte vrug deur ń mot verteer word.
Gelowiges - hou moed! Dit is maklik om ordentlik te lwew as jy die middele daartoe het, maar wat het ons? Die wêreld wys vinger, maar dit is asof hulle hom opsetlik uit hulle gedagtes verban, laat die natuur uitdelg en verwoes alles wat deur mensehande opgebou is, laat die donderstorms alles vernietig, net soos die drome en ideale vernietig is.

Morê sal die son weer skyn en die plante sal weer groei.

Hulle vrae - Waarom sal julle langer volhou met die stryd as daar niks oorbly om voor te stry nie?

Gelowiges - hou moed!

Wanneer die storm dan weer uitgewend is, lê die tuine en strate skoon gewas en helder glinsterend in die son.

Wie het die reg om God se handewerk te vernietig? ń Skepsel geskape na die ewebeeld van die skepper? Gelowiges - As die storms woed - hou moed!
Baie dankie Kim Kerry Jones
