Ponderings of a first year student

She is... she jumped up said, "Nobody ever writes about the sun, all they ever write about are the stars.
The sun is a star too. It's benevolent, it gives life... it's worth writing about". I looked up and lost sight of it for a moment, it's not there anymore... it's about to set. I'm yet again reminded of the time it took for the sun to move from right above me to behind the mountains. I am reminded of what the sun brings when it rises and what it takes away when it sets. I am reminded that I may never see sight of one ever again, because with each movement the sun takes, time moves with it. It hits me instantly like the drop of water that just fell on my face. They are in love, they have to be.
The sun and time, the sun and the moon even the sun and the earth as we know it. It is as if, they are lovers, the sun and time, they cannot flourish without one another, almost like one cannot exist without the other. And then there is the sun and the moon, a love so sacrificial. The moon hides away for hours each day allowing the sun to have its moment to admire the earth, and then the sun allows the moon to give peace to the earth with its calming demeanour, doomed to do what they do best apart, never sharing a moment. They are all but like a simple coin, it is either one or the other when the coin flips. And finally the ever loyal relationship between the sun and her flowers, imagine loving someone that intensely, that pure that you only ever have eyes for her... when she leaves there exist no other sight to admire till her next visit. So yes, the sun is benevolent, yes it does give life to many things all at ones yet she never tires, because the sun is a star too.

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo

The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area.
Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00

Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

Come and join the PBCPA and Gary Player on the 8th of November, at Gary Players Signature Golf Course in Plettenberg Bay, "Goose Valley," for an entertaining, educational and fun golfing day and stand a chance to win great prizes. Don't miss out on this amazing opportunity to rub shoulders with Gary Player! Player has won 167 tournaments over seven decades and was inducted into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1974. He's one of only five players to achieve a career Grand Slam and was the third to do so. His victory at the 1965 U.S. Open made Player the only non-American to win all four Majors. During his career, Player won nine Major Championships on the Regular Tour and nine Major Championships on the Champions Tour. At the age of 29, Player won the 1965 U.S. Open and became the only non-American to win all four Majors in a career, known as the career Grand Slam. At the time, he was the youngest player to do this, though Jack Nicklaus and Tiger Woods subsequently broke this record. Player became the third golfer in history to win the career Grand Slam, following Ben Hogan and Gene Sarazen, and only Nicklaus and Woods have performed the feat since. Plettenberg Bay is one of those very unique gems on this planet and certainly one of the most sought after places to visit or live in South Africa. One factor that has impacted enormously on its continued success as a highly desirable holiday and investment destination, is the very low levels of crime and, in particular, violent crime in the area making Plett a safe place to live and visit. For approximately nine years the PBCPA, (Plettenberg Bay Crime Prevention Association) has made a major contribution in ensuring that Plett is and remains a safe place in which the hard working and honest members of our society are able to flourish, prosper and live secure safe lives, and a difficult environment for criminals to operate in. The PBCPA is a voluntary association which constitutes an umbrella organisation under which committed organisations and individuals work together and commit their energy and resources towards ensuring that Plett remains the safe and secure paradise that we know so well, love and appreciate. In order to be effective, these endeavours cost a significant amount of money to fund both equipment and operational expenses and it is appropriate that members of the community who are the beneficiaries of all the hard work, make a contribution towards meeting these expenses. As part of the endeavours to raise the necessary funding, ongoing fundraising activities are necessary of which this event is a part. All funds go towards training, cameras, radio fees, dedicated vehicles and many other initiatives to ensure the continued success of the PBCPA.

Amongst many other operational resources, the PBCPA runs a 24/7 "all emergencies" hotline and reading the recent local newspapers reflects how busy and committed these volunteers are on an ongoing daily basis. The PBCPA is also actively involved in crime prevention in the form of Drug abuse prevention campaigns, Criminal Rehabilitation, and other projects to educate our future leaders of society in the form of the youth and reverse the moral decay of society by restoring trust and honesty. I dread to think what Plett would be like today were it not for the PBCPA. Bruce Richardson

Differently - Abled Awareness Campaign.

The Season is upon us.

Suggestions to make your Universal Access (UA/ special needs) guests' stay more comfortable Christmas Decorations are on the shelves in some stores - Are you ready for that "special" guest, family or friend?

It is understood that in general, up to 20% of a population can be "disabled". This could cover someone with a hearing or visual disability right up to someone who makes full time use of a wheelchair. The following (inexpensive and easy to do) tips are recommended to make that person's stay a little more comfortable. Many of these suggestions can be implemented in a "regular" guest room. It is suggested that a UA pack/kit is prepared, stored and replenished after use. See items below. Consider the availability of inter leading rooms if the guest is travelling with a carer. Draw up a checklist for each stay to determine the nature of the disability and if assistance is required. If so, what assistance?

Ensure that all staff are aware of the guests' needs, especially in the case of an emergency. Meet and greet - is parking available? Does the guest need assistance with luggage? Have you provided the name of a contact person/phone number for the duration of their stay? Remove excess furniture from the room if requested. Is there sufficient space for the guest to transfer from a wheelchair on to the bed? Does a wheelchair fit under the table/desk? Offer to relocate items on the desk to a bedside table or supply a duplicate set. Tissues? Pen and paper? Bottle of water? Compendium? Room service menu? Provide appropriate sized toiletries in suitable packaging (large size, pump action bottles are easier to manage than individual sachets or small bottles with lids). Are these accessible? Wall mounted for easy use? Provide clothing and towel hooks/rails at a convenient height. Would a fold up clothes horse be a better option? Ensure a full length mirror is available and accessible from a wheelchair. Is the hairdryer conveniently placed for use at the mirror? Can power points be easily accessed? Install a second set of brackets in the wardrobe at wheelchair height. The clothing rail can be moved lower for the use of a guest in a wheelchair. Install a peephole at wheelchair height. Provide the use of a walking stick, walker, or plastic chair (to be used in a regular shower), I have one that I could show you, it is not as wide, has holes and the legs can be adjusted. Supply a mobile, wedge shaped mat to cover the lip of the door frame. Is this required on the deck? Balcony? Offer to punch a hole in a key card and attach this to a lanyard for guests with coordination difficulties. You can make a difference this Season, if you are not quite satisfied with your arrangements, let me know what you feel which area can be improved upon and I will work out something, make some suggestions, the Differently-Abled Awareness Campaign is always ready to assist where we can.

In die wêreld maar nie van die wêreld nie -

In die wêreld sal julle dit moeilik hê: maar hou goeie moed. Ek het die wêreld klaar oorwin (Joh 16 vers 33) Die ge-heimenis van die mens word van Jesus Christus, is dat die Heiland een geword het met alle mense van alle tye. Hy het met alle tipes gemeng en hulle sy vriende genome.
Hy was nooit eksklusief in sy verhoudings met mense nie, baie van sy volgelinge vorm geselekteerde of geslote groepe. Hulle isoleer hulle van ongelowiges en rig hulle denke uitsluitlik op Christus. Dit mag op die oog af prysenswaardig klink, maar as die ekskusiwiteit te streng word, loop hulle gevaar om Christus self uit te sluit. Die betekenis van Christus se menswording, is dat God mensgeword het in Christus en tussen mense kom woon het. Hy het kom deel in hulle ervarings en begrip gehad vir hulle probleme. Hy wou op die wyse vir hulle lei tot 'n betekenisvolle verhouding met God die vader, vreemd soos dit mag voorkom, het die Christen die wêreld nodig om sy geloof tot volle ontplooiing te laat kom. Jesus weet alles van die wêreld en sy veersoeke, verse, kleinlikheid en aakligheid al die sondige faktore. Hy trek hom nie daarvan terug in vredevolle afsondering nie. Hy het ergter ook belowe dat hy ons nooit sal begewe of verlaat nie. Ek loof en prys U naam Here Onse God.

Chatterbox

Returning from Durban.

I have just returned from NUR territory, to those who are not familiar with that number plate, it is Umhlanga, Natal. Now I have been back and forth to the doctors and yesterday I saw a new one and he says I am about to have a nervous breakdown and need to do some alone time mourning my mother, the taking away of my birds, by that terrible man and other private problems. I also had a Birthday yesterday – the number is scary, and all I wanted to do was to hide in my bedroom and not come out again. Never mind that the doctor gave me some amazing happy pills, so I will be as good as new in a while. I do have a very good lady working for me, I have been training her in my OCD ways and she is amazing, very good cleaner and ironer and does everything very fast and very well, and I can truly recommend her. Her name is Kathy and she has been working for me temporarily while I trained her, but I cannot keep her permanently. Anybody interested in her I will give you the best reference. Her husband has worked for me for the last ten years in the garden, my Bongani, but he's not for rent! Our little Airbnb is slowly making progress, we only have one bedroom, but it is large and comfortable and we have met some really different types of people and all so nice. What a pleasure. My brother is doing the same in Durban, but because his house is virtually IN the sea he is fully booked all year. He has had some excellent people and some mighty odd people, so I guess it's not always going to be plain sailing. The rain here whilst I was in Durban was amazing. It was lovely to return home and find everything so green and thriving. A new house has also started to spring up in my absence. I see we also have a wooden house near us in Bowtie Drive that is nearly completed and we have looked through it and it's really nice. So yes, spring is in the air. Johannesburg on the other hand has turned grey and brown and is a very depressing place to live in, until the rains come. The temperatures there are also sky high. What is going on with the world? I am going on a cruise in four weeks time, with my brother and sister, just for five days but I must get my mind straight and my body slim before then. Bye from Chatterbox
