A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Let's just remind ourselves that the Beatitudes that Jesus taught on the mountainside in Matthew chapter 5 are a living illustration of what the day to day life of His followers should look like. This is particularly relevant now as we face the very real challenges brought on by the Corona virus. Today we consider verse 5 the 3rd Beatitude- Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. The second half of the verse concerns itself with the new heaven and earth that God will prepare for the redeemed.

In a way the idea of meekness does not resonate with the natural man who is successful, forward thinking, goal orientated and driven. For some it has an undertone of weakness, but Jesus would never advocate a life of weakness. There is something more special here and we see it clearly when we consider the Afrikaans word for Meekness / Sagmoedigheid. A direct translation speaks of a 'soft [sag] courage' [moed]. Soft courage is what Jesus was best known for and is exactly what he expects of His followers. Furthermore, Dr Martyn Lloyd Jones gives an important insight when he points out that meekness is a matter of grace and not genetics. It is not the same as natural niceness. Nobody is meek by nature, and that is why the Bible speaks of meekness or gentleness as a fruit of the Spirit. [Galatians 5] It is only by the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit that a person can be genuinely meek. It flows and grows from a heart that has been changed by God. So then, what does this meekness look like in daily life

1. Meekness concerns itself with the Glory of God. It does not ask for special privileges or resort to self-pity.
2. Meekness is not provoked by Criticism. It does not allow personal offence to drive the response but resorts to a display of soft courage.
3. Meekness deals gently with those who oppose the faith: And the Lord's servant must not be quarrelsome but must be kind to everyone, able to teach, not resentful. Opponents must be gently instructed, in the hope that God will grant them repentance leading them to a knowledge of the truth.-2 Timothy 2v24

4. Meekness deals gently with the failures of others.
5. Meekness allows for a teachable spirit. Ps 25:9 The meek He will guide in what is right and teach them His way.
With Christian love:
