Charmaine Wild

17 August 1956 - 13 June 2016

Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away to the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other,
That, we still are.

Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way
which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed
at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effect.
Without the trace of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
There is absolute unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind
because I am out of sight?

I am but waiting for you.
For an interval.
Somewhere. Very near.
Just around the corner.

All is well.

*You are missed every single day

Mikaya's Springbok Journey

How I became a cub:

My scouting journey began when I saw a little boy in a weird uniform. Shortly after I found myself invested into the global family that is scouting at the ripe old age of 8 years. In 2010 I join the 1st Durbanville cub pack in Cape Town, South Africa. I was immediately devoted to the earning of badges and led my own 'six' while in cubs, also earning the best cub all round award in my last year as a cub. Already I had witnessed Springbok ceremonies and saw their names written in gold on a board in our hall. I knew one day my name would be on there too.

How I became a Scout & moving to Plett:

At the age of 11 I went up to Scouting and experienced the adventures, friendships and character building experiences that have contributed so much to who I am today. I was honoured to lead a patrol and take part in competitions representing my troop. What was to follow was not what I had planned for my scouting career or for my life for that matter. In December 2018 my family relocated to Plettenberg Bay, a coastal town 500km away. My dreams of becoming a Springbok Scout of my home Troop was shattered. My dreams and aspirations for my Matric year changed overnight. I said goodbye to everyone I knew and all that was familiar and started again in a new town.

Coming to Plettenberg Bay I was relieved to hear of a young troop having started just three years before. My dreams for Springbok were still attainable and even this far from home I had a piece of family and the familiar in scouting. I visited the 1st Plettenberg Bay troop and found it bursting at the seams with growth and life, though a young troop, they were functioning as though they had been years. After three weeks of attendance I was invested and made TL of the troop. A distinction I hadn't dreamt of being afforded especially after only three weeks. I began qualifying for Springbok and was overwhelmed by the eager support given to me by virtual strangers. I was immediately accepted and supported as a member of the family.

My Community Service Project:
For my Community Service project I was required to complete 30 hours of Community Service to my Community. Wanting to give my service to and underprivileged school or preschool my Group Scouter put me in contact with the Orca Foundation and the work they do to support the local community. That is how I found out about Siyakula Pre-Primary school and the work they do there. Siyakula is a safe haven for over 100 children under the age of 1 year. Situated in the Qolweni informal settlement just outside of Plettenberg Bay. At Siyakula the children are fed, protected and educated by the wonderful teachers and foundation volunteers who keep the school going. With the help of the scouts at 1st Plettenberg and the financial backing of the Orca Foundation we were able to peel and repaint the entire school as well as performing maintenance to the roofs and school bag storage. The contribution we made felt small but it was an eye opening and worth while cause that I trust blessed the lives of the students and teachers at Siyakula as it blessed mine.

With the unwavering support and guidance of my new Troop I was able to acquire my Springbok award, becoming Plettenberg Bays first Springbok Scout as well as the 3rd person (that I am aware) in the Bitou district to receive Bushmans Thong. I would like to express my gratitude to the scout leaders, volunteers, my family and the Scouting movement for all they have sewn into my life and for the journey that has made me who I am today. Thank you.

Yours in Scouting,
Mikaya

Plett sets up 9 free hand sanitizer station in our local Townships

Under the guidance of the Plett COVID-19 Response Team, the Plettenberg Bay Tourism Association and the Bitou Municipality have set-up 9 free hand sanitizer stations in the local townships. The areas lucky to receive the stations include Bossiesgif, Green Valley, Kranshoek, Kwanokathula Phase 1, Kwanokathula Phase 2, New Horizons (both Melkhout Road and Keurbooms Road), Pinetrees and The Craggs. Venter has raised funds from various local business leaders to pay for this project, a wonderful asset to help curb the spread of the coronavirus.

The product currently being used is called F10SC. It is a total spectrum disinfectant that, unlike other strong disinfectants on the market, has no adverse side effects on people, animals, or on equipment and surfaces. It is ecologically friendly and biodegradable, and carries a wide range of registrations and approvals from around the world. It is a fantastic hand sanitizer. The 9 x 5000 litre tanks will be maintained and replenished over time. The tourism sector is fully committed to putting people and their well-being first. "We are excited to roll out these new hand sanitizer stations and are grateful to the donors for making this possible," says Marius Venter, Plett Tourism CEO. While leading with compassion, let us also be vigilant because together we stand as #OnePlett. #FlattenTheCurve

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

On 18 Dec 1996 President Nelson Mandela ratified and promulgated the Constitution of South Africa. It comprises a total of 181 pages and has since been amended 17 times.

Over the next few weeks I would like to share some thoughts on the Constitution of the Kingdom of God. It stands supreme over any constitution ever penned by man. For over 2000 years it remains distinctly relevant outlasting kings, nations and cultures. It has never been amended or adapted. It was conceived in the Heart of God, our loving Creator and validated and shared by Jesus as he sat and taught his followers on a hillside in Jerusalem.

Amazingly these 8, two line statements spoken by Jesus can be read through in less than two minutes and make up the Beatitudes[Blessings]and form part of what we know as the Sermon on the Mount.[Matt 5:1-11] Over the next few weeks we will see that the beatitudes are taught by Jesus in a specific order and together paint a beautiful portrait of the life of the ideal citizen in the Kingdom of God. It starts with what has been termed the 'Gateway Beatitude'-the Gateway to Heaven.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus is not talking about man's attitude to man, but rather man's attitude towards Himself. To be poor in spirit has nothing to do with my lack of money or self worth. It is rather a genuine recognition of my spiritual poverty and bankruptcy before a Holy and Almighty God. As A.W. Tozer says 'Until we have a proper perspective of God we will never have a proper perspective on ourselves and then we will never come as close to God as we might'. What does this look like in daily life? The Poor in Spirit give up the idea that God owes them.

They are not afraid to ask God for guidance and protection. They are ready and willing to receive from God because their hands are emptied of self. They live in deep reverence and thankfulness to God. They attribute all their abilities and skills to the Grace of God and they love to boast like the apostle Paul- May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ -Galatians 6:14.

With Christian love
