High time for Tea at The Plettenberg

It is time for a spoil with friends and family. Think savoury bites such as smoked salmon and cream cheese, and classic cucumber finger sandwiches; and seasonal berry pavlova and chocolate lamingtons as sweet treats – not to forget freshly baked scones.

All are served with the finest selection of teas or coffee.

High Tea - R175 per person | 24 hr advance booking essential

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

drive and narration will be done by our very knowledgeable guides.

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD

in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11
Like with all of us life goes on with many things to do, but last Tuesday, as I was enjoying my morning Weet Bix with Dawn, I was suddenly overwhelmed by a piercing realisation of how deeply so many people have suffered during this Covid Pandemic. Here in our beautiful Plett, many have had to say goodbye to loved ones, young and old. It's been very hard indeed. Let's keep them in our prayers, even if we don't know them.. God Knows! A few weeks ago I made an urgent phone call to speak and encourage a young medical doctor, who is also a specialist. He was extremely anxious as he was awaiting the results of some blood tests [many of you know the feeling] that would confirm whether a melanoma had spread to the lymph nodes or not. This young man loves the Lord and he loves God's word, so as we got to the end of the call, in a soft and somewhat emotional voice he simply said: I so appreciate the call Anton.. 'we must just number our days!!' That line pierced my heart like never before. I have been through similar trauma a few times in my life. It comes from Psalm 90. It's a psalm written as a prayer by Moses under very trying circumstances. Moses finds himself in the Wilderness of Sinai. They are under the wrath of God because they took sides with the unbelieving spies instead of marching into Canaan as Caleb and Joshua had encouraged them to do. The journey seems futile and people are dying. Please read the psalm for yourself and notice how Moses does not run away from God in his time of testing, but actually runs back to God, acknowledging God's greatness and goodness and then prays in verse 12. 'Teach us to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom. In Ephesians 5:15-17 Paul says something very similar. Be very careful, then, how you live, not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.' We know that every day is filled with opportunities to do the Lord's will. But the big question is what we do with them. Do we let them slip by, saying, "Maybe next time. There is always another day"? Or, do we embrace them? We know that in the words of the Beatles song...Yesterday already seems so far away and we know that we cannot boast of tomorrow because we just don't know what tomorrow holds, so Moses' petition is clearly that God would teach us to number our days, as if the present one was the last. Ps 118 :24

THIS is the day that the Lord has made .
We will rejoice and be Glad in it!! What a Godly and wise perspective on every day that we are given.
With much Christian Love :
Anton van Stombroek.

We remember Jean Sparg, who passed away on the 21st June this year:
On the 21st June 2021, on the winter solstice, when Earth was stretched far from the sun, Jean Sparg, Mama Jean, took her leave.
It's been a very sad and tragic year for so many, many people. However, not to diminish the loss or to negate the sadness – there is so much – but rather to honour Mama Jean's life, we felt it more pertinent to remember her incredible contributions.
She was a doer she loved the Earth and she touched the Earth with loving hands. She planted and grew. She was a spokesperson for Gaia – our Mother Earth – she demanded that earth and all her offerings be honoured, respected, understood and cared for. Her frustrations were enormous when Earth's needs were not being met or when any threat was being faced. Jean was so brave. She fought such an honest, determined, strong and loving fight for Mama Earth. Earth was hers and she was Earth and she will always be part of the Earth that we know. Mama Jean is in the plants, the trees (Madiba's trees), the wetland, the fynbos. She is in the big open skies and in all our hearts. Jean loved reading and loved Satish Khumar's book, Soil, Soul, Society. This quote is from there:
"Soil is the outer landscape and soul, the inner landscape. We need to take care of the soul, as we take care of the soil. But we can only take care of the soul when we slow down." ~ Satish Kumar (Soil, Soul, Society).
Jean, thank you. For all you have done and all you have been.
From all at the Plettenberg Bay Community Environment Forum. A Forum supporting sustainable development.
