5 DAY ROUND TRIP – GEORGE, OUDTSHOORN, DE RUST, PRINCE ALBERT, MOSSEL-BAY – again How fortunate we are here on the Garden Route in our octopus-type setting, tentacles that can stretch for hundreds of kilometres to enjoy a magical 5 day trip in which we can experience and see so many landscapes and different ways of life from Ferraris to donkey-carts, lush green growth to soul-destroying drought-stricken areas, wherever we go however there is a constant reminder of the grand vastness, big skies and overall beauty of this wonderful country, our South

Stayed in GEORGE on the first night then travelled on to OUDTSHOORN to visit our favourite, quaint trading store, restaurant, Smitswinkel, where our ever-roving eyes were constantly drawn to the oddities and unusual collection of WW11 side-car motorbikes in which sat model soldiers in full dress uniform to hobby collections also homemade goodies, there was so much else to see but we were unsure of just what the delay would be with the road works between Oudtshoorn and de Rust. Be sure to add at least an extra 30 minutes to your travelling time each way when you go We usually just whizz through DE RUST but decided to take time to find out why Country Life in their latest edition called it the Klein Karroo town that never sleeps. We can now understand why the local yokels gather at "Ray's" Coffee Shop. The treed garden is a pleasure in which to partake of a light meal and most importantly, that much needed cuppa. We visited a few quaint shops and found the owners and assistants to be most hospitable and friendly, certainly a little town that should not be overlooked or underestimated. There is a lot more there to mentioned, many places still to explore but that for next time, go see for yourselves and have fun, all so nostalgically normal. Off to PRINCE ALBERT through the awesome, magnificent Meiringspoort, sometimes a bit scary but exciting. current drought conditions are most evident here in the dried-up river beds and tributaries which is quite incongruous when just a short hop away is a waterfall. The rondawel restrooms are extremely well maintained and clean should you want to make a pit-stop. Arriving at Prince Albert, we stayed at dining room where we felt as though we had stepped back in time, the beautiful art, crisp, white table cloths, patterned wallpaper and huge portions of good food. Do try the cosy pub, the welcoming lounge with its huge fireplace and then of course one should not miss the Reading Room for the aperitifs or sundowners. We found some most interesting, historical books to browse through and the overall feeling was of it being in a place of rest and peace where a weary traveller should tarry. Exploring the many interesting little shops one can just feel that there is no need to rush, if they decide to close for the afternoon or take an hour or two off, who cares? The Tourism office is a most well informed one and are happy to elaborate on further activities in the area. Having the Museum so close to the Tourism Office was very convenient and what an amazing, interesting time we had, housed in really aged premises with old, creaking Pine floors from a bygone era, arrows point you in the right direction so as not to miss any of the numerous items on display in the many rooms, the Museum is a must-see The fourth night was spent at Eight Bells, just 35 k's from Mosselbay. the well maintained, treed gardens. The rooms are spacious and light, we actually stayed in what used to be the stables of the inn, now modernised of course. The menu is excellent as is the service, breakfasts are a feast.

We were pleased to be asked by Rene Bongers the co-owner, to give our opinion regarding their specially remodelled room and bathroom for the DIFFERENTLY-ABLED. The caring for this sector of the population which is so often overlooked was most gratifying and we were able to leave with a novel idea for a shower chair which we managed to get in George on our way home to Plett. We duly invested in three of these light, inexpensive, durable chairs, they are so much more user-friendly than the plastic garden chairs normally used in showers for someone who is

A few important rules to teach your daughter

- 1. It's okay to cry when you're hurt. But, wash your face, and get up off the floor when you're done. You don't belong down there.
- 2. You are a woman, you do NOT need a man, but you can absolutely enjoy your life with a good one.
- 3. Happiness is not a permanent state. Wholeness is. Don't confuse these.
- 4. Never walk through an alley alone.
- 5. 'Can't' is a cop-out.
- 6. Hold your heroes to a high standard. Be your own hero.
- 7. If you can't smile with your eyes, don't smile. Insincerity is nothing to aspire to.
- 8. Stay true to yourself always.
- 9. Your body, your rules.
- 10. If you have an opinion, you'd better know why.
- 11. Practice your passions.
- 12. Ask for what you want. The worst thing they can say is no.
- 13. Wish on stars, and then get to work to make them happen.
- 14. Stay as sweet as you are.
- 15. Say Please, Thank You, and Pardon Me, whenever the situation warrants it.
- 16. Reserve "I'm sorry" for when you truly are!
- 17. Question everything ... except your own intuition.
- 18. You are amazing! Don't let anyone ever make you feel you are not. If someone does....walk away. You deserve better.
- 19. No matter where you are, you can always come home.
- Be happy and remember your roots.
- 21. Say what you mean and mean what you say.
- 22. Be kind; treat others how you would like them to treat you.
