The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the elusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

Plett Rage cancelled due to COVID-19

Taking into consideration the advice given by local authorities, public pressure as well as by the request of the NICD in response to the result of what unfolded at Ballito Rage (28 November - 3 December 2020), the Rage organisers sadly had no choice but to cancel Plett Rage for the Class of 2020, which was scheduled to take place 29 January - 6 February 2021.

The Plett Rage team have worked harder than ever before, during one of the most trying times, to try and give students the gift of celebrating the end of high school safely. We look forward to welcoming the Plett Rage back at the end of 2021.

The Bitou Municipality and Plett Tourism are in support of this change as it is in the best interests to ensure the safety of the students and their families. "We are steadfast in promoting #SafeTravels for all guests in Plettenberg Bay, and we want the students to enjoy every moment while in Plett and encourage a positive experience. We are looking forward to hosting this event in 2021," comments Andile Namntu (Bitou Municipal Spokesperson).

Plett Rage is the longest-standing and largest festival hosted in Plettenberg Bay. The brand is currently owned by shareholders GNG Productions and Ronen Klugman. More than 5000 students attend Plett Rage annually - prompting the scene and its lively young demographic to get noticed. There are an additional 2000 young adults who participate in the festival on its periphery. The Plett Rage brand is big business. It brings a welcome stimulus to the local economy and it has become very attractive to big corporate sponsors including entry level car companies, banks, financial management institutions, clothing brands and the like. The bigger the festival, the greater the return on investment. Previous local tourism product surveys indicate that an average of between R12K - R15K is spent per student. They spend money on accommodation, food, drink, and area activities. This is the start of the Plett summer season, which encourages additional employment in both the retail and tourism industry. "The cancellation of Plett Rage will have a further negative impact on the economy in Plett, it is very unfortunate but understandable why it has been cancelled for 2020. We believe it is in the best interests of the students and their families, and at Plett Tourism we are all about promoting safe travel," says Patty Butterworth (Acting CEO Plett Tourism). She also adds, "Plett is blessed with wide open spaces and an abundance of fresh air, and we are open and ready to welcome visitors and encourage everyone this summer to observe all COVID protocols. We wish all the students a safe and happy holiday and hope that they will be spending it in Plett!"

Remember to always mask up, sanitize and maintain social distance.

PAWS Xmas message

As this difficult year draws to a close, we at PAWS reflect on the challenges we have faced and have managed to overcome. We had to cancel all our fundraising events and other activities, but we still had to continue our important service to the vulnerable and neglected dogs and cats in our community. This was made possible by the generosity of many people who donated funds, food and other goods. We wish all our kind benefactors, who supported us in so many ways, a very Happy Christmas with their families. We hope that the New Year will be a happier one for us all and that our communities can look forward to a more secure time. Please enjoy the Festive Season, stay safe and remember that Plett is a Fireworks-free town. Please report any sale or use of fireworks to PAWS (083 287 9917) and Law Enforcement (044 533 5000).

We're all eager to get back to our pre-COVID-19 lives.
Managing the risks can help us get there faster.

Think about the size of a venue. If you cannot maintain a safe, 1.5m distance, then consider going somewhere else.

Think about the smart choice. Having drinks with friends to celebrate? Keep it responsible.

Think about the next person. Always wear your mask in public and when you are finished eating.

A Moment of JOY Week 10
Bling versus Basic - By Rose Scott
When we take some time to reflect where things went so wrong in recent history it seems to have been with the invention of "labour saving" devices – and the "credit" (debt) ultimately permitted to enable more homes to purchase these items. The idea was that the "labour" saved would be invested in leisure and family activities and pursuits – but it left us with a hollow sense of "purposelessness" that had already begun to creep into jobs that did not demand originality or creativity, but rigidity. So our sense of personal satisfaction and achievement at a "job well done" – a beautiful garden, a home cooked meal, a sparkling sink of dishes washed, a home clean and aired could not be found in the usual places. So a sense of satisfaction needed to be sourced elsewhere – sophisticated cigarettes and cocktails, shopping malls to acquire bling and a different high, recreational drug sales spiked, dissatisfaction with self, became dissatisfaction with life. My parents' and grandparents' approach to life suddenly seems so obvious with COVID and Lockdown – we need the BASIC to keep us deeply satisfied and rooted, not the BLING that offers a fleeting sense of satisfaction. Perhaps this was one of my most important "Lessons of Lockdown" – it is not about what others think of me because of what I have – status, a fancy car or a big home, glittery jewellery and a wealthy husband on my arm. It is about HOW MY LIFE makes me FEEL EVERY MOMENT – engaging in MEANINGFUL work and activities, not just those that maximise financial return. Life is about purpose and structure – and the simpler these are, the more JOYful life is. Consider the insights that this crisis has gifted you with. We have a lot of work to do together to straighten this major "wheel wobble", but with the right attitude and the willingness to each do our bit we can make this work. The human spirit is incredibly resilient – as are each of us, but especially when we are not sailing rough seas alone.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Today we look at Part 2 of Commandment No 6, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER. It is important for us to remind ourselves that all murder begins with some form of anger. Someone wisely said: "Anger is one letter short of danger". In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus makes the connection between murder and anger. Matt 5:21-You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'You shall not murder, and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.' But I tell you that anyone who is angry with a brother or sister will be subject to judgment. So we have to admit that the sixth command is closer to us than we might think. I remember well my late father, a gentle man by nature and watch maker by trade, telling us repeatedly how he would have been a murderer at the age of 12 had he not missed when, enraged by his brother, he threw an axe at him. How best can we then deal with our anger?

There is such a thing as righteous anger- Eph 4:26 : In your anger, do not sin. Aristotle said: Anyone can be angry, that is easy, but to be angry with the right person to the right degree at the right time for the right purpose and in the right way that's not easy. May I suggest three steps to follow when next you are about to be overtaken by anger. Do the SENSIBLE THING. Press Pause: James 1:19 Everyone should be quick to listen slow to speak and slow to become angry. This is SUCH good advice. Simply listening often gives one a different perspective and may even be key to resolving the conflict. Then do the STRONG thing. Make every effort towards reconciliation. Matt 5:23 "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to them; then come and offer your gift. Reconciliation is supreme. Unresolved anger is like a bed of hidden coals burning deep wounds into your relationship with God and with others. Don't let anger rob you of your peace and your contentment in Christ. There are times when the most disarming thing to do in a situation of conflict is simply to offer appropriate apologies and ask or offer forgiveness. And Finally, if still needed, do the SPIRITUAL thing. This sounds like a cop-out but this is actually more difficult to do than our first two. Romans 12: 19 Do not take revenge, my dear friends, but leave room for God's wrath, for it is written: 'It is mine to avenge; I will repay,' says the Lord. This is a true test of faith because it calls on us to stand back and trust God wholeheartedly in His promise that He will do the avenging in His own way and in His time. Our job is to forgive and leave the rest to Him. Colossians 3 :15 is helpful- let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful. With Much Christian love.
