LANDSDOWNE

INVESTMENT PROPERTIES

Hi there!

I'm Lanice Thorp and I have the privilege of opening up the latest branch of Landsdowne Property Group, in one of the Country's most loved destinations, Plettenberg Bay.

I have been visiting and living in this beautiful part of the country for years. I started coming here with my family as a small girl and now, three generations later, we still all gather here as a family for holidays and special occasions. My husband and I have also had the privilege of acquiring our own home here, so we're lucky enough to reside in Plettenberg Bay, calling it our home and not only our holiday destination.

So I guess it's safe to say, I know Plett like the back of my hand! I've been involved in the property market here for some time; I know the in's and out's of some of the most beautiful homes and best "location, location, location" in this area... whether you're looking for a holiday rental, a family-friendly holiday home, an investment property in one of the most sought-after locations in the country or, you're just looking to rent or sell a property, then Landsdowne Property Group is here for you.

As your agent, I can advise and assist you, bringing into the fore a wealth of local knowledge with my own expertise in this area, as well as the expertise and backup of the renowned Landsdowne Property Group.

As we all know, your house is your biggest investment, so buying a property, which is the best value for money in the best area, is essential. At the same time, it's great to get the most family fun and enjoyment from the property while it increases in value. I am well placed to provide the maximum amount of information and excellent advice in this regard.

Plettenberg Bay continues to be resilient despite weak economic growth and it continues to outperform the national market. Plettenberg Bay offers a quality of life that once acquired, is the envy of many. Plettenberg Bay can offer you an unsurpassed investment. Plettenberg Bay attracts a mix of buyers from around the country AND the world, due to its prime location and ultimate way of living.

Regards
Lanice Thorp

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Last week, we started our series on the Beatitudes that make up the introduction to the Sermon on the Mount. [Matthew chapter 5] We made the point that the eight statements that Jesus made whilst teaching his followers on the mountainside, can best be understood as the CONSTITUTION of the Kingdom of God. Together they are a 'benchmark' for every Christian, as to how they should conduct themselves in this world.

This week we look at the second Beatitude:

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.

The 'mourning' that Jesus is speaking about here, is not the mourning and grief we experience at the loss of a loved one. In the Beatitudes Jesus is speaking about qualities that we are to pursue with intention. We are to want more of them, and be more like them-not just to be pure in heart but to become even purer in heart. Not just to show mercy, but to become more merciful, etc. This is not something we would say about mourning. No grieving person would ever say: 'I want more of this'.

What Jesus IS saying is that when we have been convicted of our poverty in spirit, 'Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven', we are immediately confronted and deeply saddened with our sinful condition before a Holy and Righteous God and this causes us to mourn, because of our sin.

We see this most beautifully illustrated in the parable of the prodigal son, that Jesus told in Luke 15: 1-33. The young man asks his father for an early payout of his inheritance, leaves a loving home and decides to live it up with all his new friends. Soon he runs out of money and friends and finds himself destitute, hungry, lonely and forgotten. And then in v 17 He comes to his senses [Poor in Spirit] and goes back to his father and repents: Father I have sinned against heaven and before you and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. [Mourns his sin] His father forgives him unconditionally and takes him back into his home where the son once again enjoys the blessings of a loving home.

[Comforted]

Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.

With Christian love:
Anton van Stormbroek

WHAT TO DO WHEN YOU SUSPECT A CHILD IS BEING ABUSED

If you suspect a child is being abused what to do and where to go to Go to the police immediately and tell them what you suspect or what happened. They will take down basic information ie. Name of child and when it happened

What happens next?

The police will phone a trained VEP (Victim Empowerment) member and the child will be taken to the VEP room where he/she will be supported by a trained VEP volunteer

A social worker and the FCS Unit (Family violence, Child protection and Sexual offences Unit) will be contacted by the police and supplied with a docket number. The FCS unit will take a statement in presence of the Social worker.

Should it be necessary, the child will be taken to hospital by a FCS member or the police, accompanied by the VEP member and the parent.

Should the child be taken to hospital, a medical examination will be done by a doctor.

If necessary, the child will be hospitalised. The child may be discharged and taken home

The forensic team will go the scene of the crime, take photos and collect the necessary evidence

The police will keep in contact with the parents on any development.

Should the accused be arrested a court date for first appearance will be established. Should the parent and child need support the Green Hearts will be there for them

PLETT ARTS FESTIVAL CELEBRATES LA VIDA LOCAL AND GOES VIRTUAL FROM THE 19TH – 30TH OF JUNE

A lot of Local and a little bit of Loca.

Plett Tourism is excited to announce that the much anticipated Plett ARTS Festival is going virtual this year, bringing the magic into your living room while you stay home and safe. The festival celebrates La Vida Local, putting the spotlight on Plett local artists who are going to blow your socks off from 19 to 30 June 2020 at a screen near you!

With support from the Western Cape's tourism, trade and investment promotion agency Wesgro, Plett Tourism is able to promote and keep events alive in their town. At a time when funds have been diverted to health care and economic survival, the small injection into the events industry is greatly appreciated. At least 20 artistes will have a platform at the Plett ARTS Festival, and this affords them an opportunity to earn some money from their ticket sales for the virtual events. Without the funding support of R15 000, the festival would not be taking place.

Strange times demand innovative thinking and keeping arts and culture alive is crucial.

"The Arts and Culture sector is constantly under threat in South Africa - underfunded and unsupported by the government and by private sector, plagued with insecurity of employment, lack of performance venues and national arts institutes. It is the artists, actors, performers, writers, and musicians who observe, pick up the threads, and weave the web and warp of our social fabric. And then shake out that cloth of our society and lay it open on the ground," says Cindy Wilson-Trollip, Plett ARTS Festival Director and Manager at Plett Tourism.

We have seen some of the greatest arts organisations worldwide opening up galleries, opera and ballet, all online and on demand and free of charge during the worldwide lockdown. "People have been entranced and transported by these performances which under normal circumstances, are largely the preserve of the elite. The arts has been a balm for the suffering during the incarceration of people all over the world," says Wilson-Trollip. In South Africa our musicians, comedians and performers have been streaming and Face-Booking in a bid to earn a living, and to keep up morale and a semblance of normality. There have been weekly impromptu live shows from rooftops at sunset, and famous musicians recording uplifting songs in aid of COVID survival, which have been used to promote South African cities.

Plett Tourism has curated a live stream of jazz, opera, popular classics, sacred and gospel music brought to you during the Plett in Concert live stream most evenings at 7pm. Every Friday kick back with Plett Sunsets chilled sundowner vibes brought to you by Surf Café. For the drama lovers, enjoy homegrown theatre and performance feature on The Fringe. And don't miss the opportunity to Zoom in on music and art masterclasses, while gallery curators and artists-in-residence give insider views of their colourful world. House, rap and jazz fill the Plett Legends slot during festival, so dial in with friends or just hang out on your own for late afternoon beats.

Not stopping there, the festival will also focus on the work of emerging local filmmakers - the latest, sharpest graduates of Ikasi Creative Film School - featuring their short films on Plettfix.

"The creative industries account for a significant percentage of revenue stream for most towns. And for Plett Tourism, the Plett ARTS Festival has grown to become a calendar favourite along the Garden Route. We note that arts travelers tend to stay longer and spend more money than the average guest," says Marius Venter (CEO of Plett Tourism). "Continuing Plett Tourism's vision to showcase arts and culture in the area is part of our vibrant community's lifeblood. During these unprecedented times, we hope to showcase our local and national talent to inspire that Plett feeling," says Venter.

The La Vida Local focus puts the spotlight on our homes and our immediate communities and living a local life... a mad local life. "With this year's 'no travel, no touch, stay home' it seemed a fitting tongue-in-cheek take on the madness which keeps us locked and local. The streaming process is challenging and a learning curve for all, but it seems like it will be here to stay in the new normal," says Wilson-Trollip.

Plett ARTS Festival events will be live streamed on a private channel or are accessible on Youtube and Zoom. Tickets are open, visit pletttourism.com to register. It is going to be an awesome 2 weeks of live performance and you don't even have to leave home!
