Why Plett Rage crowds are likely to break records in 2020

The Rage Festival is that long-awaited holiday break between late November and the first week of December, when school leavers are in the mood to celebrate the end of their school career before embarking on the next phase of their life journey. The Plett Rage is the 'granddaddy' of all student rages in South Africa in that it is the oldest and most desirable end of year post-matric celebration destination for South African students. As the local destination marketing organization in Plettenberg Bay, it is part of Plett Tourism's function to not only assist with the facilitation of events such as the Plett Rage, but to monitor tourism development in the Bitou area, along the Garden Route, in South Africa generally and internationally to keep abreast of current trends and stay ahead of the ever changing kaleidoscope that comprises the tourism industry. As such, the feedback from Ronen Klugman, a director of Student Rage Events, via Plett Tourism Chairman, Bruce Richardson was that "Plett Rage 2019 was the most successful Plett Rage ever, with a flawless performance both organisationally and in keeping the young people safe." Richardson went on to say that the students were thrilled with the Plett Rage venues and entertainment on offer and to re-affirm that every effort was made to ensure that Plett remains by far the safest venue for Rage students to attend as a result of detailed co-ordinated security planning and a great deal of hard work and commitment across the spectrum by those involved.

The unqualified success of Rage 2019 bodes well for the future growth of the festival and Patty Butterworth, media spokesperson for Plett Tourism, stated "initial indications in terms of accommodation bookings for Rage 2020 are that the numbers seem to be up, way up. Parents are already calling our office because they are struggling to find available accommodation in the most popular areas for student accommodation. As a result we urge parents to commence the planning of their young people's arrangements as early as possible so as to ensure that they are able to find suitable accommodation". While the matric rage concept has been growing for a number of years in a number of centers, Plett Rage 2020 is experiencing unprecedented growth because of the demand by parents for a safe and streamlined student experience which includes extensive coordinated security arrangements to ensure student safety together with amazing and imaginative Rage venues, top level entertainment, safe transport arrangements, food, lodging and activities. An added value product for 2020 will be the launch of the new Rage Travel offering by the organisers. Plett Rage has partnered with local businesses to offer package deals for students to make the Rage experience in Plett even more streamlined and accessible. Recognizing that peace-of-mind is a top priority for parents, the organisers work with local authorities and safety and security organisations to streamline the safety and security of the students. Plett Rage security consultants, Bruce Richardson and Marius Venter, both members of the executive committee of the Plettenberg Bay Crime Prevention Association, work together with all key role players in both the public and private sectors when it comes to the safety and security of the students in terms of a comprehensively prepared, documented and executed security plan. This includes planning and implementation with the SAP Station Commander, Bitou Municipality Head of Public Safety, and a number of private security companies and voluntary associations. Says Richardson, "All security information and plans of action are distributed to key role players, the motivation being to put all participants in contact with each other so that in the event of a problem, the parties know who to contact and how to contact them. It is a massive exercise involving many aspects including an assessment of the current state of criminality in the town to ensure that all bases are covered. As a result, we have had no serious incidents involving Rage students for the past seven years." Richardson also comments, "AS an added bonus for the town, a percentage of the income earned from the Plett Rage by Student Rage Events is paid into the 'Plett Rage Trust' which supports worthy beneficiaries within the Bitou area. A primary focus is to contribute towards keeping visitors safe during Plett Rage but the Trust also makes contributions to a number of charitable and social support organisations in the area. In the past, donations have been made to the Shepherds (get students home safely) Rage programme, the Red Frogs, the PBCPA, the Community Policing Forum. Other beneficiaries include Masizame Children's Shelter, the Craggs Drill Squad youth outreach and the Adopt-a-Swimmer programme together with making a contribution towards the refurbishment of the municipal lifesaving huts.

The official dates for Plett Rage 2020 are 27 November through 4 December. Pre-registration will open early January 2020 and tickets will be available mid-March 2020. Refer to Plett Rage digital channels and the official website for ticket sales: plettage.co.za

MORE ABOUT PLETT RAGE

Plett Rage is the longest-standing and largest festival hosted in Plett. The brand is currently owned by shareholders GNG Productions and Ronen Klugman. More than 5000 students attend Plett Rage annually – prompting the scene and its lusty young demographic to get noticed. There are an additional 2000 young adults who participate in the festival on its periphery. The Plett Rage brand is big business. It contributes significantly to the local economy and has become very attractive option for sponsors including car companies, banks, financial management institutions, clothing brands and the like. The bigger the festival, the greater the return on investment.

Local tourism product surveys indicate that an average of between R12K – R15K is spent per student. They spend money on accommodation, food, drink and area activities. The Plett Rage also kicks off the start of the Plett summer season and encourages additional employment in both the retail and tourism industry.

Safety and security are a major consideration, the organisers take this seriously and endeavor to improve on this as well as all other aspects each year to allow for a better and safer experience for the students.

Vehicle safety precautions:

Perpetrators target vehicles that are parked, where valuables are in sight of the public.

These valuables include handbags, laptops, and cellular phones, cameras, jewellery. This creates

An opportunity for criminals to break into vehicles and steal these items rather than kept in the boot of the vehicle or out of sight.

It is therefore advised that such items rather be kept in the boot of the vehicle or out of sight of the public.

Be alert when locking your vehicle with the remote, it is definitely locked.

Be constantly on the look-out for suspicious-looking characters. Don't hesitate to report them to the Police.

The 176 000 hectare
Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.
The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5
and of course the 600 elephants that roam there,
it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

*Collection from Guest House in Summer-
Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30*

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo
Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni.
The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area.
Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

*Collection from Guest House in Summer-
Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30*

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo
Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni.
The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino.
The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

Prevent Fraud

Don't be a victim of scams. Carry only the amount of information that you will actually need in your handbag, briefcase wallet or purse and guard your ID book, credit and or/bank cards. Don't give out personal details on the phone, through the mail or over the Internet unless you have initiated the contact or know whom you are dealing with. Keep items with personal information in a safe place. Tear or shred documents such as credit applications, bank statements and receipts. Don't leave personal items lying around during renovations. There have been a number of cases reported, where people received phone calls from someone, pretending to be from your bank and ask to update or change your banking details. Scammers are trying to get your banking details. Don't give your banking details over the phone. Go to your nearest bank.

Fireworks are banned in Plett
PAWS would like to remind all local residents and visitors that the use of fireworks and sky lanterns is illegal in Plett. In the past, we have had many cases of serious damage and injury as a result of fires caused by fireworks. They are not only hazardous to properties, but to our natural vegetation and wild animals and birds. Every year, during and after New Year's Eve, when fireworks have been set off illegally, PAWS has to deal with the fall-out. Many terrified, lost and injured dogs are brought to our kennels and we have to care for them. We appeal to all pet owners to make sure that they are kept safe and protected from fireworks. Also, please report the illegal sale and use of fireworks to Bitou Law Enforcement.

DIFFERENTLY-ABLED AWARENESS CAMPAIGN - DISABLE PARKING FINES AND STICKERS

Please note that if you are either temporarily or permanently disabled and do not have a sticker on your vehicle you WILL get a fine. Our traffic Officers are very much aware of the frustration of those who genuinely need a Disable Parking Bay but find that some selfish individual who is perfectly normal will take a chance and be parked in the bay that the Differently-Abled so desperately need. THE PROCEDURE IS: Collect the necessary form at the Traffic Office located at 1 Park Lane, opposite the fire station. Take the form to your doctor for completion and signature, this is important as he needs to give a current overview of your condition. Take the form to the Cashier at the Municipal offices on the 2nd floor (old Standard Bank premises) Mellvilles Centre and pay R109. Go back to Park Lane with your completed form and receipt to collect your sticker. If you cannot go through all the above steps, let someone assist you but your application will not be considered if you do not have a genuine assessment through your doctor. Hope this will assist you, you MUST have that sticker on your windscreen, it takes too much time and energy trying to get out of the fine afterwards. The Traffic officers will adhere to the Traffic Regulations and we, the public must respect their responsibilities, they are, after all also there to protect the Differently-Abled from selfish, uncaring people. If you need any further advice, you are welcome to call The Differently-Abled Awareness Campaign Rita van Rensburg/Hardaker 082 5602 606

Children's Fear

As adults, we know that life can sometimes seem like a maze filled with danger, anxiety, disaster and heartache lurking around every corner. Almost every day we are faced with situations that elicit fear, of varying degree. Fortunately, as adults we have acquired tools to understand and regulate these fears. These tools however are not developed in adulthood. At 4 months, babies can already distinguish between different emotions; and at age 5, children become aware that emotions, such as fear, can be regulated. But how is your child regulating fear?

And how can you help? You can begin by talking to them about fear. This is important, as your child will feel supported and safe. Ideally, fear should be acknowledged, regulated and released. Talking about fear in this way also gives you the opportunity to determine how serious or concerning their fear is - only fears that persist or interfere with a child's life should be considered abnormal.

Typical fears according to developmental stages:

Toddlers: separation, noises, falling, animals and insects, using the potty, bathing and bedtime.

Pre-school children: fear of animals and insects, monsters and ghosts, getting lost, divorce, loss of a parent, and bedtime.

Primary school children: separation, noises, falling, new situations (especially starting school) and bedtime in younger children; social rejection, war, new situations, and burglars in older children.

Adolescents: burglars, new situations (going to college, etc.), war, divorce, and sexual relations. You can support your child by respecting and listening to their feelings and fears. Allow them to describe and explain the fear, without judging or disregarding their experience.

Teach your children how to deal with fear - start off by acknowledging it. Regardless of what they are afraid of and why, to them it is real. Emphasise that it's not wrong to be afraid or fearful. In an appropriate context, explain to your children how you as an adult can relate to feeling unsure, scared or fearful.

Understand the fear - fear is ultimately a way or need to protect yourself from a potential risk, and an attempt to take care of yourself. Fear tells you that something doesn't feel or isn't right. Try not to be overprotective by allowing your child to avoid all of the things that they are afraid of. And try not to overreact - this might reinforce and worsen the fear.

However, avoid forcing your child to face their fears - a hidden threat may still be present. Determine the level or seriousness of the fear. If your child's fear is persistent, influences their functioning, elicits concerning behaviour such as bedwetting/soiling, avoidance, panic, recurring nightmares, to name a few - ask for help. Be aware of potential risks and sources of fear in and around your home, school and social environments. Do as much as you can to provide your child with a safe and comfortable space wherever they may be. They deserve it.
