Cape Summer Villas' Charity Golf Day in Plett raises R31K for the hospitality industry Cape Summer Villas' Charity Golf Day #TeeOff4Tourism Challenge, held on Saturday 8 August 2020 at the Goose Valley Country Club in Plettenberg Bay, was a huge success, according to Paul Duverge, Group General Manager of Cape Summer Villa Boutique Collection.

"We had a record sell out and we garnered a whopping R31000.00 from ticket sales, and hole sponsorships - actually the four balls sold out within four days".

The main objective of the Cape Summer Villas #TeeOff4Tourism Golf Day was to raise funds for the procurement of food for Plettenberg Bay's hospitality workers, many being the sole breadwinners of their families, who have been adversely affected by the Covid-19 lockdown.

With the current situation that the South African tourism sector has been experiencing, The Cape Summer Villas Boutique Collection - with its collation of Western Cape exclusive accommodations, from quaint hotels in Garden Route to luxury accommodation in Plettenberg Bay - felt strongly about adding its voice to the #ServeUsPlease, #Tourisminmyblood and other similar campaigns, as a means of placing pressure on the government to re-open the tourism sector and assisting the now, many unemployed hospitality workers within the Plettenberg Bay industry.

All proceeds from the Cape Summer Villas #TeeOff4Tourism Golf Day will be allocated to providing food parcels for these affected hospitality workers, Duverge explained.

"Our focus has always been about uplifting our community, and what is gratifying about our Golf Day initiative is the way it brought in generous support from the entire town and community of Plettenberg Bay. We're hoping that other companies, towns, and provinces will follow our lead and start similar initiatives of their own."

"All round it was a fabulous day - well done to the team and big thanks to all our supporters".

Great prizes included the Grand Prize - a five-night stay at one of the properties of Cape Summer Villas Boutique Collection, and hotel vouchers, meal vouchers, golf goodies and a prize for the Best Dressed team.

"It makes me proud that Goose Valley Golf Course was part of this important initiative."

It was a hugely successful Golf day", said Daniel Gouws, Goose Valley's PGA Head professional at the signature Gary Player designed 18-hole, 72-par golf course. CEO of Plett Tourism attended the prizegiving and was overwhelmed with the support from the tourism community. "The coronavirus COVID-19 pandemic has triggered a tourism economy crisis globally and this crisis is being felt throughout our local economy. Our faith and working together will continue to provide us with the tools we need to stay ahead during difficult times. We are grateful for this initiative presented by Cape Summer Villas and the team at SkyVilla, a world class event for the world class people in Plett."

PAWS appeal for pet food

PAWS have continued to provide their services
throughout the lockdown, albeit a bit reduced. Our kennels have kept going and we have had a number of adoptions. We are very concerned that all our fundraising events have been cancelled,
but are grateful that the PAWS Charity Shop is back in business and providing very welcome financial relief at this difficult time. While we have received donations of pet food, but can't keep up with the demand. So many people have lost jobs and are struggling to put food on the table. They also need help to feed their pets. We will be most grateful if you could donate at the various supermarkets who have PAWS food bins.

We would also welcome any financial contributions. Plett Animal Welfare Ser-

Jou Liefde

Jou liefde is vaal teenoor my kleurloos, verdwynend
Belangstelling trotseer nie Jou liefde nie meer
ewedurig, hoflik betaam soos voorheen Jou liefde het weggekwyn nou net omsingel in hartsser en pyn Jou liefde het my hart en brein verwoes met gemengde boodskappe Jou liefde is dood, my vergiftig in jammerte
doen aan my leed
Al wat ek nou moet doen is om van jou afskuwelike liefde te kan vergeet.

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Today we conclude our short study on the Beatitudes from Matt 5:1-11. Thank you for taking the time to meditate on these important matters.

Beatitude no 8. 'Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad for great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.'

Genuine Christianity will always attract persecution: J C Ryle says: Persecution is like the goldsmith's hallmark on real silver or gold. It is the mark of a converted man. In Phil 1:29 we read: For it has been granted to you, on behalf of Christ not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for him.

How this flies in the face of the false teaching that is now so popular, where Christianity is offered as a solution to your general wellbeing, financial woes and all round happiness. When the world runs into genuine Christianity there will be conflict, conviction, guilt, resentment and persecution. Why is this so? Why do we have this sad irony that the very people who are meek, pure in heart, peacemakers, etc, are the very ones most likely to be persecuted. The simple answer is that every one of the characteristics commended in the Beatitudes is diametrically opposed to the spirit of this world. Two kingdoms at war with each other. Two irreconcilable value systems. The one that Jesus taught and still teaches today is the one the world hates. That is why he says it quite plainly: 'Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.' The world hates Jesus because deep down, every living soul, knows that he or she is a sinner. Who has never told a lie, taken something that does not belong to them, or had a lustful or covetous thought? Jesus went to the cross, to die and pay the ransom for our sins: that is how serious our sins are to God. He is holy and He cannot deny himself. Just like we like to see justice being done so God is no different. He does not simply cause our sins to vaporise. The amazing truth though, is what we read in Rom 5:8. God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Is that not a monumental thought-for me it is truly 'out of this world!!' ..but there is more..1 John 1:9 states that 'if we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and cleanse us of all unrighteousness.' That makes You and I fit for heaven!!.. there is no other way. Notice Jesus' last closing words on this subject: Reflecting on the fact that the prophets who had gone before were also persecuted and knowing that genuine Christians in 2020 will also have to endure various forms of persecution because of Him. Jesus says: 'Rejoice and be glad for great is your reward in heaven'. He does not tell us what our reward in heaven will be, except that it will be GREAT! and that's good enough for me. And I trust its good enough for you! With much Christian love Anton van Stormbroek.

Flocks of flamingos turn Plett pink during coronavirus lockdown

Greater flamingos are painting areas of Plett pink, migrating to the seaside coastal town to nest and hatch a few chicks as the country and the world are in lockdown due to the Coronavirus pandemic.

Though the beautifully coloured birds have occasionally been 'spotted' in Plettenberg Bay since the early 1900's, the lagoon was lucky to have 2 or 3 and one could sometimes find a pair up the Bitou River during migratory season. Known for its natural green thumb when it comes to wildlife, coastal reserves, river estuaries, indigenous fynbos and forests, Plett has seen the numbers of these migratory birds soaring over the past few years.

Greater flamingos are close to 6 feet in height, and they have the identifiable pink feathers with black-tipped wings. These remarkable birds rarely breed in South Africa. Their more popular breeding grounds include Sua Pan in Botswana and Etosha Pan in Namibia and they have an average lifespan of 60 years.

Locals are protective of these special guests and understand how fortunate it is to have these remarkable birds visit and are extremely excited about the recent roosting and hatching of chicks. They are comfortable with their new environment, a testament to the conservation efforts of the Bitou Wetlands and surrounding birding areas. Visitors are encouraged to visit, but not to disturb or disrupt the birds by getting too close or allowing dogs on the premises without a lead.

Perhaps it is less human activity and commercial fishing due to the Covid lockdowns that began in March, creating an opportunity for near perfect foraging conditions in the lagoon and river estuaries.

"The lockdown has given these birds peace for roosting, little to no disturbance and overall an encouraging habitat," says Patty Butterworth (Plett Tourism media spokesperson).

"While there is a decline in potential water waste due to the closure of tourism businesses during the lockdown, there seems to be an undisturbed formation of planktons, algae and other micro-formations which provides food for flamingos and other wetland birds," says Butterworth.

A Moment of JOY

By Rose Scott

Hearing the news that we are going to Lockdown Level 2 has most of us feeling ambiguous. There is the excitement of regaining some freedoms lost, while processing the economic devastation to recover from. There are also those grieving the loss of loved ones who they never had the chance to say goodbye to.

I am writing this weekly contribution in the hope that it may help us to unite, to heal and to remember that what we have discovered is truly important for each one of us.

So, take a moment from your day to allow JOY to creep into your life, and like a tiny spark, build on this until you once again have a blazing flame of JOY. Nurture the seeds you plant each week with regular nurturing and attention.

Just for this moment, find a spot of sunshine, close your eyes and feel the warmth on your face. Think of 5 things you are grateful to still have in your life after the trauma of the recent crisis.

Take a deep breath, straighten and stretch your neck. Think of family you can now visit, being able to feel beach sand between your toes, relish every morsel of food or drop of drink that passes your lips. Lose yourself in the movement of the clouds or waves or the beauty of a flower.

Feel the JOY of being alive, truly alive, for just a moment. Life can be tough and beautiful. They are not mutually exclusive.
