WHAT'S NEW IN PLETT - 21 JULY 2022
WWW.HELLOPLETT.CO.ZA

On Wednesday 13th of July at approximately 18:32 First Responders were alerted to a motor vehicle accident at the N2 Beacon way junction where it had been reported that two motor vehicles were involved in an accident and that urgent medical attention was required for the occupants of both vehicles. Medlife Ambulance services and Western Cape Government health EMS had been alerted and Plettenberg Bay Fire Department confirmed they were en route. First Responder volunteers responded to scene in their private vehicles. Within two minutes of being alerted, First Responder Keagan reported "When I arrived on scene I found both vehicles heavily damaged, with Bitou Fire and Bitou Traffic Department on scene attending. A passenger of one vehicle was trapped inside and the other occupants were severely injured. Within minutes both Western Cape Government health EMS and Medlife Ambulance services arrived on scene along with more First responders and SAPS." Casualties were in the care of the ambulance services and First Responders assisted with wound care. Casualties were stabilized and transported to hospital by Medlife Paramedic Ambulance Services and Western Cape Government Health EMS. Thank you to Bitou Fire Department, SAPS, Bitou Traffic Department, Medlife Paramedic Services and Western Cape Government Health EMS for their quick response and professional service. We wish the casualties a quick recovery. There have been a number of accidents at this intersection recently. We urge the public to remain alert while on the road and buckle up.

First Responders is a community based volunteer group who provides their assistance to the professional medical services. We self-fund our response expenses & equipment, and rely on your

Week 17

UnCommon Sense

By Rose Scott

A Tribute to a Gentleman

On 10th July one of my favourite clients, and a friend, passed on. He lived a rich and varied life and left an indelible impression on the people he met. Although our connection was a brief one, it was extremely meaningful to me. He would have celebrated turning ninety-two in just shy of two months time!

Any business meetings conducted included tea and listening to the most amazing stories, Gerald L'Ange, as a journalist and editor of international renown had the art of making the mundane sound interesting and the interesting profound.

Time with Gerald brought back fond memories of working in a retirement home in Cambridge in my early twenties where I was blessed to discover at a young age, the treasure of wisdom and the time and interest to share this with others by the elders of communities.

Gerald was both generous and fair, had a wicked sense of humour and never "looked down" on others. I am going to miss him sorely. I have the privilege of several clients in retirement and appreciate the clear evidence of the impact of having lived in a time when life was slower, involved more face-to-face communication than virtual and more gracious in the way in which people learned to treat others.

Hearing the eulogy of Gerald's son Nick made me aware that my impression of Gerald was only skin deep. His commitment to, love for and willingness to invest time in his relationships were clear and brought tears to many eyes.

Gerald was one of those rarities – the short time of knowing him is something that I will remember and treasure for the rest of my life – and he lives on like this, in the memory of those whose lives he touched and those who loved him.

His gift with words was like magic – he would touch a pen like a wand on water and images would be reflected with his colourful and vivid imagery.

The world is richer for Gerald having walked it and poorer for his passing. I dedicate this column to Gerald and his family.

PAWS Street Collection Friday 29 July

Our regular street collections at locations all over Plett have become an important source of income for PAWS, allowing us to maintain our primary health care services to the neglected and suffering dogs and cats in our community. We have been fortunate to enjoy generous support for past collections and we hope we will do even better this time. We always need volunteers to help collect on the day and if you can spare an hour between 09:00 and 13:00 we would love to hear from you. Please call Di Butlin 082 569 2571.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Today we continue in Psalm 37 this time in verse 8 "Refrain from anger and turn from wrath; do not fret - it leads only to evil". Anger is the most destructive character trait we can display - it leads to conflict in relationships, loss of respect and honour and ultimately to self-destruction. The Bible strongly condemns anger and instead tells us to "turn the other cheek" and if we do find ourselves angry, we must make amends before the damage is out of control: "In your anger do not sin": do not let the sun go down while you are still angry." (Ephesians 4v26).

Does this mean we can get angry if we don't sin? Obviously, we are all subject to irritation, frustration and perceived unfairness when people wrong us or are incompetent and lazy. But we need to make sure our anger isn't used to bully, show we are superior or to protect our perceived rights and status. If we find we are letting anger control us, make the problem one of genuine prayer that the Holy Spirit will transform us and make us bear fruits of love, patience, longsuffering and kindness. But didn't Jesus get angry? Yes, He did, but not to defend Himself. He got angry when His Father's House was turned into a "den of thieves" so there is a legitimate righteous anger when God's name is dishonoured. We just need to make sure we keep our anger under control and make clear the reason. To sum up selfish and self-righteous anger has no place in the lives of committed Christians so when we do get angry, we must confess before the injured party and the Lord as soon as possible before the sin grows like a cancer and destroys us and others and affects our relationship with the Lord.

Friends, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1v9). If you are constantly angry, please cry out to the Lord to change you by His Holy Spirit before your anger does permanent damage to you, your loved ones and dare I say it your "enemies".

God Bless
Graeme Greenwood
