Chatterbox

a working girl.

MY Airbnb is going swimmingly. I suppose because it is getting close to the end of the year. Beloved handed it all over to me as he says I have more time than him. The other day I went out for a coffee with a friend which lasted about two hours, and came home, leapt into my bed for an afternoon nap. I thought I should just check Airbnb and lo and behold there was a booking needing urgent attention. I decided it could wait until after my nap until looking at the booking again, realised the couple was arriving in an hour. So had to reverse all my napping thoughts and go and check on the room. It's a long story but I never did get my nap that day and also our guests got lost and finally only arrived at ten pm after Beloved had gone to find them.

I have also got that spring feeling, so my staff also has to have it, because things just go flying!!!!!! Everything needs dusting or washing, and with all this wind, that job has trebled in size.

I have met two rather nice girls in my travels these last couple of weeks. I bought something from the one, we were in the hairdresser together and ended up having lunch together and got on very well. Then I met another lovely girl, who was lunching with her husband at Natures Valley and it was a cold and wet day, there were no spare tables – so we ended up sitting with them. Her and I got on like a house in fire and have had lunch since then. I had promised her one of my little lemon trees so that was why we lunched.

He aint Heavy, he's my Brother. Remember the elephants

While there is still time, contemplate and show more support and compassion for the Differently-Abled this Season, buy a R50 ticket in the Lottery, involve those around you and share a ticket if you need to, lucky number draw on the 29th November - thousands to be won. Call Rita 082 560 2606 for details. 50% goes to the lucky ticket holder/s - 50% towards accessibility in sports for the Differently-Abled. Some of the lyrics to remind you to take special care of the ones you love, while there is still time.

He aint Heavy, he's my Brother
"So on we go, his welfare is my concern, no burden is he to bear, he ain't heavy, he's my brother.

If I'm laden at all, I'm laden with sadness that everyone's heart isn't filled with the gladness of love for one another. It's a long, long road, from which there is no return, while we're on the way there, why not share and the load doesn't weigh me down at all,

He aint Heavy, he's my Brother
Make a Difference this Season, carry one friend's burden, be aware and care. YOU know who needs you, DO something about it, it will be repaid at some stage in your life when you may need it most.

Bitou boxing academy in partnership with isizwe boxing promotions sponsored by Bitou Municipality will be hosting a professional boxing event in Plett after five years trying to have our local professional boxing tournament in Plett as the last time we had this kind of event was 2010. all these years we have been fighting outside of Western Cape and Plett which played a negative role for our fighters as every boxers enjoy fighting in front of their home crowd, all these years Bitou boxing academy has been fully supported by Plett tourism under the leadership of Sir Peter Wellington the former [C.E.O] of Plett tourism, we so grateful to all boxing loving people for the support they gave us even if we were to fight outside of our Region. The Academy has been trying to bring back boxing, back in our town as we use to have local tournament in the past ten years. We are grateful to Bitou Municipality for supporting, sport and economy that not only make our dreams come thru but give a chance of economic growth for local entrepreneurs in the catering and accommodation sector. to benefit from this event as boxing is pulling lot of crowd from outside town as they travel to support their boxers fighting in Plett. This event is to honour the international icon and Father of Democracy DR Nelson Mandela as we as boxing community remember him as a boxers which is one of the things that inspired him during his time of struggle against racism and apartheid in south Africa, not only him being a former boxer but he also utilised sport to unite all south Africans from different kind of race and colour religion and cultural background we proud to inform all people of South Africa that as Plett boxing community are the first community to remember the day our father pass way so we do this commemoration of his Departure by bring the sport he loved in his honour come join us when we will be celebrating his life @Piessang valley community hall on the 7th of December 2019 right here in our own town. continental breakfast in the picnic area.

Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00
