A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he-Proverbs 29v18

What vision is the Psalmist referring to? In the context it is quite clear that he has in mind Spiritual Vision and if our vision is primarily focused on earthly matters-health, relationship difficulties, financial worries, obsession with self, etc. we will spiritually wither and die. The reality is that if we have no spiritual vision circumstances can overwhelm us and we negatively affect those around us so they also perish spiritually and emotionally. We need to have Spiritual Vision and Spiritual Vitality if we want Spiritual Victory. What is this "vision"? The Psalmist says it is "keeping the Law". What does it mean to keep the law? In Matthew 22v36 Jesus was asked that question "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" And He said to him, "YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND. This is the great and foremost commandment. The second is like it, 'YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOUR AS YOURSELF.'

What does it mean to love God? It isn't a lukewarm, half-hearted, or apathetic fondness for God. When Peter assured Jesus that he loved Him Jesus told him 'to feed my sheep'. It is impossible to genuinely love the Lord without loving other people by 'feeding them' or growing them in their faith. They might irritate you, they might take advantage of you, they might let you down, they might hurt you, but if you love them and see them become disciples wholeheartedly following the Lord the reward for you is happiness!

God Bless

Keep Moving Forward

"Innovation is more important to us than convention. Our attention turns to what's outdated in our lives, and we strive to find new perspectives and methods"

Anonymous

After what many people have described as a "brutal" two years since the Lockdowns began, I think everyone who has made it through these turbulent times needs to pat themselves on the back. You are still here – whether standing or on your knees – your inner resource of resilience has been upgraded!

One of the positives that we need to consider is how the economic reality has pushed most of us far beyond our previous "comfort zone, or stance of being conventional. In living history there has not been a global challenge like the one's we need to deal with and innovate new methods of business. Teaching our children that innovation, adaptability and a perspective that everything is constantly in flux, and at an exponential speed never seen before.

In the famous words of Albert Einstein – "Life is like riding a bicycle – to keep your balance, you must keep moving." A wise approach in the letter to his son in 1930, a year into the Great Depression and three years before the economy began to recover.

I have heard many voices over time decrying the value of history as a school subject – feeling that it does not teach us anything valuable. I see life as driving a car – you need to spend some time learning from mistakes others have made in the past, and many of our personal mistakes – but it is like looking in the rearview mirror – it is a small view to check regularly but not to get lost in or mope and mourn the past. The present is like our windscreen – much bigger than the rearview mirror and you commit far more attention to what is happening around you, and WITHIN you. History contains many clues and cues on how to avoid repeating or compounding "mistakes" of the past. History is not a prediction of where we are going – your perspective should mature as you learn from your own life, your children, colleagues, friends, client or customers.

Real education is about being willing to undertake a lifelong journey of discovery, and this includes some time exploring or excavating some historical events, methods and innovations.

Think about this – without innovation and the brave souls who are on the cutting edge – far beyond convention – we would not have had most of the massive changes to technology, business, politics, personal experiences.

The one positive that we should all take from the past two years is simply this – something that I often tell friends and my children – "Life begins where your comfort zone ends."

Safety and security don't just happen, they are the result of collective consensus and public investment. We owe our children, the most vulnerable citizens of our society, a life free of violence and fear – Nelson Mandela
