It is time for a spoil with friends and family. Think savoury bites such as smoked salmon and cream cheese, and classic cucumber finger sandwiches; and seasonal berry pavlova and chocolate lamingtons as sweet treats – not to forget freshly baked scones.

Oprah Winfrey is "The surest way to bring goodness to yourself is to make it your intention to do good for somebody else." I have "Thank You" cards that I give to cashiers, car guards, waitresses and people that bring JOY to my day through their service and smile. When I began this initiative, I thought that I would be making others feel good – but it always makes my heart smile!

Whenever you are feeling helpless, hopeless, and powerless, the quickest reminder that you are none of these things is to reach out a helping hand. If you have the power to help someone else, then you have the power to do the same for yourself.

It need not be money – volunteer, donate things that you no longer need, share your skills and knowledge that improve the lives of others.

There is only one way to get through this – together!

Letter via the Editor

In Response to Graham Greenwoods
letter regarding God's 4th commandment;

Dear Graham,
What Paul is saying in Romans 14:5 is that under the ceremonial law the Jews were to keep 7 ceremonial sabbaths, but new Christian Jews did not immediately comprehend that the ceremonial laws had met it's fulfillment in Christ.... it had nothing to do with the sabbath of the 4th commandment. For a true meaning of the Sabbath of the 4th commandment go to youtube and select Mark Finley "This is why satan hates the sabbath so much" Jesus and His followers kept the 4th commandment (Matthew 5:17,18 & Luc 4:16, Luc 23:55, 56:24:1, Acts 17:2 etc. The only safe course is to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, our savior. He will never lead us astray but He will give us the Grace and Power to live a life in harmony with the principles He has given. May He grant believes the courage to walk as He walked (1 John 2:6)
Kind Regards

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Today we look at the 5th Commandment Honour your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.
Exodus 20v12.

I suggest 4 practical ways in which we can honour our parents.

1 Listen to them. Listening is honouring!!
We do not have to accept everything or follow everything but the chances are very good that mom and dad have a point just because of their experience of life. Let us never forget that they will have our best interests at heart. Proverbs 18v8 Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching. They are a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

2 Obey them. It's very clear from the previous text that by listening AND obeying our parents we are ensured of a very good outcome. The apostle Paul speaks to this point when he says in Ephesians 6v1 'Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right'. Obeying our parents not only honours them but also honours the Lord.

3 Respect Them. Both of them: your father and your mother. It's unconditional. God intends that we honour our parents because they are our parents. Even if sometimes their example should not be followed, we need to honour them. This is a divine principle. We see something of this when under persecution, Peter urged the Christians 'to submit to every authority instituted among man.. and honour the King. 1 Peter 2v13. Peter was painfully aware that the King was Nero, the mad butcher of Rome, but Nero was the legiti-mate head of state and his orders were to be obeyed, as long as they were not contrary to the Word of God. The same principle applies in the home. If children can learn to honour their parents in the home then they will be well placed to honour people in general. That in itself will set them apart from the masses and bring Glory to God!

4 Care for them. There are two verses in Scripture that give direction and need to be brought into balance. 'children should not have to save up for their parents, but parents for their children'-2 Corinthians 12v14. And 'But if a widow has children or grandchildren, these should learn first of all to put their religion into practice by caring for their own family and so repaying their parents and grandparents, for this is pleasing to God'-1 Timothy 5v4.

The pattern is clear. Parents have a divine responsibility to care for their children, but as the parents grow older and become more frail the roles begin to reverse and so the children begin to care for the parents.
With Much Christian Love, Anton van Stormbroek.

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00

We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00

We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

Farewell from Edna Light

Due to our current situation, I have been unable to bid all my wonderful friends in Plettenberg Bay farewell in person. However I shall be leaving our beautiful town and all its amazing people with great sadness. I look forward to learning how all the many challenges you face have been resolved.

I go to join my family in Ireland with excitement at the opportunity to make new friends and embrace new beauty and places. I shall never lose the memories of 23 very happy years spent here and intend to keep in touch.

Stay in peace. I love you.
