PAWS appeal for pet food

PAWS have continued to provide their services throughout the lockdown, albeit a bit reduced. Our kennels have kept going and we have had a number of adoptions. We are very concerned that all our fundraising events have been cancelled, but are grateful that the PAWS Charity Shop is back in business and providing very welcome financial relief at this difficult time. While we have received donations of pet food, but can't keep up with the demand. So many people have lost jobs and are struggling to put food on the table. They also need help to feed their pets. We will be most grateful if you could donate at the various supermarkets who have PAWS food bins. We would also welcome any financial contributions. Plett Animal Welfare Service, ABSA, Code 632005, Acc 9093019538. Please use your full name and email as reference. Thank you for your support

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

A number of years ago a Christian Marriage Officer shared this story with me. One day he was approached to conduct a marriage ceremony by an excited young man. My friend asked him why he wanted to get married and after a few moments the young man replied 'because I want to be happy'. He was shocked when my friend said 'then I won't marry you'. Why he asked? My friend told him 'when you tell me that you want to make HER happy then I will marry you'. The young man left very disappointed because like so many he had a distorted view of marriage. So if you are in a relationship with someone who does not respect you and is not making you happy end it before it is too late. A leopard does not change its' spots and things will not get better and will even get worse after marriage. Ephesians 5v25 says 'Husbands love your wives just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her'. This is an incredible high standard, but if men seek this attitude GBV, infidelity and selfishness will be absent from their marriage and we will have many more happy wives. A wife loved like this will in turn make their husbands truly happy and the family unit will be a beacon of light in this dark world. The Bible compares marriage to the relationship between Christians and the Lord Jesus Christ-the Church (all Christians) is referred to as the bride of Jesus who is the bridegroom and in Romans 5v8 we read 'God showed His love for us that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us'. This is love beyond anything we deserve so how should we respond?

'And this is his command: to believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and to love one another as he commanded us'-1 John 3v23

So we first have to believe in and surrender our lives to the Lord and then obey His commandment to love each other. If we are honest it is very difficult to love certain people, but the Lord gives us the means as Romans 5v5 tells us 'God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us'. One of the reasons so many people 'taste' Christianity and then grow cold is that false teachers promise a false expectation that 'come to Jesus and He will make you happy, comfortable, healthy and wealthy'. The reality is we will only be truly happy when we make the Lord happy. How do we do that? By forgetting the past where our love was human based and allow God's love to flow out even to those whom we find unlovely. Then we will make God happy and enjoy the promise of Ecclesiastes 2:26 'To the person who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge and happiness'. Confirmed in 1 John 3v21 'Dear friends, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God and receive from him anything we ask, because we keep His commands and do what pleases Him.'

Just like in a happy marriage where the spouse will only ask for that which will enrich them both so we will find our prayers will seek that which will enrich our relationship with Christ, bring honour to His name and enable us to love one another more deeply. Amen and Christian love to you all Graeme G
