The 176 000 hectare
Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.
The variety of wildlife found in the Park
is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5
and of course the 600 elephants
that roam there,
it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-
Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo
Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni.
The first few hours are good to see ante-elope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious
continental breakfast in the picnic area.
Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-
Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo
Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni.
The early afternoon is good for elephant
and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino.
The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles
and other creatures.

drive and narration will be done by our very knowledgeable guides.

REGULATIONS FOR DOGS ON BEACHES

Non compliance a problem
PAWS is concerned to note that many people are still ignoring the new regulations for dogs on beaches. Dr Mark Brown and the Nature's Valley Trust (NVT) #SharetheShores initiative came up with a win-win solution aimed at protecting our wildlife on beaches, maintaining our blue-flag beaches and accommodating beach goers and dog walkers.

It is disappointing to note that some people are still walking dogs leash free on the sensitive Lookout Beach where NVT have been trying to protect the breeding grounds of White-fronted Plovers, African Black Oyster Catchers and other species. NVT's analysis of the breeding success rate of the vulnerable White-fronted Plover has shown an increase on both Lookout (from 12,7% to 14,3%) and Nature's Valley (from 15,2% to 30,5%), from the previous season. NVT are grateful to those who are complying with the new regulations

PAWS supports these regulations as they are designed to accommodate everyone's needs and we appeal to everyone to respect our bye laws to avoid stricter regulations.

The following information was supplied by PAWS and NVT:

DIFFERENTLY-ABLED AWARENESS CAMPAIGN - DISABLE PARKING FINES AND STICKERS

Please note that if you are either temporarily or permanently disabled and do not have a sticker on your vehicle you WILL get a fine. Our traffic Officers are very much aware of the frustration of those who genuinely need a Disable Parking Bay but find that some selfish individual who is perfectly normal will take a chance and be parked in the bay that the Differently-Abled so desperately need.

THE PROCEDURE IS :Collect the necessary form at the Traffic Office located at 1 Park Lane, opposite the fire station. Take the form to your doctor for completion and signature, this is important as he needs to give a current overview of your condition. Take the form to the Cashier at the Municipal offices on the 2nd floor (old Standard Bank premises) Melville's Centre and pay R109. Go back to Park Lane with your completed form and receipt to collect your sticker. If you cannot go through all the above steps, let someone assist you but your application will not be considered if you do not have a genuine assessment through your doctor. Hope this will assist you, you MUST have that sticker on your windscreen, it takes too much time and energy trying to get out of the fine afterwards. The Traffic officers will adhere to the Traffic Regulations and we, the public must respect their responsibilities, they are, after all also there to protect the Differently-Abled from selfish, uncaring people. If you need any further advice, you are welcome to call The Differently-Abled Awareness Campaign Rita van Rensburg/Hardaker 082 5602 606

The Green Hearts

Children's Fear

As adults, we know that life can sometimes seem like a maze filled with danger, anxiety, disaster and heartache lurking around every corner. Almost every day we are faced with situations that elicit fear, of varying degree. Fortunately, as adults we have acquired tools to understand and regulate these fears. These tools however are not developed in adulthood. At 4 months, babies can already distinguish between different emotions; and at age 5, children become aware that emotions, such as fear, can be regulated.

But how is your child regulating fear?

And how can you help?

You can begin by talking to them about fear. This is important, as your child will feel supported and safe. Ideally, fear should be acknowledged, regulated and released. Talking about fear in this way also gives you the opportunity to determine how serious or concerning their fear is - only fears that persist or interfere with a child's life should be considered abnormal.

Typical fears according to developmental stages:

Toddlers: separation, noises, falling, animals and insects, using the potty, bathing and bedtime.

Pre-school children: fear of animals and insects, monsters and ghosts, getting lost, divorce, loss of a parent, and bedtime.

Primary school children: separation, noises, falling, new situations (especially starting school) and bedtime in younger children; social rejection, war, new situations, and burglars in older children.

Adolescents: burglars, new situations (going to college, etc.), war, divorce, and sexual relations.

You can support your child by respecting and listening to their feelings and fears. Allow them to describe and explain the fear, without judging or disregarding their experience.

Teach your children how to deal with fear - start off by acknowledging it. Regardless of what they are afraid of and why, to them it is real. Emphasise that it's not wrong to be afraid or fearful. In an appropriate context, explain to your children how you as an adult can relate to feeling unsure, scared or fearful. Understand the fear - fear is ultimately a way or need to protect yourself from a potential risk, and an attempt to take care of yourself. Fear tells you that something doesn't feel or isn't right.

Try not to be overprotective by allowing your child to avoid all of the things that they are afraid of. And try not to overreact - this might reinforce and worsen the fear. However, avoid forcing your child to face their fears - a hidden threat may still be present.

Determine the level or seriousness of the fear. If your child's fear is persistent, influences their functioning, elicits concerning behaviour such as bedwetting/soiling, avoidance, panic, recurring nightmares, to name a few - ask for help. Be aware of potential risks and sources of fear in and around your home, school and social environments. Do as much as you can to provide your child with a safe and comfortable space wherever they may be. They deserve it.

For further support with your child's experience of fear and/or other behavioural concerns, contact Erika Revington, Educational Psychologist (HPCSA Reg No: PS0130451), Plettenberg Bay. 076 225 2204 / erikarevington@gmail.com

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

John 16:33 [MKJV]

"I have spoken these things to you so that you might have peace in Me. In the world, you shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer. I have overcome the world."

Right through the New Testament, beginning with Jesus Christ and later repeated by the writers of the Gospels and the Epistles to the churches, we hear the warning of tribulation. No, the Christian life is not just a "path of roses" where those who sincerely follow Jesus Christ will always enjoy a trouble-free existence, as some televangelists would have you believe. The word "tribulation" comes from the Greek 'Thlipsis' and can be translated as pressure, affliction, anguish, persecution, trouble or burdens and is usually associated with Satan's work or that of his followers. Throughout Jesus' earthly ministry He would often confront people and call on them to follow Him and many did as long as things worked in their favour and they benefited from that which the Lord did for them, however, when the circumstances changed and following Jesus came at a cost and even involved personal danger and insecurity, we read: "When Jesus' followers heard this, many of them said: 'This teaching is hard, who can accept it?' [John 6:60 ERV]

And soon thereafter John tells us: "After Jesus said these things many of His followers left and stopped following Him." [John 6:66 ERV] Indeed, Jesus warned those that wanted to follow Him with these words: "And He said to all: 'If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow Me.'" [Luke 9:23] Christ repeated these words a short while later when He said: "And whoever does not bear his cross and comes after Me, he cannot be my disciple." [Luke 14:27]

The cross, especially for those in Jesus' days, was a symbol of extreme torture and death, something most of them had probably witnessed. However, notice that in spite of all this, Jesus specifically highlights two things in the text above.

1. He states that even though we are guaranteed to encounter tribulation and troubles in this world, we may still enjoy peace in Him.

His peace – not as the world gives – is a peace that endures deep inside in spite of and often in the midst of severe trials.

2. Secondly, He states: "...be of good cheer." [The ERV translates this as "be brave"], because I have overcome the world.

The world can only do external damage to our bodies and our possessions, but cannot touch our spirits [hearts] which are anchored and safe in Christ.

In Acts 14:22 we read of Paul returning to Antioch and: "...confirming the souls of the disciples, calling on them to continue in the faith and that through much tribulation we must enter into the kingdom of God."

Many believers hold to the doctrine of a pre-tribulation rapture and wrongly use as one of their proof texts Paul's words in 1

Thess. 5:9, where he writes: "For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ."

They fail to notice, however, that here Paul refers to the Day of the Lord [previous verses] and God's wrath.

This word 'wrath' is the Greek 'orge' [not 'thlipsis'] which speaks of God's anger, indignation, and wrath.

Finally, Paul makes this bold statement in his letter to the Romans: "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?"

But in all these things we are more than conquers through Him who loved us." [Rom. 8:35,37] Henk.

We met such a lovely man Ivan Marais this week who popped in to our shop for some scanning. He made comments on the old typewriters we have in our shop that my precious mommy Charms loved so dearly. Below is a poem he shared with us about beautiful old typewriters.

Beneath your ancient battered keys,
On your scarred platen, tense in your
springs,
There lurks potentialities
Novels, poems, plays and things.

Your modest price I'll gladly pay and take you home. When we are there
Your rust and grime I'll clean away,
Then buy a ribbon for you to wear.

If I can burn some midnight oil
And pound you with a heavy hand,
A year or so of lonely toil
Could spread my name throughout the land.

I may succeed in knocking out
Some of the tales you have to tell.
