PAWS Heroes of the Month

Our recent annual 4XPAWS Dog Walk was well-supported and enjoyed by pooches and owners alike. Lucky draw and other winners had an impressive array of prizes to choose from, thanks to our own committee member, Marianne Wardle, who worked tirelessly to source and collect them. Our Heroes for this month are Marianne and the many generous individuals and companies who made donations of prizes, boerewors, rolls, other food-stuffs and goods for the event. Sincere thanks also go to Nedbank staff who kindly manned the water point – again this year! You are all our Heroes because your contributions help to improve the lives of our less fortunate animals. Thank you!

The Green Hearts

Children's Fear

As adults, we know that life can sometimes seem like a maze filled with danger, anxiety, disaster and heartache lurking around every corner. Almost every day we are faced with situations that elicit fear, of varying degree.
Fortunately, as adults we have acquired tools to understand and regulate these fears. These tools however are not developed in adulthood. At 4 months, babies can already distinguish between different emotions; and at age 5, children become aware that emotions, such as fear, can be regulated.

But how is your child regulating fear?
And how can you help?

You can begin by talking to them about fear.
This is important, as your child will feel supported and safe. Ideally, fear should be acknowledged, regulated and released.
Talking about fear in this way also gives you the opportunity to determine how serious or concerning their fear is - only fears that persist or interfere with a child's life should be considered abnormal.

Typical fears according to developmental stages:

Toddlers: separation, noises, falling, animals and insects, using the potty, bathing and bedtime.

Pre-school children: fear of animals and insects, monsters and ghosts, getting lost, divorce,
loss of a parent, and bedtime.

Primary school children: separation, noises, falling, new situations (especially starting school) and bedtime in younger children; social rejection, war, new situations, and burglars in older children.

Adolescents: burglars, new situations (going to college, etc.), war, divorce, and sexual relations.

You can support your child by respecting and listening to their feelings and fears.
Allow them to describe and explain the fear, without judging or disregarding their experience.

Teach your children how to deal with fear - start off by acknowledging it. Regardless of what they are afraid of and why, to them it is real. Emphasise that it's not wrong to be afraid or fearful. In an appropriate context, explain to your children how you as an adult can relate to feeling unsure, scared or fearful.

Understand the fear - fear is ultimately a way or need to protect yourself from a potential risk, and an attempt to take care of yourself. Fear tells you that something doesn't feel or isn't right.

Try not to be overprotective by allowing your child to avoid all of the things that they are afraid of. And try not to overreact - this might reinforce and worsen the fear.

However, avoid forcing your child to face their fears - a hidden threat may still be present.

Determine the level or seriousness of the fear. If your child's fear is persistent, influences their functioning, elicits concerning behaviour such as bedwetting/soiling, avoidance, panic, recurring nightmares, to name a few - ask for help.
Be aware of potential risks and sources of fear in and around your home, school and social environments. Do as much as you can to provide your child with a safe and comfortable space wherever they may be.
They deserve it.

For further support with your child's experience of fear and/or other behavioural concerns, contact Erika Revington, PS0130451), Plettenberg Bay. 076 225

My Grandmother Ma Bet Moodie

Mommy, your life was full of loving deeds, Forever thoughtful of our special needs.
Today and tomorrow, my whole life through,
I will always love and cherish you.
There was magic in mommy's touch, and sunshine in her smile.
There was love in everything she did, to make our lives worth while.
We found both hope and courage just by looking in her eyes.
Her laughter was a source of joy, her words warm and wise.
There was a kindness and compassion found in her embrace, and shining down from heaven above. we see the glow in mommy's face.
Thought her smile is gone forever and her hand I cannot touch.
I still have so many memories of my queen who I love so much.
Mommy's memory is now my keepsake, Which with I'll never part.
God has her in his keeping I have her in my heart.
Sadly missed but never forgotten.
love you lots and farewell my angel.
Your beloved granddaughter

This is one of those 'must see' shows!
Are you a Shakespeare fan? Maybe, or perhaps not, however did you know that his work transformed theatre by expanding expectations about what could be accomplished through innovation. Now you can appreciate his words in a humorous way and gather some inspiration.

Lunchbox Theatre is hosting Studio 42 with the side-splittingly, hilarious play 'The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (Abridged)' to Plett on 2 November 2019! Book your tickets for the 3 or 7 pm show as soon as possible online at <https://gkt.io/leP6ef> or grab some tickets from Bamey's Booking Kiosk at Market Square, Plett.

Without giving too much away ... The Complete Works of William Shakespeare brings three actors from Sedgfield, Nita Allsop, Gareth Pretorius and Bomber Webb, together in a mad-cap attempt to include these Masterpieces into a single, innovative theatrical experience.
"As a show, it is joyfully choreographed 'chaos'. Shakespeare fans love it. Those who have never 'dabbled' in anything by 'The Bard' have leaped to their feet and cheered," says Director, Melanie Baumeister.

This a rare occasion for families with grannies and grandpas and teenagers to have a night out together. It seems that the universal funny bone has truly been tickled by 'The Complete Works of William Shakespeare.' The show has brought the house down on every performance for twelve performances!
All proceeds go towards educating local

The Van Plettenberg Historical Society

20 years of conservation in Plett – the developing role of the Nature's Valley Trust.

Dr Mark Brown will be addressing the Van Plettenberg Historical Society on Thursday 14th November 2019. Mark is a well known figure in our area and works tirelessly on all aspects of conservation work. He is perhaps best known in Plettenberg Bay for his efforts to raise awareness and protect the fragile breeding grounds of our shorebirds. As the Nature's Valley Trust approaches it's 20th anniversary, Mark will be speaking about how this Non Profit Organisation has evolved over the years to become what it is today. Dr Brown is the Program Director of the Nature's Valley Trust, but also holds a position as honorary researcher at the School of Life Sciences, University of KwaZulu-Natal. He has published over 80 scientific publications, was a contributing author to Robert's VII Birds of Southern Africa, and has presented research papers at national and international conferences. After working on the staff at the University of KwaZulu-Natal for over 12 years, while volunteering with several prominent conservation NGO's, Mark stepped across the gap and moved full-time into the NGO environment.

He currently sits on the Board of Directors of Plettenberg Bay Tourism, and is an Associate Editor for the Journal Ostrich (African Journal of Ornithology). Mark has won numerous national and international awards for his research and conservation work. He has co-supervised over 30 postgraduate students, and is passionate about mentoring young conservationists.

Hy besef te laat - Is dit 'n regte keuse? Of het ek aanvanklik halfhartig geprotesteer? N Hartebreker, wrang geskok met ontsteltenis oor die invloed wat hy blykbaar uitgeoefen het; Hy besef te laat, sê dikwels aantygings wat ongebalanseerd en ongeldig is. Bietjie verstrooid, baie eksentriek bitter toegewyd en blind vir die tekens van liefde. Hy is selfs spyt ek sien dit as 'n fase van emosionele onstabieliteit deur selfsugtigheid op spottend toon gewaarsku dat hy gou vir my sou moeg word as wat hy my moes bystaan; Hy besef te laat, skynbaar interesseer hy my egter nie meer nie ek speel met hom soos met 'n oorgretige lastige hondjie, hy omuseer my blykbaar nie vlei met sy aandag nie. Hy besef te laat, na en voor verskeie vroumense se maat hy het hierdie keer my hart en denke finaal verlaat. Baie dankie Kim Kerry Jones.

Wandel deur die gees - Laat julle lewe steeds deur die gees van God beheers word, ons lewe deur die gees laat die gees nou ook ons gedrag bepaal (Gal 5 verse 16 -25) om deur die gees beheers te word, beteke om n daaglikse en stand houdende omgang met die gees te he. In jou handel, in jou stryd en strewe, volg jy getrou die leiding van die heilige gees. Dit is die wessenskenmerk van die geesvervulde mens, wat God in opregtheid dien en nie op sy eie sondige vlees vertrou nie. Die leiding van die heilige gees is nie iets abstrak of apart van die lewe nie. Dit is nie n waterdigte kompartement van ons lewe wat ons net sundae of per geleentheid oopsluit nie. Dit is n verarmende vergissing wat ons geestelike lewe verinnerweert. Dit laat ons noodwendig onder die geestelike broodlyn lewe. Die Here gee ons sy gees in sy volheid om ons elke dag, die hele dag lank te lei. Die suigrag van die wereld is so geweldig dat ons die leiding van di egees juis buite die kerk broodnodig het. Elke dag moet ons die vervulling met die gees van God afpleit omdat die wereld konsekwent prober om ons daarvan te beroof. Lees maar weer n slag Efesiërs 5:19-21, waar ons n katalogus van die sondige praktyke van die natuurlike mens vind O Gees van God leweweek en trooster dankie dat U in my lewe ingekom het en my leadsman is na Christus toe.
