Fish Eagle Article

As a child in this modern day generation we are forced to live with an abnormal image of how we're supposed to act and appear to the public eye.

We're supposed to act like we know what we're doing when in reality we don't, we're supposed to go out and have fun because "you're only a teenager once" but also make sure to make good life choices while under any circumstances. In our generation we're supposed to act like nothing affects us but, deep down it cuts us to the core.

In this generation you have to feed your body but if you eat too much you're considered too fat to hang out with but if you don't eat you're considered a person that's "doing it for attention".

When you're a guy you have to never express your feelings because you need to be tough and boys don't cry.

And when you're a girl you need to be popular with the boys but not too popular or else you'll be considered an unimaginable name.

Let's not forget about the constant pressure and anxiety some kids feel when exams start and they have to study until they are sleep deprived to get marks that are almost good enough.

Obviously parents reading this may think that this is absurd and "their child would tell them if something's wrong" but they wouldn't because parents will never truly understand what it's like to live in this generation.

Turtle hatchling season has begun in Plett.

The first hatchling was spotted along Solar Beach. Keep an eye out for these tiny turtles during your beach walks—they're often no bigger than a car key. Remember, never return them to the water.

If you find a hatchling, alive or deceased, please notify our program manager at 082 336-2979 or the Plett Marine Standing Hotline at 079 463-4837 immediately. Among the frequently encountered hatchlings are endangered loggerhead turtles, with occasional sightings of leatherback turtles in the area. Let's work together to protect these precious (and endangered) marine species!

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver - Proverbs 25v11

Today we continue our study of the Beatitudes in Matthew chapter 5 verse 6: "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled". Righteousness has two aspects – firstly, it speaks about our position and relationship with God and the importance of being right WITH God. Secondly, it speaks about living right BEFORE God. It's a remarkable truth that God helps his children to live right - which David explains when he says in Psalm 23: "He leads me in paths of RIGHTEOUSNESS for His names sake". How then do we get this righteousness to get right WITH God? This is very important because no man or woman is righteous by nature - as we read in Romans 3v10: "There is none righteous, no, not one". The good news, the gospel, is that we don't need any special gifting, money, skills, etc. We simply need to believe. Romans 3v22 says: "This righteousness is given through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe". You might well ask: "So what happens to my sin? Some more good news! That is what Jesus took care of on the cross: 2 Corinthians 5v21 reads: "God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God...and so 'we will be filled'. We will be satisfied and live our lives and the next, with true meaning and purpose.

One of the famous songs by the Rolling Stones was "I can get no satisfaction". Now, this is not just the songwriter's dilemma, it is ALL mankind's dilemma. It was also King Solomon's dilemma. He devotes the whole book of Ecclesiastes to dealing with this issue and comes to the very significant and maybe unexpected conclusion that our search for the meaning and purpose of this life is actually a God-given Grace and built into our DNA. Ecclesiastes 1v13: "I set my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven; this burdensome task God has given to the sons of man, by which they may be exercised". Solomon then takes a hard and honest look at the meaning and purpose that he had found in his superior education and wisdom, in his royal status, in his unparalleled wealth and fame and in his unrestrained indulgence in all that is pleasurable. He makes the sobering discovery that all of it has left him unfulfilled and says "I can get no satisfaction!!" - just like the Rolling Stones. He concludes with these words: "Now all has been heard; here is the conclusion of the matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the duty of all mankind" from Ecclesiastes 12v13. May this encourage you to find the real purpose.

Amen. Graeme Greenwood

Keep Plett Clean

started twelve years ago to make sure our town looked clean and inviting to tourists and holidaymakers. This would encourage people to buy properties here, holiday here, open businesses and create employment for our people. Accommodation establishments, businesses, restaurants and retail stores would benefit.

We have a number of volunteers who have walked this road with us from the beginning, and have helped to make it the success it has become. This has been achieved by creating awareness and ownership of our surroundings and in so doing, teaching our children not to litter. Not only does littering make our town ugly, but it affects the environment negatively.

As we have grown, we recognised the need for some permanent staff and we now have three very capable hardworking men that are employed by us.

With this growth, our overheads have increased. Duncan Brown from Beacon Isle Kwikspar and Tops has been our main sponsor through the years and has also paid our employees wages every month. We salute you, Duncan Brown, for your kindness and generosity.

We thank Sotheby's for sponsoring all our dog poop bags, Robberg Fine Foods for

We really appreciate your generosity. We meet every Tuesday evening for an hour to clean up identified areas.

We donate bibs to the car guards so that they are identifiable and neat looking.

We are tasked with keeping Main Street painted and the flower beds neat and clean and the trees and bushes trimmed - thank you to Seeff Properties for helping us with this.

Our expenses have increased as we have grown - we have a scooter that is driven by one of our staff members, which needs to be repaired and maintained, along with the expense of other sundries.

All donations and funds we receive for the various branches are kept in one bank account. We have a full committee, as well as a registered NPO. Our account is audited by an accountant.

We welcome everyone to volunteer with us, whether physically or by assisting with funds. We give of our time to make Plett the jewel of the Garden Route. We take pride in KEEPING PLETT CLEAN.
