LIFE COACHING

ANTONY GARDY

INTEGRAL PROFESSIONAL COACH

www.antonygardycoaching.com

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

Anton: 082 878 4193 / Graeme 083 628 1648

A word fitly spoken is like
APPLES OF GOLD
in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

So we continue with our short series on the Fruits of the Spirit that we read about in Galatians 5:22-23 <sup>22</sup> But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

This week we look at Gentleness. Let's not make the mistake of understanding gentleness as a form of timidity and weakness. It takes a strong person to be truly gentle. Henry Wadsworth Longfellow gives us a wonderful illustration of gentleness in "The Village Blacksmith." In the poem, the main character is described as follows: "The Smith, a mighty man is he, With large and sinewy hands; And the muscles of his brawny arms, Are strong as iron bands." However, in church, as he hears his daughter singing a hymn, the Smith is overcome with emotion, "And with his hard, rough hand he wipes, a tear out of his eyes." True gentleness is a fruit of the Spirit. It is supernatural and stands out like the proverbial 'sore thumb' when we encounter it. In James 3:17. we read that the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. It is a beautiful quality that is in short supply. I'm always amazed how, on the one hand the world underwrites and openly supports a liberal approach to morality, but be careful, because on the other hand it is harsh, unforgiving and relentless in its quest to expose any fault or shortcoming. It feeds on man's struggles and leaves no stone unturned. The Child of God can have no part in this. He or she is a gentle person who can say 'I am sorry. Please forgive me!' A person who would rather lose face than self respect. A person who for, when suffering for doing what is right, endures it patiently without any thought of getting even or fighting back. Every person is powerful. We can speak words that influence others; we can act in ways that help or hurt; In Proverbs 15:1 we read that 'A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger'. When we are filled with the Spirit's fruit of gentleness, we will correct others with grace instead of arguing in resentment and anger, knowing that ultimately their salvation is far more important than our pride. It gives me such joy and inner confidence that after sharing a few thoughts on gentleness we can once again listen to Jesus' words in Matthew 11:19 and learn from Him. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. With much Christian love :

Anton van Stormbroek.

hence it is supernatural and powerful. There is no reason for the child of God to be anything but gentle because his confidence is in Christ The child of God who is gentle
