JACINTHA IS LOOKING FOR A JOB as a domestic work, housekeeping and baby sitter call 063 3751 295

On Tuesday, May 30th, at approximately 05:40, first responders were alerted to an incident at a house in upper Robberg, where a lady had fallen and injured herself. The husband of the casualty had alerted us to the incident and requested that we assist as he was making his way back from Knysna. The local ambulance services were alerted, and Medlife ambulance services confirmed they were en route. First responder volunteers responded to the scene in their private vehicles. First Responder Ross said, "When I arrived on scene, I found another first responder already there. He had placed the casualty on oxygen and stabilized her. She was conscious but suffering from severe pain. Together, we monitored her vitals and got as much information from her as we could, which we could pass onto the medical services when they arrived." Within minutes, Medlife ambulance services arrived on scene. The patient was handed into their care, and first responder volunteers continued to assist. The patient was placed in a scoop stretcher used for safe manoeuvring of patients through tight areas and moved down the stairs of her home and into the awaiting ambulance. Once further stabilized in the ambulance, the patient was transported to Plettenberg Bay Medical Clinic for further treatment. We wish the patient a quick recovery. Thank you to Medlife Ambulance Services for their quick response and professional service. First Responders is a community-based volunteer group that provides assistance to professional medical services. First responder volunteers fund their own fuel, phone, insurance, etc. We rely on donations from the public to fund our equipment and consumables. Make sure that you have the professional emergency services and local ambulance services numbers on hand, and call them first! In the event of an emergency.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Psalm 23 has brought much comfort and encouragement to millions of people over thousands of years. The writer, King David, was chosen by God whilst still a lowly shepherd boy for a very good reason as recorded in Acts 13v22: "I have found David son of Jesse, an after my own heart". This is a commendation few have ever had said about them and his legacy amongst the Jewish people remains today as the Star of David is on the Israeli flag. David was a powerful king, yet as we read his psalms we are struck by his humility and insight. In this Psalm, David was able to use his experience as a shepherd to illustrate the Lord's relationship with His people. The Psalm begins with "The LORD is my shepherd. Not just a shepherd, not others' shepherd, but MY shepherd. In Biblical times there was a special bond between shepherd and sheep unlike today when sheep are just a number and have ear tags or other markings to show ownership. Shepherds in the Middle East knew their sheep by name and the sheep had full and complete reliance and confidence in the shepherd because they trusted him for all their needs because, from experience, he had always been faithful - they had never starved and he had always been there to guide and watch over them. Not only providing for them, but also protecting them from wild animals and robbers. When they strayed, he would not rest till he found them and brought them back to the fold. He even would sacrifice his life if necessary for the sheep. Jesus uses the same analogy when He presents Himself as the Good Shepherd as recorded in the Gospel of John chapter 10 and I urge you to spend time meditating on those verses and rejoicing that He is YOUR Shepherd. Friends, whatever challenges we face today we can be at peace because we have a Shepherd of our souls who is watching over us and as the children's chorus goes: "My God is so big, so strong and so mighty There's nothing my God cannot do". Moreover, because the Lord is MY Shepherd, we can enjoy whatever blessings we receive today and not worry about tomorrow - as Jesus said in Matthew 6v34: "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own". Friends is He YOUR shepherd? God Bless, Graeme Greenwood

-Spring on my mind

Well good morning everybody it is Friday and we've had one hell of a week with a lot of rain. My painter Patrick is here, I got it into my head that since the walls were getting a painting and (Patrick) is in the main bath room, then I must take everything out of the cupboards in the next rooms to be painted and clean in there and then everything hanging on the back of doors should be washed, wiped or painted. I actually hate myself when I get into an early spring cleaning mood, because after all we are still in early Winter. My OCD style is not just a little wet cloth and a broom. It includes the same amount of cleaning materials as a successful cleaning business. With my ailment I cannot do a quarter of the things I used to do, so that means extra staff and Beloved's hair standing on end with all the extra expenses. Going back to the amount of clothing that we wear especially in the evenings, is terrible. Do you feel like a bear that's come to town with all your fluffy things around you and everybody else around you with their fluffy things, mind you I did pop in to the golf club yesterday evening for Thirsty Thursday. I was frozen on the veranda, the men who had been playing that afternoon, and had had a bit of rain, but back at the clubhouse some guys had T shirts on. The club was not nearly as full as usual on a Thirsty Thursday, held once a month for the golfers and their partners. These evenings are usually extremely festive, but yesterday the spirit was quieter with early leavers going home to warm beds, fires, and whatever else helps the place to warm up. We have a new hairdresser that opened two doors from our estate. What a pleasure to get there but the locals still drive. Including me, it's still a long walk for someone with Parkies. I watched a program on TV last night, that was about Parkinson's and the tests they do to decide how far gone one is. Not nice and not a life to look forward to as bits and pieces on your frame start to let you down. It is known as one of the dread diseases by insurance companies. I must say my friends are amazing and I get a lot of help when something gives, like my legs. They then get better again and then it is the choking. Another common problem that occurs. I don't like alcohol like I use to. I was the champion, but my body does not agree now. I've gone completely off meat. Have to remember to tell our host when we are invited out. So embarrassing when they look into your plate and see a few peas, some potatoes and gravy. I'm having to learn to eat salads. Right now toast and whatever is my favourite. Fattening but nice. Also going mad for those huge delicious Magnums. Layered hard white chocolate or layered hard brown chocolate with matching soft ice cream. Chatterbox

Khazimla Ncera could be on her way to the UK to represent us in an international hockey event. Khazimla is a 13-year-old Grade 8 learner at Wittedrift High School and is a hockey player with great potential. She has recently been selected for a hockey tour in the United Kingdom. Her hockey exploits have seen her selected for the Eden Under-14 A Team for the current season as well as last season. Coincidentally, she received the news of her selection for the UK Tour while she was busy preparing for the Eden Under 14 A Team that will be taking part in the SASHOC Hockey Tournament that will take place from June 28 to August 1, 2023, in Paarl. The tour to Paarl will cost her approximately R9000; this includes accommodation, travel, catering, kits, etc. Khazimla's excitement for being selected for the UK tournament that will be taking place in September 2023 has made her more determined to do well during the tournament in Paarl. However, the total cost of the tour to the UK, approximately R48,000, is the only threat that could prevent her from boarding the flight to represent her country overseas. Her proud mother, Ms. Zikhona Ncera, says that she is a proud mother, and the fact that she is a single parent has not deterred her from making sure that Khazimla's dream of one day playing for the national team becomes a reality. However, the cost of the tour to the UK might not be realized if no financial assistance in the form of sponsorship or donations can be raised. Therefore, there is an appeal for assistance to be given to young Khazimla Ncera to be in a position to participate in the hockey tour to the UK, which will go a long way in ensuring that her dream of one day representing her country at the biggest hockey stadiums in the world comes true. If you are able to help with a donation please contact Mom Zikhona Ncera 072 022 0290
