A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Round about the third week of the hard lockdown like most other businesses having had to close down my business I awoke one morning in a cold sweat of anxiety and a fear that I just couldn't shake that just gripped my heart. A multitude of questions raced through my mind. Where was this pandemic going to take us? What about our workers? What about our finances? What about our house payments? What about our business? Within seconds I found myself in a dark place.

The sun had just risen and our double bedroom door leading out to our patio was wide open and out of nowhere the biggest eagle I have ever seen came and sat on the balustrades of our patio and looked straight into my eyes where I was lying on my bed. I had never seen this eagle round our house before. The eagle spent a good long moment staring me down in the quiet of the morning and then suddenly took off and flew away again. Although this was a spectacular sighting, its significance only became more clear a couple of minutes later when I did my morning devotions. One reading was sent to me from a friend that sends me video devotionals every day and the other was a devotional that I work through every morning of my life. And I just want to read these two scriptures to you that turned my lockdown around in such a big way.

Isaiah 40:31 But those who wait on the LORD shall renew their strength. They shall mount up with wings like eagles. They shall run and not be weary. They shall walk and not faint.

And just when I was forced into overwhelming silence and emotions by these verses I opened my friend's video and it was Matthew 6:26-34 Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?

I want to encourage you today and tell you our heavenly Father knows exactly where you are and what you are going through every moment of our lives. He is a personal caring Father and He is faithful and His promise is that He will never leave us or forsake us. And it's the prayer of my heart that He will give all of us a true understanding of His personal love and care for each one of us during this time of lockdown and separation from loved ones.

Hein W

27 Which of you by worrying can add one ℓ cubit to his ℓ stature?
28 "So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; 29 and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not ℓ arrayed like one of these. 30 Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more ℓ clothe you, O you of little faith?
31 "Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32 For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. 34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

LA VIDA LOCAL – SUPPORT
OUR LOCAL ARTISTS
DURING THE PLETT ARTS FESTIVAL

Plett Tourism has curated a live stream of jazz, opera, popular classics, sacred and gospel music brought to you during the Plett in Concert live stream most evenings at 7pm. Every Friday kick back with Plett Sunsets' chilled sundowner vibes brought to you by Surf Café. For the drama lovers, enjoy homegrown theatre and performance feature on The Fringe. And don't miss the opportunity to Zoom in on music and art masterclasses, while gallery curators and artists-in-residence give insider views of their colourful world. House, rap and jazz fill the Plett Legends slot during festival, so dial in with friends or just hang out on your own for late afternoon beats. Not stopping there, the festival will also focus on the work of emerging local filmmakers - the latest, sharpest graduates of Ikasi Creative Film School - featuring their short films on Plettflix.

Plett ARTS Festival events will be live streamed on a private channel or are accessible on Youtube and Zoom. Tickets are open, visit pletttourism.com to register. It is going to be an awesome 2 weeks of live performance and you don't even have to leave home!

A Thought for the Week

John 10:7-10 [ERV]

"So Jesus said again: 'I assure you, I am the gate for the sheep. All those who came before Me were thieves and robbers, the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate, whoever enters through Me will be saved. They will be able to come in and go out; they will find everything they need. A thief comes to steal, kill, and destroy - but I came to give life, life that is full and good. I am the Good Shepherd and the Good Shepherd gives His life for the sheep.'"

These sayings of Jesus are not only some of Christ's words that most Christians virtually know by heart, but also some of the most important; let's look at them in more detail and see first of all that the Lord begins with the words: "I assure you". God personally gives us the assurance and the guarantee that what follows is true. Next notice that Jesus uses a - for the Jews of His time - extremely common metaphor. He likens Himself as a shepherd of sheep and portrays Himself first as the gate and later as the Good Shepherd.

This is probably unusual for Western people, but it was not so to His listeners, as the shepherd in those times used to corral the sheep in a makeshift pen of thorn bushes with only one opening in which he would sit - as the door - protecting his flock. Jesus probably chose this metaphor of sheep and shepherd to depict how we as human beings often act in the same dumb and stubborn manner as sheep do when it comes to the real issues of life and, instead of following and trusting the heavenly Shepherd, we choose to go our own way. That's why we read these words in Matthew 9, verse 36: "But seeing the crowds, He was moved with compassion on them, because they were tired and scattered like sheep having no shepherd."

This is also why Peter could say to the new believers: "For you were as sheep going astray, but now you are turned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls." [1 Peter 2:25]

Jesus also said that those who come to Him, the Good Shepherd, will be saved - they will "...find everything they need." This promise, however, is not a guarantee of "health and wealth" as some preachers want people to believe, but rather the assurance that everything we need in life will be supplied in the spiritual, physical and material realm according to God's plans and purposes.

Notice also that the Lord warns us that there is an enemy out there who wants to "...steal, kill and destroy" the sheep - Satan is our adversary and his actions and schemes eventually always result in some form of death.

Christ, however, has come to give us life and He states: "I came to give life, life that is full and good."

The Scriptures tell us that God will never force anyone to follow and trust Him, but that He always leaves the choice with us - each one of us, individually, needs to make that all-important choice in order to receive this God-kind of life, by asking Jesus Christ for forgiveness and by submitting our lives to Him as our Saviour and Lord.

Remember, too, that God's invitation is 'inclusive', meaning that all are invited to come to Him, but coming to God is at the same time also 'exclusive' in the sense that the only way to come to the Father is through Jesus Christ, the Son.

Anyone who responds positively to this will be able to say - as Joshua did: "But as for me and my family, we will serve the Lord." [Jos.25:15a] Henk.
