A Moment of JOY – Week 24
By Rose Scott
Speed and Greed Less Likely to Impede!

A number of years ago I had an observation that the current projected rates of speed and greed that we were being driven to would not be sustainable in the foreseeable future. Once our consumerist hearts had been appeased with the 2008 financial crisis swept under the rug I think many felt that they had experienced a narrow escape to "balance the books."

While many are struggling with daily concerns about primary needs one has to appreciate that the enforced slow down with all the ripples of deep concern also allows us to "reconnect" – whether with oneself, a community or even the senses and sensations that we had long taken for granted.

That cup of coffee that you cannot buy, comes with a free aroma, the clouds in the sky cost nothing to watch being blown against the canvas of a perfect blue sky and the smile of anyone who blesses you with one can feel more precious than an extra fifty rand in your wallet.

Whatever you choose as YOUR JOY moment today let it be something that invites in all the free blessings many had lost sight of. My Gran used to advise that "the best things in life are free." – who knew so many had to lose everything before seeing the truth in those wise words.

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the elusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

drive and narration will be done by our very knowledgeable guides.

Please join us for an exciting and thought - provoking 7 week series on the 'PATHWAY OF REDEMPTION'. [DV]

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD

in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Today we continue with our short series on the Fruits of the Spirit that we read about in Galatians 5:22-23 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. This week we look at JOY. The child of God comes to understand that true joy is only found in Jesus Christ. Peter calls this a joy that is 'unspeakable and full of glory' [1Peter1:8]. Everyone can be happy when things are going well, but the Christian joy that we are speaking about is much deeper and can even coexist with suffering. Paul marries the two in Colossians 1:11 when he speaks of 'all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness'. Joy can also coexist with sorrow.

The believer can stand by the grave of a loved one, shedding tears of deep sorrow, and still rejoice in the knowledge that the loved one is with the Lord. But Joy cannot coexist with sin. Whenever a child of God sins he loses his joy and that is not a great place to be; but be Encouraged! 1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. A good question to ask at this point would be: How can we experience this joy in a practical way on a daily basis? When I was still living in Cape Town I was part of a youth work for children that we called The 'JOY Club'. That stood for:

Jesus first, Others second, Yourself last. That actually says it all. If we live by this standard we will experience the 'unspeakable' Joy that Peter speaks about. Furthermore, as we grow in the knowledge of Jesus Christ through the reading and meditation on His word, the Bible, and spend time in prayer and thanksgiving, we will also find that our Joy increases and we begin to develop the kind of resilience that Habakkuk speaks about in Habakkuk 3:17-18. Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will be joyful in God my Saviour. May you know this Joy in the Lord!

With much Christian love.
