What you feel, isn't who you are.

Your emotions are temporary waves that flow through you, but they don't define your essence.  You are the observer of these feelings, not the feelings themselves. By understanding this, you can create space between you and your emotions, allowing you to respond consciously rather than react.  You are the infinite awareness beneath the surface, not the fleeting sensations.

Plett Secondary School

We like to share the good news.
One of our learners, Kianto Blou in grade 11A participated in a competition where he had to write an essay about 'Bullying' / Bullying, which was presented by Rotary. Kianto wrote his heart out and portrayed all emotions in his essay. This essay really tugged at the heartstrings.
Kianto won second prize. We are extremely proud of him. ★ What makes us even more proud is that he used part of his prize money to buy him a school jacket 'blazer' and gave the rest to his mommy. What a beautiful gesture!! We believe with this attitude that he will reach very high heights not only at Plett Secondary but also everywhere he goes. The lesson from this:
Where there is a will, there is a way.
Parents please motivate your child/children to get involved and participate in the activities and events offered by the school.
Blessed week for all our Plett Sek family.

BE ENCOURAGED

John 14: 6 is one of the best-known verses in the Bible: "Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me".

THE WAY: Primarily Jesus is not speaking about a way of Life - He is speaking about the way to God. How a sinner can be reconciled to Holy God?

In Matthew 7:13 Jesus reflects on a very sad reality: "Broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Difficult [narrow] is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it".
What is the difficulty? Why is the road so narrow? Very few people are prepared to admit that they are sinners in need of God's forgiveness. When you ask a kindergarten class who is naughty, who is a little sinner, all the hands go up. But sadly as we grow up in our self-worth, self-sufficiency, status etc, we build an ever hardening shell of pride around ourselves. It's so sad that the success in this life can be the very thing that keeps us away from God.

The greatest thing about the Christian faith is that at any time, we can confess our sin of pride and come back to a right relationship with our Maker. 1 John 1:9-10 says: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness".
Next week DV we will look at the second attribute: Truth.

God bless - with much Christian love, Anton van Stormbroek

PAWS Heroes

Our kennels are always very busy with a variety of resident dogs and cats who require shelter, care and food. The daily feeding of these animals represents a big slice out of our monthly budget and we are therefore grateful for contributions of pet food. Montego Pet Nutrition have been donating pet food to PAWS for about 12 years and their 2024 donation of 680 Kgs of food is valued at over R7 300. Their generosity allows us to concentrate on providing a primary health care service to the neglected dogs and cats in the extended Bitou area. Montego, represented by Robyn Oliver, are our deserving PAWS heroes and we look forward to continuing our collaboration and friendship with them in years to come. THANK YOU Montego, from all our kennel residents.
