Strandloper Project

Marine Wildlife Strandings in the Garden Route.

If, while enjoying your time on the beach and shoreline, you encounter a stranded species of marine wildlife, please contact your local Marine Stranding organization.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A TURTLE.

1) Do not return it to the ocean. It has stranded as it is either weak, ill, tired or has ingested plastic. 2) Do not place it in a container of water. Turtles are air breathing and can drown if weak and tired. 3) Keep it in a dry, ventilated and room temperature box, preferably placing the turtle on a towel. 4) Contact the turtle rescue number or the local marine stranding organization. 5) Get a location pin.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A LIVE SEAL.

1) Do not try and chase it into the water - it is either tired, undernourished or weak and wants to rest. 2) Create a safe zone around it and prevent dogs and crowds from approaching it. 3) Call your local marine stranding organization. 4) Take a location pin to share with the rescuers.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A PENGUIN

1) Do not try and chase it into the water - it is either tired, undernourished or weak and wants to rest. 2) Create a safe zone around it and prevent dogs and crowds from approaching it. 3) Call your local marine stranding organization. 4) Take a location pin to share with the rescuers. 5) After you have spoken to a marine animal rescuer, and they request you to collect the Penguin, follow their instructions on how to handle it and where to take it. Please be aware that they have extremely sharp beaks and need to be handled with care and cautiously.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A DOLPHIN

1) Check for any obvious injuries. 2) Report to the local marine stranding organization and provide a detailed report of condition and location. 3) Unless advised by the stranding organization, do not attempt to return the dolphin to the ocean. Keep it cool by placing wet towels over it and wetting the towels about every 10 minutes. 4) Reduce any stress from dogs and crowds.

PBCPA

The PBCPA was founded 2010 as a crime prevention association that evolved over the years in more than just preventing crimes, community outreaches became imperative. The PBCPA have fifty-seven members of good standing, which include victim support NGO's & SAPS VEP (Victim Empower Program). September 2023, the trials and tribulation of a young rape victim sitting in stark, ill-dispose to no consolation or comfort VEP room waiting for (FCS) (Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit) for an exceptionally long time, sparked the desire to change the status quo into a welcoming haven for victims dealing with trauma @ Plett & Kwanoo Police Stations. The renovated SAPS Plett VEP Room was re-launched 23rd September 2024. Kwanoo's SAPS VEP container had no furniture or furnishings to accommodate traumatized victims, the heat in the container was very oppressive, rusted, no sanitation, no electricity, no water. The container was cleaned with a high-pressure waterpower sprayer to get rid of all the layers of dirt and filth inside and outside by PBCPA outreach friends & volunteers on Mandela Day 2024.

The rusted windows that could not open at all were cut out. The badly damaged/rotten dry walls were ripped out, most of the rust was grinded-out & welding patchwork was done inside and outside. The donated wooden windows were already fitted when the renovation commenced the 10th of February 2025.

The SAPS KwaNokuthula was officially handed over on the 5th of March, the ribbon was cut by General Cetyana, Mayor Jesica Kamkam Otto Olivier, PBCPA Operations thanked Genl. Cetyana & Bitou Mayor Jesica Kamkam for their attendance, KwaNokuthula Station Commander, Lt. Col Burger for your support during the renovations and leading from the front by assisting wherever you could. SAPS KwaNokuthula Officers & Support staff for their support & kindness, a special thank you to Sgt E. Olivier for fixing the disabled persons toilet door & Sgt Roberts for all his handyman work. Bitou Victim Support legend Helene Bezuidenhout for being our inspiration for both the VEP room projects, PBCPA Executive team, PBCPA Outreach Friends in particular Tanya Engelbrecht from Scape art design, the VEP room Interior designer, without your help the VEP would never have materialise to the fantastic haven for victims of children & gender base violence. He also said the legendary Goodness & Grace, of Plett businesspeople and residents, made the PBCPA Outreach VEP Room projects possible!

VEP room Sponsors:- PBCPA PHM Plett Home Maintenance, Nolans, Dulux, Wooden Wonders, Elliot Electrical, Curtain Magic, Bobbin Craft, Pinnacle Painters, Scape Art Design, BUCO, Glow Lighting, PBCPA Outreach Friends, Food & Beverage, Odd & Ends: Ninteen89, PNA, DIY, Jacks Tools & Hardware, Luiz da Fonseca, Andri & Comic, Paul Pretorius.

Turtle Hatchling Stranding Update 2025
TURTLE HOTLINE 083 300 1663
REMEMBER, a turtle that appears dead might well still be alive, but barely moving - and they can still be saved! Check carefully amongst seagrass.

When you go on a beach walk, please be on the look out for turtle hatchlings and perform the correct rescue procedure.

1. Do not return any stranded turtle to the ocean. 2. Keep it dry at room temperature on a dry towel, in a ventilated cardboard box or ice cream tub. 3. Contact the turtle rescue network (083 300 1663) to arrange transport to the Two Oceans Aquarium.

4. For turtle strandings between Knysna and Plettenberg Bay you can also contact the Plett Marine Animal Stranding Hotline (0794634837). For strandings between Knysna and Sedgefield, you can contact Strandloper Project (0822135931), SANParks or the Sedgefield Stranding group (083 271 7324) to arrange logistics to get the turtle to the Two Oceans Aquarium for rehab. 5. When reporting a stranded turtle, please have a location pin for record purposes, as well as a photo.

Please report any strandings.
When reporting stranded marine fauna, please have an accurate location pin for record purposes, as well as a photo so that responders can prepare for recovery and find it easily.

Please share, so that as many beachgoers are aware as possible. These turtles desperately need our help to ensure their long-term existence and every single one counts.

PRESS RELEASE

Men of HeArt – Balancing Masculine Energy Through Art on Human Rights Day

Kranshoek, South Africa – March 13, 2025
– The AIR Visual Art Exhibition, a standout event of the inaugural AIR Festival, will debut on Human Rights Day, March 21, 2025, in Kranshoek. This thought-provoking exhibition explores the role of art in balancing masculine energy, providing a platform for both established and emerging male artists to showcase their work. Curated by the accomplished fine artist Gatsby Luban-za Mpoyi, the exhibition promises to offer a unique visual experience, featuring a variety of artistic mediums.

About the AIR Visual Art Exhibition

"Air: Men of HeArt" features an all-male lineup of artists, each using their unique voice to reflect on an African Indigenous Renaissance. The exhibition presents powerful works exploring themes of identity,
nature, resilience, and the ongoing journey
of self-discovery. By highlighting the intersection of art and human rights, the exhibition emphasizes the importance of refining masculine energy within the broader narrative of dignity, equality, and freedom.

The AIR Festival is proudly presented in partnership with Ariva Arts Foundation and supported by Bitou Municipality, Griqua
National Conference, Plettenberg Bay Tourism, and Tshisa Talent. It is funded by the National Arts Council of South Africa (NAC), the Department of Sport, Arts and Culture (DSAC), Presidential Employment
Stimulus Program (PESP5), Western Cape

Government Cultural Affairs and Sport (DCAS), and the South African Music
Performance Rights Association (SAMPRA)
Development Fund.

Festival Director's Quote

Yusuf Ganief, CEO of the AIR Festival,
says, "The AIR Festival stands as a celebration of who we are, where we come from,
and where we are going. It is an invitation to all to engage in a broader conversation
about human rights and community.
Through art, dance, food, and music, we will unite to celebrate and reflect on our shared journey as a nation."

This festival will be a landmark event promoting cultural understanding and

tolerance, where tradition and innovation
meet to highlight the importance of unity and human dignity in the global conversation on equality and social justice.
