Your richest life awaits...

Open letter to the Plett Community

I am from Johannesburg, Plett has now become our home, but being from Jhb, it's safe to say I've had my fair share of run ins with security companies. I was invited to watch a farm attack simulation - I've been in an armed robbery before. I was looking forward to watching it from another angle. There were many security firms involved and the entire thing played out very realistically! (Thank goodness for no live ammunition). The rapid response unit was present and what I saw was easily the most impressive thing I've witnessed. This is a group of guys (and girls) who are so incredibly passionate about keeping the community safe and it's evident when you watch them. The way Sally ran the command post, Waldo handled the drone and the guys on the field worked together was just incredible. Their communication was amazing and because of how much time they all spend together you can see how well they all move together. Coordinated movements, and silent understandings of what needed to happen next. One "suspect" escaped, no problem, drone found him and our Rapid response guys secured him. I'm writing this because you need to know how very lucky you (we) are to have these guys protecting us. As someone who's been on the receiving end of a LOT of crime, I've never felt safer knowing who we have in our corner. Do you know these guys are ALL volunteers - they have full time jobs and still manage to put on their super hero capes when needed. I wish you all could have seen a snippet of what I witnessed. I could never explain how truly impressive it really was. Think about that next time you have some spare funds. The drone needs new batteries. They use wireless communication so suspects can't hear them. None of that is cheap. Yet they still make it work. Thanks for showing me what you do today Rapid Response. Today will stand out for me for a long time to come. Michelle Tockar

Someone who is so very thankful we live in a town with these people protecting us.

UnCommon Sense

By Rose Scott

How Do You Aspire to Live?

Having been in the accounting and business sectors for over thirty years with clients and employers ranging from blue chip conglomerates to individual taxpayers, I have noticed that people can generally fall within one of two general philosophies to life. The first is what I view as "Transactional Living" – definitely encouraged, even championed by Western patriarchal Capitalism. People view each interaction in life as a transaction, or a means to an end. This is usually evidenced by a mindset of "what is in this for me?" It generally leads to shallow relationships, an outlook that prioritises money first, things second and people third. I do not judge people who live in this "camp of thought" as we are all quite capable and for many of us our younger years may well have revolved around this approach to living. The second approach to life is one that views relationships as an end in themselves. The beauty of living like this, is that it does not matter what an outcome or situation is, there is always a win. If you are stuck in a long queue a transactional minded person will focus on valuable time lost in doing something personally satisfying or generating revenue. Someone that values relationships can strike up a pleasant conversation with others who are waiting and benefit from while the time pleasantly and constructively. My maternal grandmother was a wonder to watch in action, she could strike up a conversation with anyone and be pleasant and entertaining. She seemed to draw people out of their shell and was a real delight to be with in testing times. The irony can be that the person who feels aggravated in situations that do not "compute" transactionally is that their days are often less productive as they focus on functioning as a human doing. Those who are relational and priorities first people, then money and lastly things often achieve more by effectively co-opting support and an ease of spirit that helps days to flow rather than stutter. There are no doubt times when one or the other view is most appropriate, but as a general rule, we have complete free will over our mood, our attitude and what I call our "internal

Please help local learner Lumko Siko
and I am a learner from Knysna High School. In late March my school participated in a tournament when a few players were selected by representatives of the SCST (Southern Cape Sports Tours) to join the SCST team on a tour to Ireland. I was selected as one the players to join the team on the tour. I am very excited to be chosen amongst all the other great players to be a part of the team and I have always dreamed of being able to go outside of our Country to play the sports that I love and now that it's actually happening, is a true blessing. The tour will be in October 2022 and the total cost of the tour will be R39 980. I am kindly requesting for your assistance in the form of sponsorships to help me raise enough money so that I will be able to attend this once in a life time opportunity. A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

For the next few weeks let us spend time in Psalm 37 which begins "Do not fret because of those who are evil or be envious of those who do wrong; for like the grass they will soon wither, like green plants they will soon die away. Trust in the LORD and do good; dwell in the land and enjoy safe pasture". If we are honest, we all get irritated when the "baddies" seem to prosper and get away with dishonesty and corruption.

The Psalmist gives five good pieces of advice to us on how to not fret about their seeming success and we will start today with "Trust in the Lord and do good". Despite outward appearances the enjoyment of the evil's ill-gotten prosperity is short and not so sweet because those who do wrong are also subject to mental, emotional and physical challenges. They also have inner turmoil, relationships that are difficult and the inevitable aging process which brings decay and death.

I remember many years ago I was staying on a sheep farm in the Karoo and the farm was green from all the recent rains and I remarked to the farmer that the sheep must be enjoying the vegetation after the good rains. His reply surprised me "Yes the sheep can't get enough of this tasty greenery, but it is terrible because the green plants you see are a toxic weed that spring up after rain and when the sheep eat the weeds it upsets their stomach and flies lay eggs on their dirty bottoms which then bring disease and often they die". Friends, if you are a Christian, instead of fretting about the outward prosperity of the wicked, give thanks that the Lord has kept you poor and righteous - just like the sheep and be content with the dry succulent pasture and reject the green toxic weed that looks so enticing. As the Psalmist says it is "SAFE pasture" that the Good Shepherd (Jesus Christ) provides for you - the land is where God's People meet and the safe pasture is God's Word which will keep you spiritually safe and healthy. If you have an eternal perspective on life it goes without saying we trust the Lord and do good allowing God's Holy Spirit to work in our lives. Finally, don't fret because the wrong doers are also suffering as Solomon so aptly put it "So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind. I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me". (Ecclesiastes 2v17).

God Bless

The festival will be anchored by a three-day marine science symposium and a variety of ocean-themed events with a strong conservation theme. Plettenberg Bay has much to offer during the winter season including mild weather and abundant marine life. Attention during this time of the year is largely focused on the wonders of the ocean as the whales are in the bay, scuba diving and snorkelling conditions are often idyllic, and our resident seals, dolphins, sharks, and marine birds are attracted to plentiful food sources. As a result of these, Plett Tourism has chosen the winter period of the July holidays to host the Plett Ocean Festival.

Among many highlights of the upcoming festival, the Marine Science Symposium will be held at the oceanside Beacon Isle Resort over three days and presentations will cover topics ranging from marine life, ecological impact presentations and conservation projects by a selection of top scientists and biologists in their fields. The depth of knowledge and extent of research in Plettenberg Bay and the Garden Route on oceanography, conservation and marine life is vast, and we want to share it with the world. The symposium is about a sustainable ocean economy – the ocean and our beaches are Plett's most important tourist attraction and Plett Tourism is committed to continuing the work of keeping these attractions pristine and flourishing. The Marine Science Symposium – to be held from 1-3 July 2022 and MC'd Zandile Ndhlovu of the Black Mermaid Foundation - is a must-do for all interested in, working in, or studying in the marine sciences fields. Tickets will be available per presentation, per day or as a full symposium pass.

The Plett Ocean Festival will also offer a variety of fun and family friendly activities including rocky shore excursions, guided hikes, scuba diving and snorkeling, trail runs, surf lessons, angling competitions, a team surfing competition, and an oceanic art exhibition. Collaborations at the festival are many as Nature's Valley Trust has partnered with Open Plan Pictures to screen the animated movie, Seal Team alongside an educational talk on pollution and marine debris; Adopt-A-Swimmer and the Black Mermaid Foundation have partnered to introduce youngsters to the wonders beneath the waves, and the local NSRI Station 14 will hold an open day for visitors to tour the station and learn more about National Sea Rescue Institute and its work. As a town with six international Blue Flag Beaches and two Blue Flag Boats, a Mission Blue Hope Spot, and surrounded by both national parks and marine protected areas, the Plett Ocean Festival aims to be an all-inclusive, one-of-a-kind event that celebrates conserving and sustainably enjoying our marine resources: beaches, shoreline and the deep blue sea.

Woohoo Dr Coci

On 6 May 2022 the Consul of Italy in Cape Town, Dr Emanuele Pollio, came to Plettenberg Bay to bestow upon Dr Giovanni Coci the award of Knight of the Order of the Star of Italy

The ceremony took place at Enrico's restaurant in Keurbooms. The function was attended by over 60 people, including most of the local doctors and members of the Plett Italian community.

The Order of the Star of Italy (Ordine della Stella d'Italia) is a civilian award meant to honour Italian expatriates who have contributed to the promotion of Italy's national prestige in their adopted countries. The Knighthood is conferred by the President of the Republic of Italy.

Last year 160 Italian expatriates throughout the world received this prestigious award.

The motivations for the award read: Dr Coci was the first Italian South African to become a specialist physician and to be admitted to the Royal College of Physicians of London.

He has been actively involved in assisting members of the Italian communities in South Africa and neighbouring countries. For many years he was the medical consultant to the Embassy of Italy in South Africa. For most of the Covid pandemic he was the only physician in Plettenberg Bay. In spite of the high risk, he elected to look after all the Covid patients admitted to the local hospital and the intensive care unit. Drawing from this experience he wrote a paper on "Covid complications seen at a small hospital in South Africa" which was published by the South African Medical Journal.

Dr Coci has been instrumental in promoting Italian culture in South Africa and has given several lectures on Italian history.
