After months of planning, countless queries about the programme and a fair amount of excitement in the Plett Tourism office, tickets are on sale for the three-day Marine Science Symposium (30 June – 2 July 2023) during the 2nd annual Plett Ocean Festival 30 June – 9 July 2023.

The symposium will return to the iconic Beacon Island Resort from 30 June – 2 July 2023 and will, once again, be MC'd by the Black Mermaid Foundation's Zandile Ndhlovu.

Safety and security don't just happen, they are the result of collective consensus and public investment. We owe our children, the most vulnerable citizens of our society, a life free of violence and fear – Nelson Mandela

PAWS Orphans

Jack is still waiting for a constant companion. He's about 5-6, loves being brushed and cuddled, not keen on lively play but well socialised.

Our three friendly, well socialised youngsters are still waiting too- Bonnie, 16 months, small to medium, Lively but gentle, is a perfect little dog to add to your family.

Clyde, 16 months, small to medium, would like a family with lots of opportunity to race around and play.

Meisie is an energetic, sweet and sociable little dog.

Our puppy Mikki is bursting with confidence. About 3 months old now, we think he'll be medium sized.

Unclaimed stray is an easy going, young although overweight boy (we'll get him fit!)

The cats range in age from quite young kittens to full adults. Please come and meet them at PAWS cattery.

PLETTENBERG BAY CRIME PREVENTION ASSOCIATION

16 May 2023

Just as the alert of a break-in in the vicinity of Magnet Street came through on the PBCPA reaction earlier today and that the suspect had left his shoes behind, Arthur Kayster spotted a possible suspect in Robberg road walking with socks. Arthur stopped and asked where his shoes were. The person's answer was vague. During further investigation it was determined it was the culprit who broke into the house in Magnet Street. The stolen items were found in the suspects' possession. Excellent job, Arthur, huge gratitude for SAPS, Plett Rapid & Smhart Security swift response and assistance.

Strengths Workshop Plett 2023 Kids ages 10 - 18 years

For too long parents, teachers and society have focused on identifying and fixing "kids" weaknesses to improve academic performance.

What if every child can find success in school, their relationships and life if we start focusing on the strengths they have, rather than on what they lack. Every child is beautiful, talented, and gorgeous. Its just where?

Research shows that only 2 out of 10 people get to play to their strengths. Life is too short to be one of the 8 that get stuck doing what they can just to make it through another day. Be bold and take the step.

Discovering your strengths is a rewarding process if you know what to look for. Every action respectful or defiant, in and out of the classroom, provides an opportunity to discover a person's unique set of strengths. The boy who is scolded for speaking out in class, may have untapped potential for debate. The girl who is more engaged on the tennis court than the classroom may have a hidden knack for physics. A child drawn to one activity or household chore over another is driven by natural inclinations that can be identified and applied to schoolwork.

Dr Ross will show you how to make such connections in everyday life, and in turn help kids implement the strengths they reveal in school, their relationships, life, and future career.

Parents don't we all want our children to be seen and valued for who they are and the unique gifts they bring to this world?

Cost R 900 per student – cost includes psychometric strength assessment, workshop, and parent group feedback. Strength assessment done online prior to workshop.

Date TO BE CONFIRMED...

First Responders

on Wednesday the 17th of May at approximately 16:11 First Responders were alerted to an incident at a lifestyle village in Plett where a man had fallen and injured himself. The security personnel at the village had assessed the incident and were calling for urgent medical assistance. The local Ambulance services were alerted Medlife confirmed they were en route.

First Responder volunteers responded to scene in their private vehicles. First Responder Freund said "When I arrived on scene I found the male patient to be suffering from what appeared to be disorientation indicating possible head trauma. I assessed patients vital signs and found them to be slightly out of the ordinary. Coupled with the disorientation I felt it necessary that he should go to hospital."

The patients vital signs were monitored and he was kept comfortable until Medlife Ambulance Services arrived on scene, following which the patient was handed into their care. First Responder Freund assisted with stabilizing the patient.

Once stabilized and loaded into the ambulance the patient was transported to Plettenberg Bay Mediclinic for further treatment. We wish the patient a quick recovery. Thank you to Medlife Ambulance Services for their quick response and professional service.

First Responders

On Wednesday the 17th of May at approximately 8:05am First Responders were alerted to an incident involving a man on a bicycle on the R102 Natures Valley Pass. The caller stated that the gentleman had fallen and had severe injuries. The local Ambulance services were alerted and Western Cape Government Health Emergency Services confirmed they were en route.

First Responder volunteers responded to scene in their private vehicles. First Responder Otto said "I responded to scene in my vehicle along with a fellow first responder volunteer, as we entered the top of the natures Valley pass we rounded the corner to find a man lying in the road. Bystanders had wrapped the man in a blanket to keep him warm and were doing their best to keep him comfortable while waiting for help. Bitou fire department was also on scene. I parked my vehicle in a way to alert other vehicles entering the pass of the incident and began helping on scene". The patients vital signs were monitored and he was kept comfortable until Western Cape Government Health EMS arrived on scene, following which the patient was handed into their care. Once stabilized and loaded into the ambulance the patient was transported to Knysna Provincial Hospital for further care and treatment. We wish the patient a quick recovery. *As for me and my house,
We will serve the Lord. Joshua 24:15*

Anton: 082 878 4193 / Graeme 083 628 1648

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Psalm 22 begins with "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, so far from my cries of anguish?" Many of us have either audibly or silently uttered similar words when we have experienced a crisis in our lives, but this is because we allow our feelings to obscure the fact that God is always aware of our situation. 1 Peter 3v12: "For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous and his ears are attentive to their prayer." (The righteous are those who have participated in what is known as "the great exchange" - giving our sins to Jesus Christ and receiving His righteousness in return). God never forsakes His people and is always near us as Moses said many thousands of years ago - as recorded in Deuteronomy 31v6 and repeated in Hebrews 13v5: "the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you." God could remove our anguish with ease, but He knows we will only grow spiritually through our suffering. So, instead He suffers with us - Hebrews 4v15 tells us that we have a high priest (the Lord Jesus Christ) who is able to feel sympathy for our weaknesses.

But for a period of three hours in history, God did abandon and forsake somebody and that was Jesus Christ - during that terrible time on the cross as recorded by Saint Peter in his epistle 1 Peter 2v24: "He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed." Whilst on the cross whilst God turned His face away whilst Jesus fulfilled Psalm 22's prophecy when He cried out: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" (Matthew 27v46.) Friends, if you know Jesus Christ as your Saviour and Lord, take time to thank God once again for His great love for you.
