PREVENT FRAUD, AND DON'T BE A VICTIM OF SCAMS.
PEOPLE MUST BE AWARE AND BE VIGILANT.

- * Don't give out personal information on the phone, through the mail or over the internet unless you have initiated the contact or know whom you are dealing with.
- * Verify if the representative posing on behalf of the company does indeed work at the company
- * Criminals sometimes use the names of banks and their officials to give credibility to their "referrals" or support other aspects of their "to good-to-be-true" "business proposals"
- * The offer may even be backed with impressive-looking documentation and letter-heads, which may even be genuine, that have been stolen or reproduced.
- * Once you are hooked, you will be asked to deposit money to help the transaction take place.
- * If you make a deposit, you will never see the money again.
- * Under no circumstances should you attempt to reply, either by email, phone or post.
- * We urge you not to become another statistic in these scams.

Zee's Charity Shop:

The Fairy godmother of Plett

Zee's Charity Shop was founded in December 20217 after two friends enjoyed a cup of coffee after Church one day. They are part of a woman's prayer group, where they discuss the issues of Plettenberg Bay. All their earnings are used to pay rent and to help anyone in need.

At first, the owner sold her own clothing, but after a while people from different churches donated items to the shop.

The owner is very passionate about helping people in need. She donates food parcels to different communities regularly. Parcels are also handed out at schools and old age homes accompanied by an inspirational message. Every year she blesses a few matric learner by taking them shopping for their matric dance.

Zee's Charity Shop has made a huge impact on the community in Plettenberg Bay. It has grown so much since 2017.

Any donations would be most welcome. It would help the owner to help even more people. zarefapeters@gmail.com for further information.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Herewith our 2nd meditation on Psalm 23. Maybe one of the most notable characteristics of the Psalm was that inspired by the Holy Spirit, written by a man who in his younger years was a shepherd, a soldier and a King.

So when David, at the end of his life, looks back and says: "THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD", we should take note, especially when David completes the thought with that famous and outstanding statement of contentment: "I SHALL NOT WANT". What he is saying is: "my life is complete and purposeful; my destiny is secure in the Lord; I am truly happy and at peace, even if life is and was often very difficult and sad".

When the apostle Paul writes to young Timothy and also to us today, it is clear that he wants this same contentment for all believers. Just like David, Paul also knows that contentment will never be found in things - it will escape you until you find it in the Lord. 1 Timothy 6:6-11 "But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows. Then comes the final charge to Timothy in verse 11: "But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness". I love the way JR Littleproud, theologian and politician of the 1930s concurs with David when he wrote: "The secret of a happy life: The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. The secret of a happy death: Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; For You are with me. The secret of a happy eternity: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever!" With much Christian love,

PAWS Heroes

The BATS have come to the end of their enormously successful production Of Arsenic and Old Lace to raise funds for PAWS. A small army of BATS actors, volunteers and supporters worked tirelessly to rehearse during long months, building a professional set, organising the Gala Opening and publicising the event. Over 600 people attended the shows and it was clear from their response, night after night, that they loved it. We salute the BATS for not only raising substantial funds for PAWS, but for providing quality entertainment and the magic of live theatre for our community.

The BATS are our very deserving heroes.
