Strandloper Project

Marine Wildlife Strandings in the Garden Route.

If, while enjoying your time on the beach and shoreline, you encounter a stranded species of marine wildlife, please contact your local Marine Stranding organization.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A TURTLE.

1) Do not return it to the ocean. It has stranded as it is either weak, ill, tired or has ingested plastic. 2) Do not place it in a container of water. Turtles are air breathing and can drown if weak and tired. 3) Keep it in a dry, ventilated and room temperature box, preferably placing the turtle on a towel. 4) Contact the turtle rescue number or the local marine stranding organization. 5) Get a location pin.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A LIVE SEAL.

1) Do not try and chase it into the water - it is either tired, undernourished or weak and wants to rest. 2) Create a safe zone around it and prevent dogs and crowds from approaching it. 3) Call your local marine stranding organization. 4) Take a location pin to share with the rescuers.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A PENGUIN

1) Do not try and chase it into the water - it is either tired, undernourished or weak and wants to rest. 2) Create a safe zone around it and prevent dogs and crowds from approaching it. 3) Call your local marine stranding organization. 4) Take a location pin to share with the rescuers. 5) After you have spoken to a marine animal rescuer, and they request you to collect the Penguin, follow their instructions on how to handle it and where to take it. Please be aware that they have extremely sharp beaks and need to be handled with care and cautiously.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A DOLPHIN

1) Check for any obvious injuries. 2) Report to the local marine stranding organization and provide a detailed report of condition and location. 3) Unless advised by the stranding organization, do not attempt to return the dolphin to the ocean. Keep it cool by placing wet towels over it and wetting the towels about every 10 minutes. 4) Reduce any stress from dogs and crowds.

The VMMC- Voluntary Medical male circumcision program is a program that works hand in hand with the department of health. We have these programs once a month and we have professionals that do the circum.

Additional information is also provided on the day or at your nearest health facilities and you can also get it from the mobilisers. We cut from the age of 10 yrs and older. It is utmost important to remove the foreskin to prevent getting any infections of any kind and it's a very safe way to do it. For any information or a booking, please so contact me on Facebook/ Whatsapp (0735135119).

Keep Plett Clean started twelve years ago to make sure our town looked clean and inviting to tourists and holidaymakers. This would encourage people to buy properties here, holiday here, open businesses and create employment for our people. Accommodation establishments, businesses, restaurants and retail stores would benefit.

We have a number of volunteers who have walked this road with us from the beginning, and have helped to make it the success it has become. This has been achieved by creating awareness and ownership of our surroundings and in so doing, teaching our children not to litter. Not only does littering make our town ugly, but it affects the environment negatively.

As we have grown, we recognised the need for some permanent staff and we now have three very capable hardworking men that are employed by us.

With this growth, our overheads have increased. Duncan Brown from Beacon Isle Kwikspar and Tops has been our main sponsor through the years and has also paid our employees wages every month. We salute you, Duncan Brown, for your kindness and generosity.

We thank Sotheby's for sponsoring all our dog poop bags, Robberg Fine Foods for cleaning the Industrial Area (a business hub that should be serviced daily) once a week, Broll Market Square for the donations and last but by no means least, the few individuals that donate to us monthly. We really appreciate your generosity.

We meet every Tuesday evening for an hour to clean up identified areas.

Keep Plett Clean has a branch in Keurbooms, run by Alan Jackson. They meet to clean fortnightly. MAD - Make A Difference Plett, and Adopt-A-Park fall under our umbrella.

We donate bibs to the car guards so that they are identifiable and neat looking.

We are tasked with keeping Main Street painted and the flower beds neat and clean and the trees and bushes trimmed - thank you to Seeff Properties for helping us with this.

Our expenses have increased as we have grown - we have a scooter that is driven by one of our staff members, which needs to be repaired and maintained, along with the expense of other sundries.

BE ENCOURAGED

Psalm 15 speaks to believers in Jesus Christ and homes in on the whole issue of Integrity. When I was Headmaster of Plett Primary, I remember well how the Governing Body Chairman and I discussed this issue and his remark to me was: 'yes Anton, in your position or in any leadership position it is imperative that one remains 'squeaky clean'. In whatever position we find ourselves, God requires no less. As Creator and Sustainer of the whole universe and all its peoples -not just the material universe, but the 8 billion souls who inhabit the earth. All are created by God in His own image [sobering thought].

We don't speak of our Creator God's Integrity - we use a much loftier Heavenly term, a term that is outside the boundaries of the natural man. We speak of His Holiness. In Scripture we see this attribute of God elevated to the third degree. The Bible does not say that God is merely holy, or even holy, holy: He is holy, holy, holy. That does not imply that there are degrees to Holiness. Holiness is absolute. Saying it three times simply nails it down as God's ultimate, all-encompassing attribute. His Power is Holy, His love is Holy, His Grace is Holy, His Justice is Holy, His Anger is Holy, His Goodness is Holy - God is Holy, Holy, Holy.

Psalm 15, a Psalm of David. The body of the psalm sits between two bookends. The opening verse is a probing question intended to get our attention. The last line speaks of a victorious outcome. Psalm 15: "LORD, who may abide in Your tabernacle? Who may dwell in Your holy hill? ²He who walks uprightly, And works righteousness, And speaks the truth in his heart; ³He who does not backbite with his tongue, Nor does evil to his neighbour, Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend; ⁴In whose eyes a vile person is despised, But he honours those who fear the LORD; He who swears to his own hurt and does not change; ⁵He who does not put out his money at usury, Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be moved. With much Christian love,

PAWS Heroes

We are delighted to announce that Alan and Marion Kushner are our Heroes this month. Over the years, they have made a huge contribution to PAWS in many ways: As former committee members, they volunteered to work at all our events and at our kennels. They were regularly found at our Car Boot Sales, making dozens of pancakes. Since their "retirement" from PAWS, they have continued their excellent service to our disadvantaged dogs and cats. When they recently celebrated their joint 80th birthday, they hosted a festive party at Barringtons and asked their guests to make a donation to PAWS, in lieu of gifts. We were very grateful to receive a very substantial donation to our funds, as a result. Well done, Kushie and Marion! We salute you for your loyal service and generosity.
