Un Common Sense

The True Value of Honest Work

I think that the recent combination of challenges that has resulted in the loss of 2million jobs has highlighted the future risks for our country in terms of the under twenty-five age group having an unemployment rate of 65%. Something that I have found both frustrating and confusing is how many people in this age group turn down jobs that they seem to deem "below them." Simply because a job is the first rung on the ladder of future success it seems to be viewed by some youngsters as being of no value.

There appears to be an increasing "hypersensitivity" by the youth of being perceived as being unambitious if starting your employment history as a waitron, assistant carer at a community centre, a shop floor assistant in retail, a receptionist at a professional firm.

The value of these opportunities does not lie in how much you are paid. You learn to practice and demonstrate the skills that you gain through regular employment – reliability, punctuality, patience, delayed gratification, a willingness to work that indicates you have further potential. You add these positions to your CV and will be rewarded with good references if you perform well.

When we live in a world where a job can no

URGENT APPEAL

Plett Sea Scouts is in urgent need of 15-20 drums for the upcoming Kontiki..

Denron who so generously donated 20 to us last year unfortunately have none available this year.

We really want to send as many scouts to the upcoming Kontiki and really don't want to turn scouts away due to a lack of equipment..

Jared Harding - 081 244 0866

longer be viewed as a right, but as a privilege there is no "better time" to grab opportunities and make them work for you. As a young UNISA student working three jobs to make ends meet I never concerned myself with "what others may think of me" but seeing my commitments as first an opportunity to be of service, followed by the payment received, never fearing that I would be stuck on that bottom rung. My employment in low-income roles became a solid basis with excellent references to secure opportunities further up the ladder to success. My past performance was what secured future "rungs" on the ladder to prosperity.

12 TON ROLLER

Each employment role increases your skills and your credibility – invaluable intangible assets in your plans for improving opportunities that can be accessed once you have proved your mettle – not to others, but to yourself. It is a real bonus to secure those much-valued references – they build your confidence to believe that advancement is accessible. That is called HOPE.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11
According to Wikipedia there is an olive tree in Portugal that is 3350 years old. But what is even more amazing is there is a tree in Croatia that is 1600 years old and still bears fruit-not as much as it did 1580 years ago, but a crop of 30 kg of olives last year is still an impressive amount for such an old tree. It reminds me of Psalm 92 verse 12- "The righteous will flourish like a palm tree, they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon; planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God. They will still bear fruit in old age, they will stay fresh and green, proclaiming, 'The LORD is upright; he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him. The righteous are not "goody goodies", but those who have entrusted their lives to Jesus Christ and are in a right relationship with God. We notice they "flourish" because they are planted in the house of the Lord. Friends if you are not a committed member of a Christ centred church which gives shade, nourishment and where "iron sharpens iron" then find one and you will find the soil is good, there is plenty of water and fertiliser and you will bear fruit as described in Galatians 5v22 "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control". Unfortunately as the aches and pains get worse in old age we tend to become grumpy and irritable. As my wife keeps reminding me we need to constantly be careful not to bear fruit that has no nutrition and even gives the eater an upset stomach. All of us need to stay fresh and green so we still bear fruit in old age even if there is less fruit on it than when we were young and vigorous. Dear fellow seniors-are we still proclaiming that God is faithful even when we are faithless? Are we testifying that even though sometimes it seems "life isn't fair" God is and has always been our rock? Then we will be a role model for the
