A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD

in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Today it is my privilege and responsibility to conclude our studies of the Ten Commandments. You shall not covet your neighbour's house. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife, or his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour"-Exodus2v17. 'Who is my neighbour?' Jesus was asked and He explained with the telling of the parable of the Good Samaritan.

But what does it mean to covet?-it means to pant after or too long for with great desire for something which we don't have and is always destructive when directed at our neighbour and often leads to the breaking of the previous 4 commandments. We often confuse jealousy and covetousness so it is important to understand the difference because they are completely different.

Jealousy is being "very watchful or careful in guarding or keeping what one has". I repeat we covet what we don't have and are jealous to keep what we do have. God is never mentioned as being covetous as He owns everything as we read in Psalm 5v10 'for every animal of the forest is mine and the cattle on a thousand hills. I know every bird in the mountains and the insects in the fields are mine'. God however refers to Himself as a jealous God. He is jealous for His Name, His Glory which He will not share with another and His people whom He will not let go.

Unfortunately the word jealousy has become associated with that terrible possessive attitude which destroys relationships. This is not jealousy instead it is controlling behaviour and bullying which prevents free thought and expression and activity. True jealousy on the other hand is when we seek to protect, provide and please people by building them up and encouraging them to become more Christ-like. If we as a community are not jealous for the welfare of our children they will grow up unloved with no respect or boundaries.

Shepherds in the church should also be jealous for their flock as Paul was 'I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband, to Christ, so that I might present you as a pure virgin to

Him'. 2 Corinthians 11v2

Let us this year put aside the urge to covet what belongs to our neighbour and bury any resentment we might have against God by saying "Why can't I have what he has, Lord? Don't you love me enough to give me what I want?" Instead let us embrace 'godliness with contentment is great gain'- 1 Timothy 6v6.

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

PAWS Heroes

Our wonderful PAWS Charity Shop goes from strength to strength and is looking impressive in their new premises in Hutchinson Street, in the Industrial Area. They are doing consistently well and making a huge contribution towards PAWS' ability to continue its primary health care service to the neglected dogs and cats of the Bitou area. Several hard-working people must be credited with this Plett success story: Roger Davis with his remarkable organisational abilities and Sandra Lawrence who manages everything so efficiently. Of course, nothing would happen without the dedicated volunteers who perform several essential daily functions so willingly. Di Butlin, chairman, and the PAWS Committee are eternally grateful to you all for enabling us to serve our community at this challenging time when our normal fundraising activities have been put on hold. The PAWS Charity Shop – PAWS Heroes, one and all!

THE CITIZENS RIGHTS PROTECTION UNITY

This is a new Local Party that has been formed in Plettenberg Bay that will be contesting in this year's Local Municipal Elections; The Citizens Rights Protection Unity (C R P U). This Party believes that adjoining with God can bring the total liberation of all citizens. It is here to change the way citizens perceive their strength in putting people in power, because as citizens we are the real architects of the development and prosperity of the community

We have noticed that lots of people have lost hope and confidence in our democratic system such that many have decisions of not to vote any more. They wish to have leaders of integrity; that is leaders who are choosing their thoughts and actions based on values rather than personal gains hence the formation of this party.

Its leaders are led by servanthood character that is people who believe that with one voice as a community we can change the tide towards positive attitude of democracy. One Unity! One Citizen! One Community! One Nation! These leaders believe that "serving humbly, justly in an unjust world can shape the future of every citizen today." This is a Party which will fight to bring back the hopes our community. Let us remember that without pain we can never know life. The past experiences have made us see the future with a different eye.

Mr. Mncakameli Patrick Ngqoba.

THE PLETT TOURISM ASSOCIATION PRESENTS AN INTEGRATED DOMESTIC CAMPAIGN AND SHARES OTHER INDUSTRY INSIGHT AT THE FIRST 2021 'PLETT CONVERSATIONS'

All tourism products from Plettenberg Bay were invited to the first 2021 'Plett Conversations' on the 17th of February at Emily Moon River Lodge. The first meeting of 2021 was attended by 30 local tourism businesses and the Plett Tourism team members. The purpose of the meeting was to share hospitality statistics for the October – December 2020 period, tourism project development plans and the Plett Tourism Domestic Campaign. The presentation was given by Patty Butterworth, now CEO of Plett Tourism. General Manager Cindy Wilson-Trollip presented the Plett Tourism Anchor Event Strategy and Webmaster Brendon Morris highlighted and presented the association's amazing digital success albeit in the midst of COVID. Public Relations Officer Wandisile Sebezo presented details of the iKasi Life radio show on MCFM. Shared statistics for October – December 2020 were not positive, as expected due to the coronavirus pandemic. The team have worked hard throughout the pandemic, developing, and managing several key tourism projects. The main presentation highlighted the current Domestic Campaign which continues to evolve as the landscape of tourism changes throughout the pandemic.

The tourism industry globally is slowly opening its borders and Plett has seen a small influx of both international and South African guests since January 2021. With an aggressive Domestic Campaign that is focused on key niche markets, the Plett Tourism Association is primely positioned to attract South Africans who enjoy the natural beauty, outdoor experience, fabulous food and the diverse accommodation offerings that Plett is most known for.

"These conversations are such an important component for our local tourism industry and in particular, we are able to listen to those who are 'on the ground' and are able to identify future trends and possible problems going forward," says Patty Butterworth, CEO of Plett Tourism.

The Plett Conversations presentation material is all available for viewing online. Go to www.pletttourism.com / go to the 'Members' tab / scroll down and click on 'Industry Documents'.

The next Plett Conversations will take place late March or early April (venue and time TBC).

SOUTH AFRICAN MUSIC ICON MAJOZI FINDS INSPIRATION IN PLETTENBERG BAY

Plettenberg Bay's sweeping landscapes and unique photo opportunities not only makes it a great place to spend a holiday, but also a catalyst for inspiration and creativity. From literature and art, sculpture and filming, Plett is a hub for creators and innovators. South African music icon Majozi recently visited Plett with Instagram celebrities Dean Cothill and Shawn Ogulu to film a winter campaign for an international camera brand's new equipment. With inspiration from Plett's wildlife and natural experiences, the crew were spoilt for choice. Majozi and his team were hosted by Plett Tourism and participating local businesses including CapeNature at Robberg Nature Reserve, Knysna Elephant Park and accommodation, Monkeyland and Birds of Eden, and Untouched Adventures. Majozi and the crew were fortunate to stay at the lodge at Knysna Elephant Park, which offered the most magnificent of encounters with the rescued African elephants that call our forests their home. Their stay in Plett also included a glimpse into iKasi Life in Plett with a visit to the dN2 Lounge and Kasi Lifestyle Tshisanyama. Photographs were commissioned with NB Photography. Contact us to find out more about filming opportunities, locations, and other industry information - info@pletttourism.com.

CHOICES

We're all eager to get back to our pre-COVID-19 lives.
Managing the risks can help us get there faster.

Think about the size of a venue. If you cannot maintain a safe, 1.5m distance, then consider going somewhere else.

Think about the smart choice. Having drinks with friends to celebrate? Keep it responsible.

Think about the next person. Always wear your mask in public and when you are finished eating.

Avoid crowds and confined spaces. Remember that masks, a safe distance and good ventilation will lower the risk of the spread of COVID-19.

Fresher is better! Ask to be seated outside if you're eating out.
