FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE THANK YOU MESSAGE FOR ALL CONTRIBUTORS TOWARDS THE EFFORTS WITH THE PLETT SHARK ACTION GROUP

06 NOVEMBER 2022, Plett Shark Action Group (PSAG) – It is less than three months since the first meeting of the PSAG, and in that short time PSAG has undergone a rapid evolution to become a serious team of dedicated stakeholders looking after the safety of beach-goers in Plettenberg Bay which is a notable achievement in such a short time frame.

We wish to acknowledge the contributions made by the dedicated members of PSAG and the hard working, professional staff of the Bitou Municipality Beach Control, Plett NSRI and Bitou Lifeguards. The recent establishment of the Plett Shark Spotters programme and the set-up of the Plett Ocean Smart campaign are testimony to their commitment.

Firstly, a very special thank you to Patrick McDonald, founder of the Ocean Outfitters Marine Conservation Trust, and his team for raising the finances required for the new Plett Ocean Smart / Shark Smart signage to be designed and printed. Additionally, for the incredible knowledge of sharks and for initiating the need for a Shark Spotters programme. Without their guidance and assistance with fundraising this programme may have not become a reality. Their continued support with fundraising efforts and guidance with the programme is greatly appreciated.

Second, we thank the many business leaders who have dedicated their time and expertise to the programme.

The dedication to see this initiative succeed is immeasurable. A special thank you to Jaco Kruger from Plett NSRI, Wayne Craig from Robberg Fine Foods, Clayton Bischoff from Learn to Surf and The Surf Cafe, Patty Butterworth from the Plett Tourism Association, Chris Fermor from Plett Junior Lifesaving and The Table Restaurant, Henk Nieuwoudt from CapeNature, Hendri Coetzee and Britany Arendse from Nature's Valley Trust, Barry Skinstad from Wild Oceans Africa and Bruce Noble with his enthusiastic knowledge of great white sharks.

Third, a dedicated team from the Bitou Municipality was needed to ensure the sustainability of the programme.

The municipal representation includes Executive Mayor Dave Swart, Municipal Manager Mbulelo Memani, Director of Community Services Melony Paulsen, Manager of Facilities and Maintenance James Sijama, Beach Manager John Prins, Beach Control Officer Norman Mayall, Plett Lifeguard Program Director Chas Fraser and Environmental Management Officer Anje Taljaard.

Finally, we would like to thank you, the private contributors and the community, for your committed interest and we encourage you to continue to send us your invaluable feedback and ideas for further improvement of the Plett Ocean Smart campaign.

Anyone wishing to donate to this initiative to make our beaches and waters safer can do so by mailing their contact information and correspondence to PSAG on email address plettceansmart@gmail.com.

*Conservation and preservation of our greatest assets; the ocean, waterways, forests, landmarks and wildlife in Plettenberg Bay, makes an ecologically and economically significant contribution to the town. Sharks, whales, dolphin and other marine life visit throughout the year - more often during the winter months between May and October. We encourage our residents and visitors to be aware of ocean safety at all times and be respectful of our safety tools and respective to the wildlife that also visit our shores.

Plett Evangelical Fellowship

As for me and my house,
We will serve the Lord. Joshua 24:15

Anton: 082 878 4193 / Graeme 083 628 1648

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Our meditation today focuses on just the first line of verse 3 of Psalm 23:

"HE RESTORES MY SOUL". That's the part of us that lives forever - either with the Lord in Heaven, or apart from him, with Satan in a lost eternity. Jesus spoke very urgently to this point in Mark chapter 8 when he spoke to his disciples about the cost of discipleship and how we need to prioritise in life. This is what he said: 'What shall it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his soul'. This is a chilling statement. Sadly, in many of our schools today we are offered an impressive marketing line punting their commitment to a holistic education, implying that they cater for every need that the young child or teenager might encounter. Physically, the school has the latest and the best. Mentally, yes, they have great teachers and all the necessary resources, but spiritually the children are left in a vacuum - every childman to himself. The needs of the soul are simply not addresses or valued.

Without God's Word, the Bible, there is simply no directive for the wellbeing of the soul. Jesus spoke of that as leaving sheep without a shepherd. Dads and Moms, if you share Jesus' passion for the soul then that leaves it up to you! This world does not care about your child's soul! This is nothing new - notice Jesus' statement when he saw the crowds in His day.

Matthew 9:36 "When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd". Horatio Spafford, a prominent American lawyer of the 1800's is best known for penning the words of the well-known Hymn: It is well with my soul. In October 1871 the Great Chicago fire reduced the city to ashes destroying most of Spafford's investment. Two years later on November 22, 1873, while crossing the Atlantic on the steamship Ville du Havre, the ship was struck by an iron sailing vessel, killing 226 people, including all four of Spafford's daughters: Annie, age 12; Maggie, 7; Bessie, 4; and an 18-month old baby. His wife, Anna, survived the tragedy. Upon arriving in Cardiff, Wales, she sent a telegram to Spafford that read "Saved alone". Shortly afterwards, as Spafford travelled to meet his grieving wife, he was inspired to write It Is Well with My Soul as his ship passed near where his daughters had died.

I leave you with two of the verses:
When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
when sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
It is well, it is well with my soul.

My sin, oh the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole, is nailed to His cross, and I bear it no more, Praise the Lord, praise the Lord,
O my soul!

With much Christian Love, Anton van Stormbroek
