In Memoriam

Harriette (Hawkes) Malcoff

March 18, 1944 – March 9, 2020

In loving memory of our dear mother Harriette (adoringly known by her grandchildren as "Gram") who passed away last year in London, Ontario with her children Marcy and Marc by her side.

Harriette was a strong, independent, sociable woman who grew up in Montreal, Quebec and lived in many places around the world. She spent 20 years in South Africa and took great pride in running her coffee business, San Francisco Coffee Roastery in Plettenberg Bay. She came back to Montreal in 2005 before moving to London, Ontario in 2009.

Harriette will be sadly missed forever by her children Marcy (and Steve), Marc (and Sandrine), and grandchildren Lexi and Ezra with whom she cherished every moment she spent, and by all the family and friends with whom she shared beautiful memories throughout her lifetime.

Please join us for a virtual memorial on Sunday, March 21, 2021 to share memories and stories of Harriette.
Email marcy.garellick@gmail.com for details.

Griqua Heritage horses in Plett find a home and purpose at Cairnbrogie Farm. At Cairnbrogie, a farm just next to the Griqua Settlement of Kranshoek, 15 minutes away from Plett, you will find a unique herd of horses. They are not just any horses – they are a special breed. The people who are looking after them call them the "Heritage Horses". Or, more to the point, the Griqua Horse Herd. "About a hundred years ago, when the Griqua people came to Plett and settled here, they came with their horses," says Lee Naude-Plocienik, kick-starting our conversation about the work she is doing here at Cairnbrogie looking after the horses. Lee is the Founder, CEO and Team Manager of the Africa Hoofprint Foundation, and they look after this herd under a programme called the Kranshoek Equine Project. One cannot talk about the Griqua Horses Herd without first talking about the Griqua people themselves. To understand the story of the horses, we must first understand the story of this nation, which writers like Angus Begg described as "South Africa's rainbow people". The story of the Griqua is not widely known and documented. It's a beautiful story, but like all stories about first nations, it's also a painful one. As history teaches us – nations rise and fall. The Griqua people trace their ancestry to two clans, the Koks and the Berendse – the first is made up of Khoikhoi and the second of mixed European descent dating back to the 1800s. Like the 'Trek Boers' of the time, they also moved from area to area trying to find a perfect settlement for themselves. Their cattle and horses would undergo such long journeys with them, and it would seem they too, would suffer the same nomadic fate. Over the years, most of these horses were neglected and some were abused. To motorists driving on the Airport Road between the N2 at Harkerville passing this area towards the Robberg, the horses have been somewhat of a nuisance, wandering about, wild and free, causing havoc. Lee, who stays in Kranshoek, started to approach some of the horse owners, convincing them that due to lack of resources and proper facilities in the village, they will be better off lending their horses to the Africa Hoofprint Foundation for better care. Of course, not all horse owners agreed, so some horses are still inside Kranshoek. Lee stresses the point that if it was not for Andrew Hill of Cairnbrogie Farm, they would not have been able to take care of the 10 Heritage Horses currently taking up residency at the farm where, for the time being, all expenses are paid for by the farm owner, Andrew and his family.

"Our natural heritage is mapped in our environment and natural resources, and part of that includes the special animals and plants that have evolved over time. These in conjunction with our cultural heritage are a direct reflection of our beautiful country, and they should be looked after and protected," comments Patty Butterworth (CEO, Plett Tourism). the Africa Hoofprint Foundation is a fully registered NPC that relies on donations to keep doing its good work. Last December they started to offer trail rides on the scenic Cairnbrogie Farm, which I can attest to having some of the most breathtaking views on the Robberg Coastal Corridor. All proceeds from the trail rides go towards taking care of the horses," says Wandisile Sebezo (Public Relations Officer for Plett Tourism).

We shared a ride with three youngsters from Kranshoek who are part of the Kranshoek Community Youth Project, an initiative started by the foundation to assist and train the youth how to take care of the horses properly.

These young people are also trained to ride the horses in preparation for competitions like the elite show jumping circuit in places like Kyalami and elsewhere. They are: Nicole Jacobs, 18 years old, riding for ten years, four years with the foundation, also part of the Kranshoek Equestrian Team; her horse is Lilly.

Deohlan Oliphant, 17 years old, three years with the foundation, Kranshoek Equestrian Team; Horse – Clover.

And Logan Ruiters, 15 years old, 2 years with the foundation, Kranshoek Equestrian Team; Horse – Emrin.

"Perhaps to realise the prophecy that led the Griqua people to these shores, we must first start by preserving the rich heritage they have left us," says Sebezo.

www.helloplett.co.za

The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

drive and narration will be done by our very knowledgeable guides.

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD

in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

For the next few weeks I want to highlight some gems to be found in the Book of Ecclesiastes or Prediker. It is one of the neglected books in the Bible which is sad because it contains much that is relevant to us in the secular and materialistic society we live in. It begins with words of despair-'Meaningless! Meaningless!' says the Teacher. 'Utterly meaningless! Everything is meaningless.' So begins a voyage as he seeks to find significance in his life by pursuing all the things which society says will bring happiness. All of us seek significance in our lives and we try to find it by attention seeking (sadly often with anti-social behaviour), acceptance (especially by our peers), admiration (physical appearance), affirmation and achievements (success, possessions and money).

But this only satisfies for a short while and then we have to pursue new "highs".

As Christians we need to remind ourselves of Psalms 62v1 "Truly my soul finds rest in God; my salvation comes from him" and 1Timothy 6v6 "godliness with contentment is great gain".

We all need to ask ourselves these following questions. Are we discontented with our life? What is the focus of our life?

Are we seeking godliness or self-gratification? Are we faithful in our stewardship of the gifts and opportunities God has given us?

Next time DV we will learn how the teacher continued his quest for satisfaction and a life of meaning. God bless

Graeme Greenwood
