The Plettenberg is celebrating World Vegan Month (November) with the introduction of two new, plant-based dishes created by Head Chef Kyle Macaskill. Part of The Liz McGrath Collection.

The Plettenberg is situated on a rocky headland in one of South Africa's most spectacular beach towns and is proud to be a member of Small Luxury Hotels of the World. The 1st of November is recognised globally as World Vegan Day to mark the establishment of the Vegan Society in 1944. It was in those early days that the phrases 'vegan' and 'veganism' were first coined. Now, more than 70 years later, the benefits of veganism for humans and the natural environment are widely known and chefs all over the world are preparing creative vegan menus to meet the increasing demand from health-conscious diners.

Kyle Macaskill, who was recently promoted to Head Chef at The Plettenberg, says that he too has noticed an increased demand from diners for vegetarian and vegan options. 'I enjoy experimenting a little and my aim is to execute the perfect marriage of flavours, using local produce. These two new dishes have been created to entice the senses of not only our vegan patrons, but our Meat-free Monday followers too.' A selection of vegan-friendly wines is available for perfect pairings.

The Warm roast cauliflower salad dish comprises of chargrilled roast cauliflower, avocado mousse, tomato salsa, African pesto, balsamic reduction and micro salad to reveal distinct African and Asian flavours as a nod to the many different cultures where the dish originates from.

Taking on a strong Asian influence, Sesame fried soba noodles comes with ponzu seared summer greens, charred onions, roast baby tomatoes and kimchi delivers a taste sensation. Flavour profiles include the nuttiness from toasted sesame and buckwheat noodles (free from gluten and any animal products), with sweetness from the ponzu seared vegetables and umami packing a punch from the homemade kimchi, which is rich in probiotics.

The Plettenberg invites restaurant reservations from non-resident guests too and is open daily for lunch and dinner.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11
Today we continue our study in the Book of Proverbs chapter 4 verse 23
Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it
Our hearts determine the direction of our lives-a wrong heart produces sin. Sin really means missing the mark and the outcome always is negative. How do we guard our hearts? The answer is to put on the armour of God-Ephesians chapter 6v13-17.

The next verse also tells us to guard our lips-Rid yourself of a deceitful mouth. And keep devious speech far from you
It doesn't come naturally-it requires ruthless action on our part and a wise decision to separate ourselves from both people who are devious and inappropriate media. The next verse- Let your eyes look directly ahead and let your gaze be fixed straight in front of you. Watch the path of your feet, And all your ways will be established. We need to constantly examine our lives to see where we are looking and where we are going. The great Greek philosopher Socrates said "the unexamined life is not worth living". But it is no good just examining ourselves we need to change as James says in chapter 1 verse 23 Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. Christians have a wonderful helper, the Holy Spirit, to assist us in changing our lifestyle, but we need to let Him do so and then we will enjoy the fruit that He wants to produce namely LOVE, JOY, PEACE, LONGSUFFERING, KINDNESS, PATIENCE, GOODNESS, FAITHFULNESS and SELF-CONTROL. What a wonderful world that would be if this was the experience of all of us.
Amen Graeme Greenwood
