WHAT'S ON

PREVENT FRAUD, AND DON'T BE A VICTIM OF SCAMS. PEOPLE MUST BE AWARE AND BE VIGILANT.

* Don't give out personal information on the phone, through the mail or over the internet unless you have initiated the contact or know whom you are dealing with.

* Verify if the representative posing on behalf of the company does indeed work at the company

* Criminals sometimes use the names of banks and their officials to give credibility to their "referrals" or support other aspects of their "to good-to-be-true" business proposals

* The offer may even be backed with impressive-looking documentation and letterheads, which may even be genuine, that have been stolen or reproduced.

* Once you are hooked, you will be asked to deposit money to help the transaction take place.

* If you make a deposit, you will never see the money again.

* Under no circumstances should you attempt to reply, either by email, phone or post.

We urge you not to become another statistic in these scams.

Kranshoek Rapid Response

Tuesday 13th June
Kranshoek Rapid Response members received intel from community members that drugs are being sold in the Kranshoek residential area. With the assistance of Sgt Cassels of SAPS Highway Patrol, the intel was followed up. Two suspects were arrested, Mandrax, Tik, and cash were found. Around 2 am. Wednesday morning, KRR members responded when alerted of a positive break-in at the newly renovated morgue in Kranshoek. 2 x Suspects were found on site with various tools: machetes, crowbars, knives, etc., that are used to dismantle taps, toilets, window frames doors, and so forth. Suspects were handed over to SAPS. Salute with pride, Sgt.
Cassels, Arthur & The KRR Squad, great response, excellent outcome. Working together with all security and emergency partners towards a safer Bitou area

First Responders

On Tuesday the 13th of June at approximately 10:16 First Responders were alerted to an incident at a lifestyle village in Plett where a woman had fallen and injured herself. The local Ambulance services were alerted, and Medlife Ambulance Service confirmed they were en route. First Responder volunteers responded to scene in their private vehicles. First Responder Freund said "When I arrived on scene, I found the female patient in the middle of the road with bystanders covering her with blankets and umbrellas as it had started to drizzle. I conducted a primary survey and found a deep laceration to the right leg, and a smaller laceration to the right hand as well as to the head." While attending to the patient fellow First Responders arrived. The bleeding was attended to, and the patients vital signs were monitored. The patient was kept stable and comfortable until Medlife Ambulance Services arrived on scene, following which the patient was handed into their care. First Responder Freund assisted with stabilizing the patient. Once assessed by Medlife Paramedics the patient was loaded into the ambulance and transported to Plettenberg Bay Mediclinic for further treatment.

We wish the patient a quick recovery. Thank you to Medlife Ambulance Services for their quick response and professional service. First Responders is a community-based volunteer group who provides their assistance to the professional medical services. First Responder Volunteers fund their own fuel, phone, insurance etc. We rely on donations from the public to fund our equipment and consumables. Make sure that you have the professional Emergency Services and Local ambulance services numbers on hand and call them FIRST! In the event of an emergency.

The VMCM- Voluntary Medical male circumcision program is a program that works hand in hand with the department of health. We have these programs once a month and we have professionals that do the circumcisions. Additional information is also provided on the day or at your nearest health facilities and you can also get it from the mobilisers. We cut from the age of 10 yrs and older. It is utmost important to remove the foreskin to prevent getting any infections of any kind and it's a very safe way to do it. For any information or a booking, 0735135119.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

David, the writer of Psalm 23, uses his experiences as a shepherd in his youth to highlight his relationship with the Lord. Today our devotion is concerned with the second part of verse 2: "He leads me beside the still waters". We all have our own perception of still waters and maybe your perception is of water that doesn't move. But stagnant water is lifeless and a cesspool of life-threatening diseases as well as a breeding ground for mosquitoes. The still water that David refers to is vibrant, flowing, sweet to drink and life giving because it is fed from a spring. Yet there are times when the water can be turbulent - when a strong wind gets up or there is a flash flood, but it remains still water. How can that be? Our perception of turbulence is not the same as that of the Lord. Remember when the disciples were terrified their boat was going to sink in the storm yet Jesus was fast asleep. Christ reprimanded the disciples for their lack of faith because to the Lord it remained still water because He was in the boat. As the children's chorus says "with Christ in the vessel we can smile at the storm". Paul emphasises this in Philippians 4v7: "And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." Friends, when the still water you are drinking from seems turbulent and threatens to overwhelm you, understand that the Good Shepherd is still leading you. He exposes us to what may seem unbearable so we will become more dependant, trusting and obedient on Him. But He promises and ensures his sheep are not exposed to danger that they cannot cope with. 1 Corinthians 10v13: "And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it". Please note that the Lord knows what we can bear and often it is far more than we think. Friends, if you think you are being led next to a raging torrent and your life is a turbulent mess, you have to believe the Good Shepherd is still leading you because to Him it remains still water. He is not caught unaware - He has been this way before and knows all the escape routes so trust and obey because "there is no other way to be happy in Jesus than to trust and obey".

blanket and it's almost always on and we have blackouts on the windows, and they are drawn for arvi nap and nighttime sleep. This was actually a very nice weekend because we had a new friends visiting here and we had a visitor from Wales here. Although he's much younger than us we had such fun with him and we tried all sorts of things that we wouldn't normally try on our own. We did a lot of laughing. He is married and has two little kids. He thoroughly enjoyed every minute here and we had as much fun with as Beloved did with him working here, showing the golfers another sort of bunker. More structured. The weather has brought out my hoards of jerseys and jackets, all needless to say, too small, so it's sort out time again. I don't whether To blame my Parkinson's or to all the lovely sweet things that have taken my fancy to since I got this disease. I have also discovered that I've starting waking up aching all over in the morning, a bit today like old people do, really achy legs arms back etc it slowly goes back to normal as the day wears on. I haven't had Beloved here to edit, so just work out what I meant to say. Lots of love CHATTERBOX

Chatterbox - Love Winter
I don't know whether I've got the energy to write something really wild it's been a pretty wet few days but I can tell you one thing that I just love about winter is the early dark mornings and the early dark evenings. As you can gather by this I do you like my bedroom and my bed. I do a lot of things in my bedroom and especially on my bed, no wonder I spend forever cleaning doing washing because whenever I come into my room and onto my bed the animals also come into my room and onto the bed and if I'm painting there in amongst the animals and if I'm in eating or nibbling there, I have animals on the bed too. Our bedroom is my paradise my place to hide away and also it's always warm, mainly because I have a hot
