DIFFERENTLY-ABLED AWARENESS
CAMPAIGN - DISABLE PARKING FINES AND STICKERS

Please note that if you are either temporarily or permanently disabled and do not have a sticker on your vehicle you WILL get a fine. Our traffic Officers are very much aware of the frustration of those who genuinely need a Disable Parking Bay but find that some selfish individual who is perfectly normal will take a chance and be parked in the bay that the Differently-Abled so desperately need.

THE PROCEDURE IS :Collect the necessary form at the Traffic Office located at 1 Park Lane, opposite the fire station

Take the form to your doctor for completion and signature, this is important as he needs to give a current overview of your condition.

Take the form to the Cashier at the Municipal offices on the 2nd floor (old Standard Bank premises) Mellvilles Centre and pay R109. Go back to Park Lane with your completed form and receipt to collect your sticker. If you cannot go through all the above steps, let someone assist you but your application will not be considered if you do not have a genuine assessment through your doctor. Hope this will assist you, you MUST have that sticker on your windscreen, it takes too much time and energy trying to get out of the fine afterwards. The Traffic officers will adhere to the Traffic Regulations and we, the public must respect their responsibilities, they are, after all also there to protect the Differently-Abled from selfish, uncaring people. If you need any further advice, you are welcome to call The Differently-Abled Awareness Campaign Rita van Rensburg/Hardaker 082 5602 606

A few important rules to teach your daughter

1. It's okay to cry when you're hurt. But, wash your face, and get up off the floor when you're done. You don't belong down there.
2. You are a woman, you do NOT need a man, but you can absolutely enjoy your life with a good one.
3. Happiness is not a permanent state. Wholeness is. Don't confuse these.
4. Never walk through an alley alone.
5. 'Can't' - is a cop-out.
6. Hold your heroes to a high standard. Be your own hero.
7. If you can't smile with your eyes, don't smile. Insincerity is nothing to aspire to.
8. Stay true to yourself always.
9. Your body, your rules.
10. If you have an opinion, you'd better know why.
11. Practice your passions.
12. Ask for what you want. The worst thing they can say is no.
13. Wish on stars, and then get to work to make them happen.
14. Stay as sweet as you are.
15. Say Please, Thank You, and Pardon Me, whenever the situation warrants it.
16. Reserve "I'm sorry" for when you truly are!
17. Question everything ... except your own intuition.
18. You are amazing! Don't let anyone ever make you feel you are not. If someone does....walk away. You deserve better.
19. No matter where you are, you can always come home.
20. Be happy and remember your roots.
21. Say what you mean and mean what you say.
22. Be kind; treat others how you would like them to treat you.

23. If in doubt, remember whose daughter you are and straighten your crown. ☐

He aint Heavy, he's my Brother

Remember the elephants

While there is still time, contemplate and show more support and compassion for the Differently-Abled this Season, buy a R50 ticket in the Lottery, involve those around you and share a ticket if you need to, lucky number draw on the 29th November – thousands to be won. Call Rita 082 560 2606 for details. 50% goes to the lucky ticket holder/s – 50% towards accessibility in sports for the Differently-Abled.

Some of the lyrics to remind you to take special care of the ones you love, while there is still time.

He aint Heavy, he's my Brother

"So on we go, his welfare is my concern, no burden is he to bear, he ain't heavy, he's my brother.

If I'm laden at all, I'm laden with sadness that everyone's heart isn't filled with the gladness of love for one another. It's a long, long road, from which there is no return, while we're on the way there, why not share and the load doesn't weigh me down at all,

He aint Heavy, he's my Brother

Make a Difference this Season, carry one friend's burden, be aware and care. YOU know who needs you, DO something about it, it will be repaid at some stage in your life when you may need it most.

The Season is upon

Suggestions to make your Universal Access (UA/special needs) guests' stay more comfortable
Christmas Decorations are on the shelves in some stores - Are you ready for that "special" guest, family or friend?
It is understood that in general, up to 20% of a population can be "disabled". This could cover someone with a hearing or visual disability right up to someone who makes full time use of a wheelchair. The following (inexpensive and easy to do) tips are recommended to make that person's stay a little more comfortable. Many of these suggestions can be implemented in a "regular" guest room. It is suggested that a UA pack/kit is prepared, stored and replenished after use. See items below.
Consider the availability of inter leading rooms if the guest is travelling with a carer. Draw up a checklist for each stay to determine the nature of the disability and if assistance is required.
If so, what assistance?
Ensure that all staff are aware of the guests' needs, especially in the case of an emergency. Meet and greet - is parking available? Does the guest need assistance with luggage? Have you provided the name of a contact person/phone number for the duration of their stay? Remove excess furniture from the room if requested. Is there sufficient space for the guest to transfer from a wheelchair on to the bed? Does a wheelchair fit under the table/desk? Offer to relocate items on the desk to a bedside table or supply a duplicate set. Tissues? Pen and paper? Bottle of water? Compendium? Room service menu? Provide appropriate sized toiletries in suitable packaging (large size, pump action bottles are easier to manage than individual sachets or small bottles with lids). Are these accessible? Wall mounted for easy use? Provide clothing and towel hooks/rails at a convenient height. Would a fold up clothes horse be a better option? Ensure a full length mirror is available and accessible from a wheelchair. Is the hairdryer conveniently placed for use at the mirror? Can power points be easily accessed? Install a second set of brackets in the wardrobe at wheelchair height. The clothing rail can be moved lower for the use of a guest in a wheelchair. Install a peephole at wheelchair height. Provide the use of a walking stick, walker, or plastic chair (to be used in a regular shower), I have one that I could show you,

The Green Hearts

Children's Fear

As adults, we know that life can sometimes seem like a maze filled with danger, anxiety, disaster and heartache lurking around every corner. Almost every day we are faced with situations that elicit fear, of varying degree.

Fortunately, as adults we have acquired tools to understand and regulate these fears. These tools however are not developed in adulthood. At 4 months, babies can already distinguish between different emotions; and at age 5, children become aware that emotions, such as fear, can be regulated.

But how is your child regulating fear?

And how can you help?

You can begin by talking to them about fear. This is important, as your child will feel supported and safe. Ideally, fear should be acknowledged, regulated and released. Talking about fear in this way also gives you the opportunity to determine how serious or concerning their fear is - only fears that persist or interfere with a child's life should be considered abnormal.

Typical fears according to developmental stages:

Toddlers: separation, noises, falling, animals and insects, using the potty, bathing and bedtime.

Pre-school children: fear of animals and insects, monsters and ghosts, getting lost, divorce, loss of a parent, and bedtime.

Primary school children: separation, noises, falling, new situations (especially starting school) and bedtime in younger children; social rejection, war, new situations, and burglars in older children.

Adolescents: burglars, new situations (going to college, etc.), war, divorce, and sexual relations.

You can support your child by respecting and listening to their feelings and fears. Allow them to describe and explain the fear, without judging or disregarding their experience.

Teach your children how to deal with fear - start off by acknowledging it. Regardless of what they are afraid of and why, to them it is real. Emphasise that it's not wrong to be afraid or fearful. In an appropriate context, explain to your children how you as an adult can relate to feeling unsure, scared or fearful.

Understand the fear - fear is ultimately a way or need to protect yourself from a potential risk, and an attempt to take care of yourself. Fear tells you that something doesn't feel or isn't right.

Try not to be overprotective by allowing your child to avoid all of the things that they are afraid of. And try not to overreact - this might reinforce and worsen the fear. However, avoid forcing your child to face their fears - a hidden threat may still be present.

Determine the level or seriousness of the fear. If your child's fear is persistent, influences their functioning, elicits concerning behaviour such as bedwetting/soiling, avoidance, panic, recurring nightmares, to name a few - ask for help. Be aware of potential risks and sources of fear in and around your home, school and social environments. Do as much as you can to provide your child with a safe and comfortable space wherever they may be. They deserve it. For further support with your child's experience of fear and/or other behavioural concerns, contact Erika Revington, Educational Psychologist (HPCSA Reg

Chatterbox

A Working Girl

MY Airbnb is going swimmingly. I suppose because it is getting close to the end of the year. Beloved handed it all over to me as he says I have more time than him. The other day I went out for a coffee with a friend which lasted about two hours, and came home, leapt into my bed for an afternoon nap. I thought I should just check Airbnb and lo and behold there was a booking needing urgent attention. I decided it could wait until after my nap until looking at the booking again, realised the couple was arriving in an hour. So had to reverse all my napping thoughts and go and check on the room. It's a long story but I never did get my nap that day and also our guests got lost and finally only arrived at ten pm after Beloved had gone to find them.

I have also got that spring feeling, so my staff also has to have it, because things just go flying!!!!
EVERYTHING needs dusting or washing, and with all this wind, that job has trebled in size.
I have met two rather nice girls in my travels these last couple of weeks. I bought something from the one, we were in the hairdresser together and ended up having lunch together and got on very well. Then I met another lovely girl, who was lunching with her husband at Natures Valley and it was a cold and wet day, there were no spare tables - so we ended up sitting with them. Her and I got on like a house in fire and have had lunch since then. I had promised her one of my little lemon trees so that was why we lunched. She's quite shy and as you all know I am not so I guess I did all the talking. They are quite new to Plett. Well I must fly now; have a hundred million things to do.
