The 176 000 hectare Greater Addo Elephant National Park is the third largest National Park in Southern Africa.

The variety of wildlife found in the Park is astounding, with 417 species of birds, 95 kinds of mammals, including the Big 5 and of course the 600 elephants that roam there, it is an absolute treat for nature lovers.

MORNING GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 06h00 - 06h30

Duration of Game Drive 07h00 - 12h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The first few hours are good to see antelope, zebra and some of the cats. Between 09h00 and 09h30 we serve a delicious continental breakfast in the picnic area. Usually one has good sightings of elephants and buffalo after 10h00 nearer the waterholes. We return to the Gate around 12h00 and then back to the Guest House. Refreshments are available throughout the drive.

AFTERNOON GAME DRIVE

Collection from Guest House in Summer-Strand P.E between 13h00 - 13h30

Duration of Game Drive 14h00 - 18h00
We enter the Park through the Addo Colchester Gate, Camp Matyholweni. The early afternoon is good for elephant and buffalo sightings, near the water holes, as well as some antelope and zebra. We stop mid-afternoon at a disembarkment point or picnic area for teas, coffee, refreshments, scones and snacks. The latter part of the afternoon is usually good for antelope and the illusive rhino. The Park has thick bush and offers an abundance of birds, tortoise, dung beetles and other creatures.

drive and narration will be done by our very knowledgeable guides.

A word fitly spoken is like

APPLES OF GOLD

in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

In the past few weeks as we have been studying the Book of Ecclesiastes we have seen how the 'teacher' tried everything to find satisfaction in life and failed in his quest. Today we are looking at the third chapter that begins with 'there is a time for every activity under heaven' and the teacher lists the different seasons of life which in our perception are either good or bad. At first glance this list seems meaningless and even a bit depressing, but is actually inspiring if we read the list in the context of verses 11 and 12- "God has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end. I know that there is nothing better for people than to be happy and to do good while they live". It is important to note "everything beautiful in its time". All seasons of our life have meaning and opportunity because God has made them and so we must not waste them. We can learn from the animal world which uses the bounty of summer so they can survive the hardship of winter-bears don't eat whilst hibernating in their den, but still give birth and nurture their cubs during this time. One of the seasons mentioned is 'there is a time to speak and a time to be silent'. Time to speak is beautiful when we speak the right message at the right time to the right person. As Paul writes in Romans 10v15 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news! The most beautiful news we can share is the good news of Jesus Christ, but it must be to the right person and at the right time as we must always exercise discernment and sensitivity when we speak into peoples' lives. Time to be silent is beautiful when we don't gossip, criticise, bully, stir up anger or generally speak evil. James in his epistle chapter 3v5 warns us 'So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it boasts of great things. See how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!' Many lives have been destroyed emotionally, mentally and even physically by careless and unkind words which are often said to boost our own self-esteem-also we must avoid inflammatory rhetoric which can be misunderstood and lead to unnecessary conflict in family and society. Time for embracing is beautiful, but what about a time of 'not embracing' in v5? We tend to take friendship, fellowship and hospitality for granted, but Covid 19 has meant we have had to refrain from embracing- what is beautiful is that it has forced us to reassess our love for each other-is it superficial and selfish or is it sacrificial? We also have had time to step back from our hectic lifestyle so we are reenergized for when we can once again embrace with a renewed desire and commitment.

Next week we will look at He has also set eternity in the human heart; yet no one can fathom what God has done from beginning to end.

God bless
Graeme Greenwood
