Strandloper Project

Marine Wildlife Strandings in the Garden Route.

If, while enjoying your time on the beach and shoreline, you encounter a stranded species of marine wildlife, please contact your local Marine Stranding organization.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A TURTLE.

- 1) Do not return it to the ocean. It has stranded as it is either weak, ill, tired or has ingested plastic.
- 2) Do not place it in a container of water. Turtles are air breathing and can drown if weak and tired.
- 3) Keep it in a dry, ventilated and room temperature box, preferably placing the turtle on a towel.
- 4) Contact the turtle rescue number or the local marine stranding organization.
- 5) Get a location pin

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A LIVE SEAL.

- 1) Do not try and chase it into the water - it is either tired, undernourished or weak and wants to rest.
- 2) Create a safe zone around it and prevent dogs and crowds from approaching it.
- 3) Call your local marine stranding organization.
- 4) Take a location pin to share with the rescuers.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A PENGUIN

- 1) Do not try and chase it into the water - it is either tired, undernourished or weak and wants to rest.
- 2) Create a safe zone around it and prevent dogs and crowds from approaching it.
- 3) Call your local marine stranding organization.
- 4) Take a location pin to share with the rescuers.
- 5) After you have spoken to a marine animal rescuer, and they request you to collect the Penguin, follow their instructions on how to handle it and where to take it. Please be aware that they have extremely sharp beaks and need to be handled with care and cautiously.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A DOLPHIN

- 1) Check for any obvious injuries.
- 2) Report to the local marine stranding organization and provide a detailed report of condition and location.
- 3) Unless advised by the stranding organization, do not attempt to return the dolphin to the ocean. Keep it cool by placing wet towels over it and wetting the towels about every 10 minutes.
- 4) Reduce any stress from dogs and crowds.

Drugs have an enormous negative impact on our communities. Drug lords thrive by using drug addicts to do their dirty work. Fortunately, we have committed Bitou Law enforcers like officers Mzo & Faith that work tirelessly to bring drug abusers/dealers to book.

Last night (28-01-24), whilst performing their CPU duties, the suspicious behavior of a person led to the discovery of mandrax and crystal tik in his possession. The suspect was arrested and taken to Plett Police Station.

Keep on working with all security partners towards the betterment of all our residents.

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver - Proverbs 25v11

Last week we commenced a study on the three pitfalls that we must avoid if we want to experience the joy and contentment God wants us to have. The dangers are found in the 1st Epistle of John chapter 2v16: "For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world".

Today we look at lust of the eyes. Eyesight is a wonderful blessing enabling us to enjoy this amazing creation we live in, but it can be a curse if a glancing look becomes a lingering lust. What is lust? It is an obsessive self-indulgence that takes from others with no concern for what effect it has on them. Lust is the opposite of love which is a self-sacrificial desire to give to others.
Because lust is selfish, the lust of the eyes
is anti-social and has life-changing consequences - not just for ourselves, but for our loved ones and those who are innocent bystanders. We are all guilty of lust of the eyes from time to time, but if we are sensible and pro-active, we will close the door to the temptation by closing the web site, averting our eyes and fleeing from the person or thing which is arousing the lust.
Then we must do the spiritual thing and confess our sins to the Lord because "He is faithful to forgive our sins and cleanse us
from all unrighteousness" [1 John 1v9].
Then we will continue to enjoy peace,
harmony with others and contentment which is treasure beyond measure.
Next week we will look at the deadly sin of pride and how to avoid it.
God Bless
Graeme Greenwood
