As for me and my house,
We will serve the Lord. Joshua 24:15

Anton: 082 878 4193 / Graeme 083 628 1648

A word fitly spoken is like APPLES OF GOLD in a setting of silver-Proverbs 25v11

Most of us crave peace and harmony, but the reality is when we find ourselves wronged and it is not resolved to our satisfaction there is tension in our interpersonal relationships. In the Gospel of Matthew chapter 18v15, Jesus Christ sets out how conflict should be handled: "If your brother or sister sins, go and point out their fault, just between the two of you. If they listen to you, you have won them over. But if they will not listen, take one or two others along, so that "every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses." Unfortunately, the easy way out is to gossip and bad mouth the offender. The Bible (Romans 1v29) equates gossip with murder because of how it destroys friendships and divides communities. The Book of Proverbs has much good advice such as chapter 26v20: "For lack of wood the fire goes out, and where there is no gossip, quarreling quiets down." We all have a need for self-justification, but we should rather be seeking the good of the offender as we read in Galatians 6v1: "Brothers and sisters, even if a person is caught in any wrongdoing, you who are spiritual are to restore such a person in a spirit of gentleness; each one looking to yourself, so that you are not tempted as well." If we have this mindset and deal with hurt the Biblical way, the fire goes out and good comes out of evil. We might even be surprised when we approach the offender face to face that our hurt was wrongly perceived by us and maybe we discover we are just as guilty in our treatment of others and guilty of what we read in Proverbs 26v18: "Like a maniac who shoots flaming arrows, arrows and death, so is a person who deceives his neighbour and says, "Was I not joking?"
Graeme Greenwood

Dear Mom to be
Don't worry, we are here for you!

Knysna Life maternity unit will be closing on the 31st of January. This is part of a national trend, reflecting, primarily, a significant shortage of qualified staff and insufficient numbers to make the unit economically viable to the Life group. This is, indeed a sad day for the community it has served so faithfully for the last 25 years, however, rest assured, your visits to Dr Seton and/or Midwife Sr Heilet will continue as always.

Antenatal Clinics in Knysna will continue on a Tuesday and Thursday as always. Sister Heilet will provide a follow-up service in Plettenberg Bay on a Monday and Wednesday. The Life consulting rooms at Medway Centre do not have alternative power arrangements and these clinics are becoming increasingly difficult with high load shedding schedules.

There will however be more time to conduct antenatal services at the Knysna clinic, which should significantly reduce waiting times.

At this stage, it is not possible to provide safe homebirth facilities in the area and this practice cannot be supported privately.

We have full commitment from George MediClinic which includes a full day theatre availability on Fridays. The practice enjoys excellent support from our George colleagues which will continue into the future. As such, we can continue to offer obstetric services and follow-up in the area with deliveries conducted in George.

Your baby's birthday is one of the most memorable days of your life.

Birth is beautiful, astounding, and intense. It's exciting and life changing. Giving birth should be your greatest achievement, not your greatest fear.

We are with you ... every step of the way ... Please speak to us, should you have any concerns or questions.
